Politics of School Integration Crain, Robert L.,1969 The Politics of School Desegregation Robert L. Crain,1968

Historical Dictionary of School Segregation and Desegregation Jeffrey Rafter,1998-10-15 Throughout the nation's history from before the Civil War through Reconstruction across the years of lynchings and segregation to the Brown v Board of Education decision and the battles over busing no issue has divided the American people more than race and at the heart of the race issue has been the conflict over school segregation and desegregation Prior to the Civil War South Carolina enacted the first compulsory illiteracy law which made it a crime to teach slaves to write and other Southern states soon followed South Carolina's example After the Civil War schools for blacks were founded throughout the South including many Historically Black Colleges and Universities The 1896 Plessy v Ferguson Supreme Court decision established the principle of separate but equal education which led to decades of segregation With the 1954 Brown decision the Supreme Court overturned the separate but equal principle and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 empowered the federal government to affect school desegregation The process of desegregation continues to this day with much debate and mixed results Through more than 260 alphabetically arranged entries this comprehensive reference book describes persons court decisions terms and concepts legislation reports and books types of plans and organizations central to the struggle for educational equality The volume covers topics ranging from emotionally laden terms such as busing to complex legal concepts such as de facto and de jure segregation Each entry includes factual information a summary of different viewpoints and a brief bibliography The book includes an introduction which outlines the history of school segregation and desegregation along with a chronology and extensive bibliographic material Thus this reference is a complete guide to school segregation and desegregation in elementary secondary and higher education in the United States Chicano School Failure and Success Richard R.

Smrekar, Ellen B. Goldring,2009-03-01

From the Courtroom to the Classroom examines recent developments pertaining to school desegregation in the United States As the editors note it comes at a time marked by a general downplaying of race and ethnicity as criteria for the allocation of public resources as well as a weakening of the political forces that support busing to achieve racial integration The book fills a growing need for a full scale assessment of this recent history and its effect on schools children and communities The
