Schmidt, 1988-12      Resources in Education, 2000-04      Resources for Multilingual Writers and ESL Diana Hacker, Marcy Carbajal Van Horn, Kimberli Huster, 2017-09-15 This supplement both resident and international students understand college expectations and develop strategies for improving their academic English and academic writing Written by an ESL expert this booklet includes plenty of helpful charts activities exercises and model papers along with notes about where to find additional resources online and on campus      The Prentice Hall Guide for College Writers Stephen Reid, 1995      WPA, Writing Program Administration, 1991      Simon & Schuster

Handbook for Writers Lynn Quitman Troyka, 1987      Thinking Through the Essay Judith Barker-Sandbrook, Neil Graham, 1986      Strategies for Successful Writing James A. Reinking, Robert Von Der Osten, 2006-12 Now in its eighth edition the authors of Strategies for Successful Writing a Rhetoric Research Guide Reader and Handbook have strived to achieve the same steadfast goals that have motivated them from the beginning create a rhetorically organized writing guide that combines four books into one convenient and flexible teaching tool while offering students an exceptional value By having at their disposal a comprehensive textbook that offers ample material for a full year composition course instructors teaching a one term course can make various selections from Chapters 1-17 from whatever types of specialized writing suits the needs of their students and from the appropriate essays in the reader As well because the authors believe strongly that an effective composition textbook should address students directly they've aimed for a conversational yet clear style that invites students into the book lessens their apprehensions about writing and provides a model for their own prose This style complements the authors' strong student-based approach to writing and together they help create a text that genuinely meets student needs      Too Much Writing, Too Few Scribes: Extra-Scribal Writing in the Late Bronze Age Mediterranean (1650-1100 BCE) Cassandra M. Donnelly, 2025-05-29 Extra-scribal writing encompasses a myriad of writing practices from potmarking to graffiti to text erasure often overlooked by scholars This volume examines Bronze Age eastern Mediterranean and Aegean writing on atypical media highlighting interdisciplinary insights from various fields and theoretical models

English/language Arts Curriculum Resource Handbook, 1992      Basic Writing, Essays for Teachers, Researchers, and Administrators Lawrence N. Kasden, Daniel R. Hoebler, 1980 The 12 essays in this collection address the concerns of basic writing teachers and those who teach basic writing teachers The first essay discusses the characteristics of the low-achieving college students who require basic writing instruction and argues for basic writing courses that are based upon a thorough understanding of students' nature and needs while the second essay focuses on the composing process used by some basic writers and on the differences between this process and the composing process of more skilled writers The following four essays contain descriptions of a basic writing program at a community college the programs designed for use by the member schools of the Western North Carolina Consortium a writing laboratory and an interdisciplinary writing program at Boston

University The seventh essay discusses writing assessment and recommends the use of a carefully constructed objective test of students knowledge of writing skills while the eighth essay reviews the types of tests basic writing teachers and administrators may use and the purposes of each The ninth essay discusses the training of teachers of basic writing and the tenth addresses staffing and operating peer tutoring writing centers The eleventh essay reviews research in the area of writing and the final essay provides a selected bibliography of composition and basic writing FL
