Representations of Muslims Christopher Flood, Stephen Hutchings, Galina Miazhevich, Henri Nickels, 2012-07-19 Relations between Muslims and non Muslims have received unprecedented attention since 9 11 In many predominantly non Muslim countries intense debates have focused on international relations with Muslim majority states but dilemmas of national policy and practice in incorporating domestic Muslim minorities have also provoked heated argument Meanwhile within predominantly Muslim societies and within Muslim diasporas relationships with non Muslims have posed pressing questions about compatibility antagonism or adaptation of beliefs identities and customs The essays forming this multidisciplinary collection analyse concerns arising from clashing perceptions of Muslims in the political and cultural spheres the majority of chapters deal with non Muslim representations of Muslims but several chapters reverse the perspective by examining Muslims own understandings of their relationships with non Muslim societies Contributors include Ahmed K al Rawi Ebru Canan Sokullu Tereza Capelos Gaetan Clavier Danila Genovese Matteo Gianni Signe Kj r J rgensen Priyasha Kaul Chloe Patton Timothy Peace Mirjam Shatanawi Dunya van Troost and John Turner      The Hidden Spirituality of Men (Volume 1 of 3) (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition) ,      Vietnam's Second Front Andrew L. Johns,2010-03-12 The Vietnam War has been analyzed dissected and debated from multiple perspectives for decades but domestic considerations such as partisan politics and election year maneuvering are often overlooked as determining factors in the evolution and outcome of America s longest war In Vietnam s Second Front Domestic Politics the Republican Party and the War Andrew L Johns assesses the influence of the Republican Party its congressional leadership politicians grassroots organizations and the Nixon administration on the escalation prosecution and resolution of the Vietnam War This groundbreaking work also sheds new light on the relationship between Congress and the imperial presidency as they struggled for control over U S foreign policy Beginning his analysis in 1961 and continuing through the Paris Peace Accords of 1973 Johns argues that the Kennedy Johnson and Nixon administrations failed to achieve victory on both fronts of the Vietnam War military and political because of their preoccupation with domestic politics Johns details the machinations and political dexterity required of all three presidents and of members of Congress to maneuver between the countervailing forces of escalation and negotiation offering a provocative account of the ramifications of their decisions With clear incisive prose and extensive archival research Johns s analysis covers the broad range of the Republican Party s impact on the Vietnam War offers a compelling reassessment of responsibility for the conflict and challenges assumptions about the roles of Congress and the president in U S foreign relations      Cheering for Self James S. Vass Jr,James Vass Jr,2003-05-13 This book is a study of UW men s basketball fans during the 2001 2002 season and explores their proclivity to cheering for self during basketball events The term basketball event is used rather than basketball game to make clear that everything connected to and seen heard or experienced before during and after a basketball game is included The actual game itself is only part of the basketball event An undercurrent runs throughout this participant observation mini ethnography dealing with access and the relative quality of that access to basketball events being affected by ones age class race and gender The prominent role of advertising in shaping basketball events and helping to construct fans as consumers of products both commercial and institutional during the process of cheering for self is central to this idea Cheering for self is the activity engaged in by individual fans after they find things to identify or connect with through personal investment Fans cheer for self indirectly Fans cheer for the team that they identify with Through the process of cheering for self while attending the basketball event people are taught how to become fans to consume a UW product the basketball event and to consume advertisers products People have a tendency to spend their entire life trying to impress others
