Supporting Adoption Reframing The Approach:

Supporting Adoption Nigel V. Lowe, 2000* Assessing the Support Needs of Adopted Children and Their Families Liza Bingley Miller, Arnon Bentovim, 2006-12 Written in consultation with a range of experts clinicians and practitioners as well as adoptive children families and birth relatives this book gives helpful guidance on making evidence based assessments and planning successful adoption support Key features include a discussion of the main themes of adoption and pointers for practice in relation to the Assessment Framework a guide to the use of evidence based approaches to assessment including the tools commissioned by the Department of Health and the Department for Education a model for analysis and planning and planning support and interventions an investigation of the source range and value of support services and interventions that can promote the wellbeing of adopted children their adoptive families and birth relatives Packed with practical advice case examples and models of good practice this book is invaluable for social workers and managers involved with the adoption process and the well being of children and families It is also essential reading for social work students learning about working with children and families

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Illegitimacy, Adoption and Reproduction Technology Prophecy Coles, 2020-06-07 In this book Prophecy Coles traces the existential history of the unwanted child with particular attention to the illegitimate child linking myth literature and clinical practice in the historical and legal context of adoption From the time of the Reformation in the sixteenth century until the early twentieth century the lives of such children were short lived The Adoption Act of 1926 did much to change the moral climate and the fate of the illegitimate child It provided the child with a legal family and a name There follows some unexpected difficulties that emerged after World War Two Adopted children did not necessarily thrive and young mothers who had been forced to give up a child born out of wedlock revealed their suffering The sealed records of the illegitimate child s origins became an issue Attachment theory and the development of neuroscience underpin the theoretical approach of this book Today the children who are available for adoption are older and may be distressed by several years in care Fundamental to helping these adopted children and their families there needs to be a multi disciplined therapeutic approach to try and mitigate the damage that has often been done to the early infant brain through trauma This book brings to life some of the adoption issues through the study of personal memoirs Each chapter considers adoption from a different angle the adopted child the birth mother the birth father foster parents and adopting parents The final chapter discusses some of the problems around adoption that have arisen again with reproductive technology and surrogate mothering This book will be of interest to all those who have been involved in or affected by adoption It will be of special interest to those adopting parents who have not been properly prepared or supported in their magnificent work of taking on some of the most troubled children in our society

Cross Currents Sanford N. Katz, John Eekelaar, Mavis Maclean, 2000 This unique contribution to comparative law brings together dedicated essays on a comprehensive range of issues in family law in the United States and England showing how they stand at the beginning of the new century and how they reached there This provides an unparalleled opportunity to examine how family law has reacted to a period of change in family life widely held to be without precedent The legal analyses are set within critical accounts of wider social and family policy and against a fully explored demographic background provided by leading scholars in these areas Readers will be challenged to understand the nature of contemporary family law and its possible future direction

Best Practice with Children and Families Barry Cooper, Jean Gordon, Andy Rixon, 2014-12-12 Social work practice with children young people and families is complex highly skilled and fascinating Writing about social work increasingly acknowledges the complexities and uncertainties of practice but rarely features the voice of the social worker themselves This book takes a different approach that of Critical Best Practice a constructive realistic and strengths based approach that takes as its starting point the telling and analysing of in depth stories about live practice The reader is encouraged to join the social work practitioner or manager as they engage with the everyday dilemmas and uncertainties of 21st century practice Ten narratives based round the themes of relationships risk and negotiation problem solving provide varied opportunities for critical reflection and learning about social work in different contexts Insights are offered into social work with children from young babies to adolescents and families with differing needs in different parts of the UK England Scotland and Wales

Family Law International Society on Family Law. World Conference, 2003-04-10 Papers from the 10th International Society of Family Law Conference covering the resolution of disputes and current pressures on family law

Children and Their Families Andrew Bainham, 2003-09 This book examines the regulation of family relationships in particular the issue of openness and contact

Child Welfare: Child placement and children away from home Nick Frost, 2005 This collection focuses on child welfare in its specific sense welfare and social interventions with children and young people undertaken by State bodies or NGOs The term child welfare is deployed differently in diverse international settings In the United Kingdom child welfare tends to refer to individualised programmes for children who have experienced problems in their lives In India to take a contrasting example it can also refer to major housing and nutrition programmes This collection takes an inclusive approach to international perspectives The collection is completed by a new general introduction by the editor individual volume introductions and a full index Titles also available in this series include Medical Sociology November 2004 4 Volumes 495 and the forthcoming collection Health Care Systems 2005 3 Volumes c 395

Forty Years of Research, Policy and Practice in Children's Services Nick Axford, Vashti Berry, Michael Little, Louise Morpeth, 2005-06-24 Founded in 1963 Dartington Social Research Unit conducts scientific research into child development within the context of children's services with a view to informing interventions for children in need Originating from a festschrift to celebrate the work of Roger Bullock one of Dartington's first researchers and a Fellow of the Centre for Social Policy this book from a prestigious author team examines developments in children's services over the past forty years providing a context for future policy making Ten key areas are covered including foster care and family support while two overview chapters explore 40 years of Social Research and Gaps in the Knowledge and Future Challenges

Assessing Adoptive and Foster Parents David Howe, Joanne Alper, 2015-04-21 Assessing prospective adoptive and foster parents is an extremely complex task and one that happens within a pressurised time frame. Currently assessments draw substantially on interviews with prospective adopters and foster carers. Too often they generate a lot of information but lack meaningful analysis and understanding of parenting capacity. Children with histories of trauma, loss and hurt need to join families in which parents exhibit the ability to be good at relationships, able to manage their own stress and bond with the child in their care. In this book leading experts including Dan Hughes, Jonathan Baylin, Kim Golding and Julie Selwyn combine the latest findings from neuroscience with research on what makes good assessments. Together they provide guidance and recommend tools for making thorough analytical and effective assessments which will ensure the best possible chance of placement success. Assessing Adoptive and Foster Parents is an invaluable source of knowledge and practice guidance for social workers undertaking assessments of parenting capacity of children who have experienced neglect or trauma.

Law's Future(s) David Hayton, 2000-09-15 To mark the 2000 Annual Conference of the Society of Public Teachers of Law, the Society has organised a distinguished team of contributors to write a set of reflective and critical essays on the future of law in the United Kingdom, considering how it will or should develop over a wide range of areas. The essays are concerned not only with all the main branches of the law but also with socio-legal studies, legal education and legal practice. In most of these areas the essays are written by two contributors so that the dialogue between them adds perception to their forecasts, taking account of past experience of developing the law via judicial activism or statutory reform processes and also of the European dimension. This reflection upon the possible future milestones of UK law will provide stimulating and illuminating reading for all lawyers, whether academics or practitioners.

Assessing Adoptive Parents, Foster Carers and Kinship Carers, Second Edition Joanne Alper, David Howe, 2016-12-21 Assessing prospective adoptive parents, foster carers, kinship carers and special guardians is an extremely complex task and one that happens within a pressurized time frame. Currently assessments draw substantially on interviews which can generate a lot of information but little analysis to enable professionals to establish a meaningful understanding of parenting capacity. Children with histories of trauma, loss and hurt need to join families in which parents exhibit the ability to be good at relationships, are able to manage their own stress and bond with the child in their care. Now fully updated and expanded to cover the assessment of kinship carers and special guardians this book combines the latest findings from neuroscience with research on what makes good assessments and provides guidance and tools for making thorough analytical and effective assessments With contributions from leading experts including Dan Hughes Jonathan Baylin Kim Golding and Julie Selwyn it will provide you with the information you need to ensure the best possible chance of placement success      Adoption Jagannath Pati,2007 Adoption Global Perspective and Ethical Issues The compendium of twelve papers addresses the key issues pertaining to child adoption in global perspective      Studies in the Assessment of Parenting Peter Reder,Sylvia Duncan,Claire Lucey,2004-06-02 Offers a review of the latest literature but moreover a practical guide essential to professionals who give their expert opinions to courts in child care cases      Child Right ,2000      Effective Practice with Looked After Children Robin Sen,2018-03-30 Since the key developments that policy and research have undergone over the course of the past years meeting the specific needs of looked after children is a priority for modern social work policy and practice This comprehensive text combines an accessible overview of statutory policy and legislation with analysis of core theories and interventions to provide a guide for effective practice with children in all care settings by Covering legislation as well as research based analysis of the key interventions and practice methods in the field Meeting market needs students and practitioners struggle with the dearth of specific material on looked after children this text supports them in a core component of social work study and practice Consolidating learning through its use of reflective questions case studies exercises and research analysis This book offers an accessible overview of the care context in Britain and is essential reading for students and practitioners wishing to develop effective practice within childcare      Child Welfare Services for Minority Ethnic Families June Thoburn,Ashok Chand,Joanne Procter,2005 Based on extensive studies into child welfare services this important book brings together research into what works in service provision for minority ethnic families Reviewing studies of the nature and adequacy of the services provided and the outcomes for the children and their families this book provides much needed guidance for policy and practice around issues of cultural and ethnic background and identity and puts forward suggestions for future research The authors consider in particular the complex needs and identities of minority ethnic families who might use child welfare services how families using social services view current practice the impact of the formal child protection and court systems on ethnic minority families placement patterns and outcomes for children from the different minority ethnic groups who are in residential care foster care or adopted cultural issues and matching the social worker to the family Drawing on current government statistical returns and the 2001 national census this wide ranging analysis challenges dated research and practice and proposes a revisionary agenda for future research and culturally sensitive child welfare practice making it essential reading for all child welfare professionals      International Advances in Adoption Research for Practice Gretchen Miller Wrobel,Elsbeth Neil,2009-01-12 This is a unique compilation of cross cultural and international attitudes towards adoption research and outcomes Whilst informal adoption of children has probably always existed across all human societies this work is timely in that interest in the role of legal adoption as both a child welfare solution and as a means of alternative family formation for adults wanting to become parents has never been higher This book is an edited collection of 13 papers based on invited keynote presentations or paper symposia presentations given at the Second International Conference on Adoption Research ICAR2 2006 It gives a unique Cross cultural look at adoption from worldwide multidisciplinary community of distinguished and emerging adoption researchers International appeal with different countries laws attitudes and outcomes fully explored

Deciding Children's Futures Joyce Scaife, 2012-11-12 Deciding Children's Futures addresses the thorny task of how to assess parents and children who belong to struggling families where there are issues of neglect or significant harm and when separating parents are contesting arrangements for the care of their children This is a practitioner's guide it discusses how to create relationships that are capable of breaching natural parental defences to assessment the importance of keeping an open mind how to ask questions that fathom people's experiences and how to develop understanding of their histories narratives worries hopes and fears Joyce Scaife's approach draws on practice knowledge theory and research findings with a view to integrating the accounts of parents and children with safeguarding imperatives and government guidance thereby enabling professionals to make informed decisions designed to impact positively on children's futures This accessible and comprehensive book will be of great interest to expert witnesses practising social workers children's guardians solicitors barristers magistrates and mental health professionals Joyce Scaife is a clinical psychologist with over 15 years of experience in carrying out assessments for the family court She is former Director of Clinical Practice for the Doctor of Clinical Psychology training course at the University of Sheffield
