Something New for a Bear to Do Shirley Isherwood,1986-01-01 Something New for a Bear to Do Shirley Isherwood,1995 Mr Manders wants to find something new to do sing like the birds for example or spin a web like a spider But after trying various things he decides that it s perhaps best to be a bear after all Something New Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse,1930-01-01 The sunshine of a fair Spring morning fell graciously on London town Out in Piccadilly its heartening warmth seemed to infuse into traffic and pedestrians alike a novel jauntiness so that bus drivers jested and even the lips of chauffeurs uncurled into not unkindly smiles Policemen whistled at their posts clerks on their way to work beggars approached the task of trying to persuade perfect strangers to bear the burden of their maintenance with that optimistic vim which makes all the difference It was one of those happy mornings At nine o clock precisely the door of Number Seven Arundell Street Leicester Square opened and a young man stepped out Of all the spots in London which may fairly be described as backwaters there is none that answers so completely to the description as Arundell Street Leicester Square Passing along the north sidewalk of the square just where it joins Piccadilly you hardly notice the bottleneck opening of the tiny cul de sac Day and night the human flood roars past ignoring it Arundell Street is less than forty yards in length and though there are two hotels in it they are not fashionable hotels It is just a backwater In shape Arundell Street is exactly like one of those flat stone jars in which Italian wine of the cheaper sort is stored The narrow neck that leads off Leicester Square opens abruptly into a small court Hotels occupy two sides of this the third is at present given up to rooming houses for the impecunious These are always just going to be pulled down in the name of progress to make room for another hotel but they never do meet with that fate and as they stand now so will they in all probability stand for generations to come They provide single rooms of moderate size the bed modestly hidden during the day behind a battered screen The rooms contain a table an easy chair a hard chair a bureau and a round tin bath which like the bed goes into hiding after its useful work is performed And you may rent one of these rooms with breakfast thrown in for five dollars a week Ashe Marson had done so He had rented the second floor front of Number Seven Twenty six years before this story opens there had been born to Joseph Marson minister and Sarah his wife of Hayling Massachusetts in the United States of America a son This son christened Ashe after a wealthy uncle who subsequently double crossed them by leaving his money to charities in due course proceeded to Harvard to study for the ministry So far as can be ascertained from contemporary records he did not study a great deal for the ministry but he did succeed in running the mile in four minutes and a half and the half mile at a correspondingly rapid speed and his researches in the art of long jumping won him the respect of all That he should be awarded at the conclusion of his Harvard career one of those scholarships at Oxford University instituted by the late Cecil Rhodes for the encouragement of the liberal arts was a natural sequence of events Something New P.
