Frazier, 2014-09-25 John William Fletcher 1729 1785 was a seminal theologian during the early Methodist movement and in the Church of England in the eighteenth century Best known for the Checks to Antinomianism he established a theology of history to defend the church against the encroachment of antinomianism as a polemic against hyper Calvinism Fletcher believed that the hyper Calvinist system of divine fiat and finished salvation did not take seriously enough either the activity of God in salvation history or an individual believer s personal progress in salvation Fletcher made the doctrine of accommodation a unifying principle of his theological system and further developed the doctrine of divine accommodation into a theology of ministry As God accommodated divine revelation to the frailties of human beings Fletcher argued that ministers of the gospel must accommodate the gospel to their hearers in order to gain a hearing for the gospel without losing the goal of true Christianity True Christianity contains insights from Fletcher who devoted himself according to Wesley to being an altogether Christian

The God Within Emil Fackenheim, 1996-12-15 For nineteenth century thinkers the central problem of religious consciousness in the modern West was the tension between prevailing concepts of individual autonomy and the traditional Judaeo Christian claim for divine revelation The God Within brings together ten of Professor Emil Fackenheim's essays on the German Idealists who struggled to resolve this tension This philosophic preoccupation found its most searching and comprehensive expression when the traditional notion of God as Transcendent was reconceptualized as the God within The internalization of God's otherness reached its climax with Hegel the subject of Fackenheim's earlier work The Religious Dimension in Hegel's Thought This long awaited companion to that volume examines the earlier stages of the process beginning with its initiator Kant then considering Schelling in both his earlier and later phases and finally looking once more at Hegel The investigation of this movement together with the related themes of history and the literary arts leads to reflection on the significance of taking historicity seriously Included is the classic much cited article Metaphysics and Historicity which connects the philosophy of German Idealists to twentieth century questions of historicity and existential thought in particular The previously unpublished essay Schelling in 1800 1801 Art as Revelation provides an overview of philosophical history from Kant through Fichte and Schleiermacher to the later Schelling All the essays gathered here are concerned with the radical singularity of history and existence on the one hand and the demands of philosophical truth on the other They are informed by Professor Fackenheim's engagement with the profound philosophical challenges of our day particularly his efforts as a Jewish theologian to confront the horrors of the Holocaust We see through Fackenheim's exposition how these thinkers sought to come to terms with the presence of radical evil a problem whose modern relevance is explored in this volume's epilogue the 1988 essay Holocaust and Weltanschauung Philosophical Reflections on Why They Did It
