My Yes Is on the Table Jennifer Hand, 2022-04-05 Isn't it time you said yes to God What's holding you back The risk The unknown The unwillingness to shake up the comfortable status quo Whatever it is if you're not in God's best place you're missing out on something great The Lord is calling you into a Promised Land But it's going to take some faith steps to get there Jenn Hand wants you to be able to say to God My yes is on the table Not halfheartedly Not half the time Not halfway there Jenn wants you to go all in with God because God is all in for you My Yes Is on the Table takes you into the story of the Israelites as they journeyed out of the wilderness and into the Holy Land that God had granted them Each chapter will challenge you to move from a fear stop to a faith step And once you've started taking those steps with God there's no telling where you'll end up For too long you've been paralyzed by fear of the future You feel God calling You want to go forward with His plans Yet fear has stopped you from taking the leap No more Instead of letting fear stop you short let faith call you forward with newfound confidence and holy boldness Put your yes on the table and watch God do more in your life than you could have ever imagined

Disappearing Object Phenomenon Tony Jinks, 2016-10-14 Have you ever had your car keys or television remote control inexplicably vanish from under your nose only to reappear months later in another part of the house for no evident reason Most would dismiss it as absent mindedness with perhaps a joking remark about paranormal activity Yet remarkable circumstances surrounding many such accounts suggest that the mysterious disappearance of objects could be more than just one of those things Examining a large selection of fascinating narratives this book reviews the disappearing object phenomenon DOP from a scientific standpoint Both skeptical and supportive perspectives on DOP are considered leading to the conclusion that disappearing appearing and reappearing objects are indicators of a controversial take on the nature of reality

Between Philosophy and Theology Christophe Brabant, 2017-03-02 Long past the time when philosophers from different perspectives had joined the funeral procession that declared the death of God a renewed interest has arisen in regard to the questions of God and religion in philosophy The turn to secularization has produced its own opposing force Although they declared themselves from the start as not being religious thinkers such as Derrida Vattimo Zizek and Badiou have nonetheless maintained an interest in religion This book brings some of these philosophical views together to present an overview of the philosophical scene in its dealings with religion but also to move beyond the outsider's perspective Reflecting on these philosophical interpretations from a fundamental theological perspective the authors discover in what way these interpretations can challenge an understanding of today's faith Bringing together thinkers with an established reputation Kearney Caputo Ward Desmond Hart Armour along with young scholars this book challenges a range of perspectives by putting them in a new context senior pastors Hillsong Church Derrida and Religion Yvonne Sherwood, Kevin Hart, 2004-09-30 Derrida and Religion Other Testaments represents the most comprehensive attempt to date to explore and test Derrida's contributions and influence on the study of theology, biblical studies and the philosophy of religion. With over twenty original essays from highly respected scholars such as John Caputo, Daniel Boyarin, Edith Wyschogrod, Tim Beal and Gil Anidjar, Derrida and Religion will quickly become the locus classicus for those interested in the increasingly vibrant work on religion and deconstruction and postmodernism.

"The Time Is Fulfilled" Lynne Moss Bahr, 2018-12-27 In this study Lynne Moss Bahr explores the concept of temporality as central to Jesus's proclamation of the Kingdom of God. Using insights from continental philosophy on the messianic which expose the false claim that time progresses in a linear continuum, Bahr presents these philosophical positions in critical dialogue with the sayings of Jesus regarding time and time's fulfillment. She shows how the Kingdom represents the possibilities of a disruption in time, one that reveals the intrinsic relation between God and humanity. In illustrating how Jesus's sayings regarding time are thus expressions of his messianic identity as of the world and not of the world, Bahr argues that the meaning of Jesus's identity as Messiah is embedded in the disjuncture of time in the impossibility of now from which the Kingdom comes. Bahr's use of critical theory in this study expands the concept of God's Kingdom beyond the traditional confines of the discipline.

Delilah Rose: Living in the Past Rose Love, 2011-01-19 Spiritual Renewal Mary Sue Burt, 2023-02-02 In this book there are examples of how God can bring renewal to the Spirit within from his Word. For any season of life you may face, Scripture speaks to us in circumstances, struggles and challenges of life to help encourage and bring new beginnings and growth. The Power of Faith Peter Abuya, 2018-11-06 Every country has her own currency. Currency is the legal tender that helps you make purchases. Heaven has her own legal tender and it is called faith. This book is a book that helps one know how to spiritually purchase and to command the impossible. This book is a must read for all new converts as well as church leaders.

Anatheism Richard Kearney, 2010 Has the death of God paved the way for a new kind of religious project, a more responsible way to seek sound and love the things we call divine? This book explores this question and argues how, by accepting that we know nothing about God, we can rediscover an absent holiness in our lives and reclaim an everyday divinity.

Reading Lezama's Paradiso William Rowlandson, 2007 This book focuses on the novel Paradiso of Cuban author Jos Lezama Lima, 1910-1976, and in particular on the protagonist Jos Cem. It examines the development of Cem according to the three distinct phases detailed by Lezama: the placental world of family protection, the awakening to the exterior world, and the subsequent friendships made and the eventual encounters with Oppiano. Licario Cem's progression and his growing ability to interpret and create texts is analysed as analogous to the reader's progression through the novel. In this respect both the reader and Cem are obliged to interpret the complex symbolism according to interpretative skills acquired from the text itself. In a similar fashion the connection between Cem's guide Licario and the author Lezama is investigated. By exploring these connections between reader and protagonist, author and character, the author of this work suggests a radical and hitherto unexplored approach to the text of Lezama.

The Creation of Half-Broken People Siphiwe Gloria Ndlovu, 2025-04-08

Stupendous African Gothic by the winner of Yale University's Windham Campbell Prize. Showcasing African Gothic at its finest, The Creation of Half-Broken People is the extraordinary tale of a nameless woman plagued by visions. She works for the Good Foundation and its museum filled with artifacts from the family's exploits in Africa, the Good family members all being descendants of Captain John Good of King Solomon's Mines fame. Our heroine is happy with her association with the Good family until one day she comes across a group of protestors outside the museum. Instigating the group is an ancient woman who our heroine knows is not real. She knows too that the secrets of her past have returned. After this encounter, the nameless woman finds herself living first in an attic and then in a haunted castle, her life anything but normal as her own intangible inheritance unfolds through the women who inhabit her visions. With a knowing nod to classics of the Gothic genre, Sipiwe Gloria Ndlovu weaves the threads of a complex colonial history into the present through people half-broken by the stigmas of race and mental illness, all the while balancing the humanity of her characters against the cruelty of empire in a hypnotic, haunting account of love and magic.

Faith-Rooted Organizing Rev. Alexia Salvatierra, Peter Heltzel, 2013-12-06

Since the 1930s organizing movements for social justice in the U.S. have largely been built on secular assumptions. But what if Christians were to shape their organizing around the implications of the truth that God is real and Jesus is risen? Reverend Alexia Salvatierra and theologian Peter Heltzel propose a model of organizing that arises from their Christian convictions with implications for all faiths.

Cross and Khôra Marko Zlomislić, Neal DeRoo, 2010-01-01

This volume poses the question of the relationship between the two main influences on the thought of John D. Caputo: one of the most well-known philosophers of religion working in North America today, Jacques Derrida, and Jesus Christ. Given the seemingly abstract character of Derrida's account of the messianic, how can one reconcile deconstruction and the concrete messianism of Christianity as Caputo tries to do over and over again? How can one hold together the love of a God willing to be crucified and the dry desert khôra which doesn't care? This collection of essays from world-renowned scholars seeks to illuminate the difficulties inherent in this seemingly contradictory pair of influences. With his trademark wit and humor, Caputo responds to his interlocutors while clarifying his position on numerous matters of interest to the church and in the academy. In addition to dealing with the concern for issues of hermeneutics, phenomenology, and negative theology for which Caputo has become famous, these essays also evaluate Caputo's legacy in fields previously not thought to be affected by his deconstructive version of religion: feminism, sacramental theology, analytic philosophy of religion, and Christology.
