The Impact Of Hiv Aids On Land Rights Case Studies From Kenya:

The Impact of HIV/AIDS on Land Rights Michael Aliber, 2004 This study involves investigation of the link between HIV AIDS and land tenure in three rural sites in Kenya The Land and Property Rights of Women and Orphans in the Context of HIV and AIDS Kaori Izumi, 2006 Publisher Description Women's Land Rights & Privatization in Eastern Africa Birgit Englert, Elizabeth Daley, 2008 This collection examines women's land rights in East Africa in the context of land tenure reforms and privatization HIV/AIDS and Agriculture in sub-Saharan Africa Tanja R. Müller, 2023-08-28 This publication is the first in a series on HIV AIDS and agriculture in sub Saharan Africa with the overall objective of providing a resource base on issues of rural development in a broad sense in the times of HIV AIDS This first book discusses the impact of the epidemic as it has emerged over the last decades at different levels of the agricultural sector namely the farming system level the livelihood level and the household level In a further step impact on the agricultural estate sector as well as pastoralism is discussed One overarching issue that emerges is the importance of gender attributes to adequately understand and address HIV AIDS impact the topic at the centre of the second part of the series The text ends with a discussion of HIV AIDS in relation to other shocks that befall rural livelihoods It is followed by an annotated bibliography A Critical Review of the Women's Property Rights in Kenya , 2006 The Future of African Customary Law Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi, Tracy E. Higgins, 2011-07-18 Customary laws and traditional institutions in Africa constitute comprehensive legal systems that regulate the entire spectrum of activities from birth to death Once the sole source of law customary rules now exist in the context of pluralist legal systems with competing bodies of domestic constitutional law statutory law common law and international human rights treaties This book promotes discussion and understanding of customary law and explores its continued relevance in sub Saharan Africa The volume considers the characteristics of customary law and efforts to ascertain and codify customary law and how this body of law differs in content form and status from legislation and common law It also addresses a number of substantive areas of customary law including the role and power of traditional authorities customary criminal law customary land tenure property rights and intestate succession and the relationship between customary law human rights and gender equality Changes in Customary Land Tenure Systems in Africa Jean-Pierre Chauveau, 2007 Land Tenure, Housing Rights and Gender in Lesotho , 2005 The African AIDS Epidemic John Iliffe, 2005-02-15 This history of the African AIDS epidemic is a much needed accessibly written historical account of the most serious epidemiological catastrophe of modern times The African AIDS Epidemic A History answers President Thabo Mbeki's provocative question as to why Africa has suffered this terrible epidemic While Mbeki attributed the causes to poverty and exploitation others have looked to distinctive sexual systems practiced in African cultures and communities John Iliffe stresses historical sequence He argues that Africa has had the worst epidemic because the disease was established in the general population before anyone knew the disease existed HIV evolved with extraordinary speed and complexity and because that evolution took place under the eyes of modern medical research scientists Iliffe has been able to write a history of the virus itself that is probably unique among accounts of human epidemic diseases In giving the African experience a historical shape Iliffe has written one of the most important books of our time The African experience of AIDS has taught the world much of what it knows about HIV AIDS and this fascinating book brings into focus many aspects of the epidemic in the longer context of massive demographic growth urbanization and social change in Africa during the latter half of the twentieth century The African AIDS Epidemic A History is a brilliant introduction to the many aspects of the epidemic and the distinctive character of the virus

Single women, land and livelihood vulnerability in a communal area in Zimbabwe Gaynor Gamuchirai Makura-Paradza, 2023-09-04 There has been limited research on single women in customary tenure areas Single women's experiences have been marginalized in research that focuses on notions of property male headed domestic units and relies on normative research methods to investigate resource access in the communal farming areas of Zimbabwe This work focuses on the hearth hold as a domestic unit and uses innovative research methods to investigate how women outside the marriage institution negotiate access to land livelihood resources and make decisions to cope with livelihood vulnerability in customary tenure areas The research illustrates through a focus on pathways and rural urban connections how single women make decisions to secure livelihoods under fast changing conditions The findings that patriarchy is only one but not the only institution governing land access in customary tenure areas and that women have more room to negotiate land access in communal areas especially through entitlements family obligations and exploitation of multi layered tenure systems are some of the publication's contribution to knowledge on single women customary land tenure and livelihood vulnerability

The Protection of Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in Africa Danwood Mzikenge Chirwa, Lilian Chenwi, 2016-10-20 This book critically examines models of domestic regional and international judicial protection of economic cultural and social rights in Africa Human Rights, Power and Civic Action

Bård A. Andreassen, Gordon Crawford, 2013-07-18 Human Rights Power and Civic Action examines the interrelationship between struggles for human rights and the dynamics of power focusing on situations of poverty and oppression in developing countries It is argued that the concept of power is a relatively neglected one in the study of rights based approaches to development especially the ways in which structures and relations of power can limit human rights advocacy Therefore this book focuses on how local and national struggles for rights have been constrained by power relations and structural inequalities as well as the extent to which civic action has been able to challenge alter or transform such power structures and simultaneously to enhance protection of people s basic human rights Contributors examine and compare struggles to advance human rights by non governmental actors in Cambodia China Ghana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe The country case studies analyse structures of power responsible for the negation and denial of human rights as well as how rights promoting organisations challenge such structures Utilising a comparative approach the book provides empirically grounded studies leading to new theoretical understanding of the interrelationships between human rights struggles power and poverty reduction Human Rights Power and Civic Action will be of interest to students and scholars of human rights politics power development and governance

The Paradox of Gender Equality and Economic Outcomes in Sub-Saharan Africa Evelyn F. Wamboye, 2023-10-05 This Element provides an in depth analysis of the role of women s ownership of and access to land in sub Saharan Africa SSA in determining gender equality and women s economic and social outcomes and gives suggestions to inform effective gender sensitive land policies Using cross sectional regression analysis we find that ownership of land by women positively contributes to women s absolute employment Conversely results from pairwise correlation show that a lack of ownership of land by women is highly correlated with increased women s unemployment Despite these findings the proportion of women who own land in SSA is lower than that of men Moreover women usually acquire land through either purchase from the market system or marriage and even then their rights of ownership are usually very limited and precarious compared to the rights of men

Women's Property Rights HIV and AIDS & Domestic Violence International Center for Research on Women, 2008 Revealing how women in many developing countries do not have the right to own or inherit property this monograph clarifies the role of tenure security in protecting against and mitigating the effects of HIV amongst women and domestic violence Exploring these linkages in Amajuba South Africa and Iganga Uganda this qualitative work based on peer reviewed scientific studies and personal interviews with native women argues that property ownership while not easily linked to women s ability to prevent HIV infection can nonetheless mitigate the impact of AIDS and enhance a woman s ability to leave a violent situation An invaluable resource for policymakers western donors nongovernmental organization workers and academics this analysis details the current land reform efforts as well as HIV AIDS and domestic violence policies in both countries in Africa as a whole and beyond

Demystifying the Mystery of Capital Robert Home, Hilary Lim, 2013-03-04 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Emergence of Land Markets in Africa Stein Holden, Keijiro Otsuka, Frank Place, 2010-09-30 This book is the first systematic attempt to address emerging land markets and their implications for poverty equity and efficiency across a number of African countries The high incidence of poverty and the need for increased agricultural productivity remain acute in rural areas of sub Saharan Africa where a lack of secure land rights and a growing scarcity of land relative to the size of the population are becoming increasingly critical issues Indeed land issues in the region are high on the international policy agenda Yet our knowledge about land tenure security and other rural factor markets such as labor oxen manure purchased inputs and credit is far from adequate to formulate sensible policies The case studies in the book show that while land markets and especially informal markets have been rapidly emerging in densely populated parts of Africa and have generally been to the benefit of the poor their functions remain imperfect This is due to policy induced tenure insecurity and the fragmentation of agricultural land Applying rigorous quantitative analyses the book provides a basis for taking into account the role of land markets in national land policies All too often the authors argue land policies have been extreme either prohibiting all land transactions or giving unrestricted freehold rights to a small elite at the expense of the poor From the long experience in Asia it is known that such policies are detrimental to both production efficiency and equity of land use The authors argue that future policies in Africa should work with the markets Regulations should be imposed only with careful testing that they are having the intended effects The Emergence of Land Markets in Africa is a resource for teaching in developed and developing countries as it provides both comprehensive reviews of the literature and detailed case studies It is intended to facilitate the dialogue between researchers and policymakers as well as inspire researchers to go further in their investigations and build an even stronger basis for good policies The Emergence of Land Markets in Africa is the first publication in the new Environment for Development Efd book series Efd books focus on research and applications in environmental and natural resource economics as they are relevant to poverty reduction and environmental problems in developing countries The Efd book series is part of the Efd initiative www.environmentfordevelopment.org

Aging Across Cultures Helaine Selin, 2022-01-01 This volume brings together chapters about aging in many non Western cultures from Africa and Asia to South America from American Indians to Australian and Hawaii Aborigines It also includes articles on other issues of aging such as falling dementia and elder abuse It was thought that in Africa or Asia elders were revered and taken care of This certainly used to be the case But the Western way has moved into these places and we now find that elders are often left on their own or in institutions as younger people have migrated to other cities and even countries Grandparents often find themselves being parents to their grandchildren a far cry from the kind of life they believed they would have as they aged This book will explore all these issues and will be of use to students and researchers in this relatively new field
