The Idea Of The Modern In Literature And The Arts:

The Idea of the Modern in Literature and the Arts Irving Howe, 1968

Gender, Fantasy, and Realism in American Literature Alfred Habegger, 1982 In this study of the 19th century American novel the author demonstrates the imaginative continuity between sentimental and realistic fiction and sets out to establish that realism is the central and preeminent literary type in America a mode grounded in the tradition of women's popular fiction which shaped the nation's reading habits in the mid 19th century He examines this feminine literature with its common technique of symbolizing deeper social conflicts through patterns of courtship marriage and gender roles Contends that Howells and James owe much of their fictional domain to the often disparaged household dramas of these female precursors

Consciousness, Theatre, Literature and the Arts 2009 Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2009-12-14 The essays collected in this volume were initially presented at the Third International Conference on Consciousness Theatre Literature and the Arts held at the University of Lincoln May 16 18 2009 The conference was organised on the basis of the success of its predecessors in 2005 and 2007 and on the basis of the success of the Rodopi book series Consciousness Literature and the Arts which has to date seen twenty one volumes in print with another twelve in press or in the process of being written The 2009 conference and the book series highlight the continuing growth of interest within the interdisciplinary field of consciousness studies and in the distinct disciplines of theatre studies literary studies film studies fine arts and music in the relationship between the object of these disciplines and human consciousness Fifty six delegates from twenty one countries across the world attended the May 2009 conference in Lincoln their range of disciplines and approaches is reflected well in this book

Translating Chinese Art and Modern Literature Yifeng Sun, Chris Song, 2019-02-25 Translating Chinese Art and Modern Literature examines issues in cross cultural dialogue in connection with translation and modern Chinese art and literature from interdisciplinary perspectives This comprises the text image dialogue in the context of Chinese modernity and cross cultural interaction between modern literature in Chinese and other literatures This edited collection approaches these issues with discrete foci and approaches and the ten chapters in this volume are to be divided into two distinct parts The first part highlights the mutual effects between literary texts and visual images in the media of book painting and film and the second part includes contributions by scholars of literary translation

Retrospection and Revision in Modern and Contemporary Art, Literature and Music Mette Gieskes, Mathilde Roza, 2024-01-03 This interdisciplinary book investigates the various ways in which North American and European modern and contemporary artists authors and musicians have returned to earlier works of their own engaging in inventive revivals and transformations of the past in the present The book is distinctive in its focus on such revisits as well as in the diversity of art forms under review in addition to visual art the book explores fiction poetry literary criticism film rock music and philosophy This scope together with the time span covered in the book from the 1850s to the twenty first century allows for a broad view on retrospection and revision The case studies presented here offer a multifaceted exploration of the widely different goals to which practitioners of the arts have made retrospection and revision functional against the background of cultural social political and personal forces Modern Arabic Literature Reuven Snir, 2017-06-02 The study of Arabic literature is blossoming This book provides a comprehensive theoretical framework to help research this highly prolific and diverse production of contemporary literary texts Based on the achievements of historical poetics in particular those of Russian formalism and its theoretical legacy this framework offers flexible transparent and unbiased tools to understand the relevant contexts within the literary system The aim is to enhance our understanding of Arabic literature throw light on areas of literary production that traditionally have been neglected and stimulate others to take up the fascinating challenge of mapping out and exploring them The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1906 Fecal Matters in Early Modern Literature and Art Jeff Persels, Russell Ganim, 2017-03-02 Feces urine flatus phlegm vomitus unlike ourselves our most educated forebears did not disdain these functions and further they employed scatological references in all manner of works This collection of essays was provoked by what its editors considered to be a curious lacuna the relative academic neglect of the copious and ubiquitous scatological rhetoric of Early Modern Europe here broadly defined as the representation of the process and product of elimination of the body s waste products The contributors to this volume examine the many forms and functions of scatology as literary and artistic trope and reconsider this last taboo in the context of Early Modern European expression They address unflinchingly both the objective reality of the scatological as part and parcel of material culture inescapably a much larger part a much heavier parcel then than now and the subjective experience of that reality among contemporaries Modern Persian Literature in Afghanistan Wali Ahmadi, 2008-03-05 This book charts the development of Afghan literature in the modern era covering both poetry and prose and relating it to social economic and political change in that country Winner of the Iranian World Prize for Book of the Year in Islamics Studies 2009 The literary history of Afghanistan in the 20th century has received little attention so far The process of transmission and reception of modernity itself is one of the many lacunae in our knowledge of the cultural setting in Afghanistan Wali Ahmadi s account of the development of modern Persian literature stands as a first noteworthy step towards rectifying this situation In his citation laden introduction he makes it clear that he considers the dissemination of modernity in Afghanistan to have been at once a selective and an active process This book provides a useful introduction to and a selective overview of the literary history of Afghanistan in the 20th century Wali Ahmadi is to be commended for dedicating himself to this complex task Christine Noelle Karimi Middle Eastern Literatures incorporating Edebiyat 13 1 117 119 2011 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1861 New Germany, Its Modern History, Literature, Philosophy, Religion and Art Arnold Ruge, 1854 The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1904 Literature and Revolution in Modern China Yuzo Nagahori, 2025-05-19 This book reconstructs Lu Xun s literary theory and political position within its historical context It considers the influence on Lu Xun of Leon Trotsky's literary theory and Lu Xun's relationship with the Chinese Trotskyists and the Chinese Communist Party. It corrects errors and shortcomings in conventional studies on Lu Xun and shows how Lu Xun was used for political purposes by the Chinese Communists and Mao Zedong beginning in the Yan'an years and culminating during the Cultural Revolution. It seeks to rescue Lu Xun from the distortion of his legacy by the Chinese Communist literary establishment, Mao Zedong and Stalinism. Modern Chinese Literary Thought Kirk A. Denton, 1996. This volume presents a broad range of writings on modern Chinese literature. Of the fifty-five essays included, forty-seven are translated here for the first time, including two essays by Lu Xun. In addition, the editor has provided an extensive general introduction and shorter introductions to the five parts of the book: historical background; a synthesis of current scholarship on modern views of Chinese literature; and an original thesis on the complex formation of Chinese literary modernity. The collection reflects both the mainstream Marxist interpretation of the literary values of modern China and the marginalized views proscribed at one time or another by the leftist canon. It offers a full spectrum of modern Chinese perceptions of fundamental literary issues.

Routledge Handbook of Modern Korean Literature Yoon Sun Yang, 2020-03-26. The Routledge Handbook of Modern Korean Literature provides a comprehensive overview of a Korean literary tradition which is understood as a multifaceted nexus of practices both homegrown and transnational. The handbook discusses the perspectives from which modern Korean literature has thus far been defined, analyzing which voices have been enunciated, underappreciated or completely silenced, and how we can enrich our understanding of it. Taking up diverse transnational and interdisciplinary standpoints, this volume aims to encourage readers not to treat modern Korean literature as a self-evident category but to examine it anew as an uncultivated and uncharted space, unearthing its internal chasms and global connections. Divided into five parts, the themes covered include the following: Literature and power; Borders and boundaries; Rationality in literature and its limits; Language, ethnicity and translation; Korean literature in the changing mediascape. By introducing new conceptual paradigms to the field of modern Korean literature, this book will appeal to students and scholars of Korean, East Asian and world literature alike.

The Art of Picturing in Early Modern English Literature Camilla Caporicci, Armelle Sabatier, 2019-11-04. Written by an international group of highly regarded scholars and rooted in the field of intermedial approaches to literary studies, this volume explores the complex aesthetic process of picturing in early modern English literature. The essays in this volume offer a comprehensive and varied picture of the relationship between visual and verbal in the early modern period while also contributing to the understanding of the literary context in which Shakespeare wrote. Using different methodological approaches and taking into account a great variety of texts, including Elizabethan sonnet sequences, metaphysical poetry, famous as well as anonymous plays and court masques, the book opens new perspectives on the literary modes of picturing and on the relationship between this creative act and the tense artistic, religious and political background of early modern Europe. The first section explores different modes of looking at works of art and their relation with technological innovations and religious controversies while the chapters in the second part highlight the multifaceted connections between European visual arts and English literary production The third section explores the functions performed by portraits on the page and the stage delving into the complex question of the relationship between visual and verbal representation Finally the chapters in the fourth section re appraise early modern reflections on the relationship between word and image and on their respective power in light of early seventeenth century visual culture with particular reference to the masque genre Tragedy and the Tragic in German Literature, Art, and Thought Stephen D. Dowden, Thomas P. Quinn, 2014 Essays in this volume seek to clarify the meaning of tragedy and the tragic in its many German contexts art forms and disciplines from literature and philosophy to music painting and history Spirituality in Modern Literature Swami Satyaswarupananda, Swami Madhurananda, Fictional literature when enkindled with spiritual ideas creates an appeal that transcends time and place This has been the case with many literary works produced in India and other parts of the world and this is so even in our modern times characterized by consumerist culture that hardly sees below the surface of things A compilation from Prabuddha Bharata this book presents to the readers through a series of articles a systematic record of some of those writers who added the spiritual dimension to their fictional works in India and the Americas Published by Advaita Ashrama a publication house of Ramakrishna Math Belur Math Lateness and Modern European Literature Ben Hutchinson, 2016 Modern European literature has traditionally been seen as a series of attempts to assert successive styles of writing as new In this groundbreaking study Ben Hutchinson argues that literary modernity can in fact be understood not as that which is new but as that which is late Exploring the ways in which European literature repeatedly defines itself through a sense of senescence or epigonality Hutchinson shows that the shifting manifestations of lateness since romanticism express modernity's continuing quest for legitimacy With reference to a wide range of authors from Mary Shelley Chateaubriand and Immermann via Baudelaire Henry James and Nietzsche to Val ry Djuna Barnes and Adorno he combines close readings of canonical texts with historical and theoretical comparisons of numerous national contexts Out of this broad comparative sweep emerges a taxonomy of lateness of the diverse ways in which modern writers can be understood in the words of Nietzsche as creatures facing backwards Ambitious and original Lateness and Modern European Literature offers a significant new model for understanding literary modernity
