Syed &

Others,2022-02-20 History of Indian Nation India the cradle for one of the most ancient civilizations in the world has a long and rich history spanning thousands of years In fact the history of India begins with evidence of human activity millions of years ago The Indus Valley Civilization was the first major civilization Vedic Civilization witnessed the rise of major polities Almost the whole country was controlled by Mauryan Empire and it was again united under Gupta Empire Muslim rule in the subcontinent began when the Arabs conquered Sindh and Multan. Then several invasions from Central Asia led to the formation of Muslim empires such as the Delhi Sultanate and the Mughal Empire. Mughals conquered most of northern India and finally controlled the entire subcontinent and Afghanistan. Mughal Empire declined in the 18th century. Then East India Company gained ascendancy over South Asia. Dissatisfaction with Company rule led to an unsuccessful revolt in 1857 after which India was directly administered by the British Crown. In the 20th century a nationwide struggle for independence was launched by Indian National Congress. The subcontinent gained independence from Great Britain in 1947 but the country was partitioned into two dominions of India and Pakistan. After Independence a new era began. This comprehensive book comprising four volumes covers the entire history of the Indian Nation in a very compact manner. This book is an asset for historians, teachers, students and general readers at par.

Rethinking Hindu Identity Dwijendra Narayan Jha, 2014-12-18

Recent years have seen the emergence of a virulent version of Hindu nationalism and fundamentalism in India under the banner of Hindutva. This xenophobic movement has obfuscated and mystified the notion of Hindu identity and reinforced its stereotypes. Its arguments range from the patently unscientific humankind was created in India as was the first civilisation to historical whitewash. Hinduism has continued in one unchanged form for 5000 years. Hinduism has always been a tolerant faith. Rethinking Hindu Identity offers a corrective based on a deep and detailed reading of Indian history. Written in a riveting style, this study provides a fresh history of Hinduism, its practices, its beliefs, its differences and inconsistencies and its own myths about itself. Along the way, the book systematically demolishes the arguments of Hindu fundamentalism and nationalism, revealing how the real history of Hinduism is much more complex.

Conceptions of Justice from Earliest History to Islam Abbas Mirakhor, Hossein Askari, 2019-04-17

This book examines the conceptions of justice from Zarathustra to Islam. The text explores the conceptions of justice by Zarathustra, Ancient Egypt, India, Mesopotamia, Noah, Abraham and Moses. During the Axial Age (800-200 BCE) the focus of justice is in India, China and Greece. In the post-Axial age the focus is on Christianity. The authors then turn to Islam where justice is conceived as a system which emerges if the Quranic rules are followed. This work concludes with the views of early Muslim thinkers and on how these societies deteriorated after the death of the Prophet. The monograph is ideal for those interested in the conception of justice through the ages.

Bureaucratic Archaeology Ashish Avikunthak, 2022-02-03

Bureaucratic Archaeology is a multi-faceted ethnography of quotidian practices of archaeology, bureaucracy and science in postcolonial India, concentrating on the workings of Archaeological Survey of India (ASI). This book uncovers an endemic link between micro practice of archaeology in the trenches of the ASI to the manufacture of archaeological knowledge wielded in the making of political and religious identity and summoned as indelible evidence in the juridical adjudication in the highest courts of India. This book is a rare ethnography of the daily practice of a postcolonial bureaucracy from within rather than from the outside. It meticulously uncovers the social, cultural, political and epistemological ecology of ASI archaeologists to show how postcolonial state assembles and produces knowledge This is the first book length monograph on the workings of archaeology in a non western world which meticulously shows how theory of archaeological practice deviates transforms and generates knowledge outside the Euro American epistemological tradition

The Archaeology of Seafaring in Ancient South Asia Himanshu Prabha Ray,2003-08-14 Prior to European expansion communities of the Indian subcontinent had a strong maritime orientation In this new archaeological study Himanshu Prabha Ray explores seafaring activity religious travel and political economy in this ancient period By using archaeological data from the Red Sea to the Indonesian archipelago she reveals how the early history of peninsular South Asia is interconnected with that of its Asian and Mediterranean partners in the Indian Ocean Region The book departs from traditional studies focusing on the communities maritime history rather than agrarian expansion and the emergence of the state Rather than being a prime mover in social economic and religious change the state is viewed as just one participant in a complex interplay of social actors including merchants guilds boat builders sailors pilgrims religious clergy and craft producers A study that will be welcomed by students of Archaeology and Ancient History particularly those interested in South Asian Studies
