Teens at Risk Christine Watkins, 2009 Editor Christine Watkins has compiled several pro versus con essays that debate the issues relating to teens at risk Essay sources include Helpguide.org the American Psychological Association Zero Tolerance Task Force U S Department of Health and Human Services and Choose Responsibility Readers will analyze such topics as whether depression eating disorders and video games put teens at risk They will evaluate whether gun control legislation reduces crime whether teens should be allowed abortions without parental consent and several other compelling issues Handbook of Adolescent Health Risk Behavior Ralph J. DiClemente, William B. Hansen, Lynn E. Ponton, 2013-11-21 Adolescence is a developmental period of accelerating physical psychological social cultural and cognitive development often characterized by confronting and surmounting a myriad of challenges and establishing a sense of self identity and autonomy It is also unfortunately a period fraught with many threats to the health and well being of adolescents and with substantial consequent impairment and disability Many of the adverse health consequences experienced by adolescents are to a large extent the result of their risk behaviors Many adolescents today and perhaps an increasing number in the future are at risk for death disease and other adverse health outcomes that are not primarily biomedical in origin In general there has been a marked change in the causes of morbidity and mortality among adolescents Previously infectious diseases accounted for a disproportionate share of adolescent morbidity and mortality At present however the overwhelming toll of adolescent morbidity and mortality is the result of lifestyle practices Youth at Risk David Capuzzi, Douglas R. Gross, 2014-11-21 In the latest edition of this best selling text David Capuzzi and Douglas Gross along with 24 experts in the field provide a prevention intervention paradigm to address contemporary issues facing today's youth Written from a systemic perspective this book offers guidance in helping teens who are struggling with the complex challenges that can be brought on by peers family members and difficult social environments Part 1 presents information on at risk population identification causal factors of problematic behaviors and promotion of resiliency in youth Part 2 examines the development of at risk behaviors relating to dysfunctional family dynamics low self esteem depression mood disorders and stress and trauma Part 3 explores the behaviors most often identified as placing youth at risk such as eating disorders suicidal preoccupation teen sexuality gang membership school violence substance abuse homelessness school dropout and bullying as well as the unique strengths of and stressors faced by multiracial and LGBTQ youth Case studies illustrate prevention efforts from individual family school and community perspectives and text sidebars create greater reader self awareness and enhance the understanding of the concepts skills and applications of the chapter material A complimentary test manual and PowerPoint slides for instructors use are available by written request to ACA Requests for digital versions from the ACA can be found on wiley.com To request print copies please visit the ACA website here Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to permissions.counseling.org Adolescent Risk Behaviors David A. Reducing Adolescent Risk Daniel Romer,2003-04 Current policies treat adolescent risk behaviours as separate problems requiring separate solutions ignoring the overlap of many risk behaviours This text seeks to move beyond the fractured approach of preventing one kind of behaviour at a time and suggests more comprehensive prevention strategies

The Romance Of Risk Lynn Ponton,1997 Through 15 riveting case studies a leading figure in adolescent psychiatry offers a provocative new way of thinking about parenting teens These case studies vary from puzzling to horrifying but Dr Lynn Ponton points to risk as a unifying theme Dr Ponton suggests ways that parents can redirect this natural impulse into healthy and safe channels

The Science of Adolescent Risk-Taking National Research Council,Institute of Medicine,Board on Children, Youth, and Families,Committee on the Science of Adolescence,2011-02-25 Adolescence is a time when youth make decisions both good and bad that have consequences for the rest of their lives Some of these decisions put them at risk of lifelong health problems injury or death The Institute of Medicine held three public workshops between 2008 and 2009 to provide a venue for researchers health care providers and community leaders to discuss strategies to improve adolescent health

Adolescent Risk and Vulnerability National Research Council, Institute of Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, 2001-11-08

Adolescents obviously do not always act in ways that serve their own best interests even as defined by them Sometimes their perception of their own risks even of survival to adulthood is larger than the reality in other cases they underestimate the risks of particular actions or behaviors It is possible indeed likely that some adolescents engage in risky behaviors because of a perception of invulnerability the current conventional wisdom of adults views of adolescent behavior Others however take risks because they feel vulnerable to a point approaching hopelessness In either case these perceptions can prompt adolescents to make poor decisions that can put them at risk and leave them vulnerable to physical or psychological harm that may have a negative impact on their long term health and viability A small planning group was formed to develop a workshop on reconceptualizing adolescent risk and vulnerability With funding from Carnegie Corporation of New York the Workshop on Adolescent Risk and Vulnerability Setting Priorities took place on March 13 2001 in Washington DC The workshop s goal was to put into perspective the total burden of vulnerability that adolescents face taking advantage of the growing societal concern for adolescents the need to set priorities for meeting adolescents needs and the opportunity to apply decision making perspectives to this critical area This report summarizes the workshop
