Sky Above Mud Below:

The Sky Above and the Mud Below David Sobel, 2020-09-15 David Sobel's follow up to Nature Preschools and Forest Kindergartens walks readers through the nitty gritty facts of running a nature based program. Organized around nine themes each chapter begins with an overview from the author followed by case studies from diverse early childhood programs ranging from those that serve at risk children to public preschools to university farm programs to Waldorf schools. Sample newsletters in each chapter show how real programs have tackled tough questions and sticky situations. The programs featured in these newsletters are from across the United States: Maryland, New York, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Alabama, Connecticut, Illinois, Vermont, California, Michigan, Rhode Island, Louisiana, and Indiana. A Mirror in the Roadway Morris Dickstein, 2005 In this collection of essays Morris Dickstein focuses on the rich interchange of ideas between writers such as Kafka, C. L. Carver, Bellow, Kennedy, and the world around them: the lives that formed them, the places they write about, the social changes they make indelibly real to us. Looking with Robert Gardner Rebecca Meyers, William Rothman, Charles Warren, 2016-08-01 Assesses the range and magnitude of Robert Gardner's achievements as a filmmaker, photographer, writer, educator, and champion of independent cinema. During his lifetime Robert Gardner (1925-2014) was often pigeonholed as an ethnographic filmmaker, then criticized for failing to conform to the genre's conventions; conventions he radically challenged. With the release of his groundbreaking film Dead Birds in 1963, Gardner established himself as one of the world's most extraordinary independent filmmakers working in a unique border area between ethnography, the essay film, and poetic experimental cinema. Richly illustrated, Looking with Robert Gardner assesses the range and magnitude of Gardner's achievements not only as a filmmaker but also as a still photographer, writer, educator, and champion of independent cinema. The contributors give critical attention to Gardner's most ambitious films such as Dead Birds (1963), New Guinea Rivers (1975), Ethiopia (1975), and Forest of Bliss (1986), as well as lesser known films that equally exemplify his mode of seeking anthropological understanding through artistic means. They also attend to his films about artists, including his self-depiction in Still Journey On (2011), to his roots in experimental film and his employment of experimental procedures, and to his support of independent filmmakers through the Harvard Film Study Center and the television series Screening Room, which provided an opportunity for numerous important film and video artists to present and discuss their work. This book is a monumental, fearless, and insightful contribution of critique that looks both with and at Gardner's works as a whole. Catherine Summerhayes, author of Google Earth Outreach and Activism. Looking with Robert Gardner introduces new and exciting voices into the dialogue about the renowned ethnographic and documentary filmmaker. The book contains very close readings of many of his films and suggests fresh approaches for analyzing those as well as ethnographic films in general. Ilisa Barbash, coeditor of The Cinema of Robert Gardner.

Went Mainstream Nora Stone, 2023 Since the 1960s documentary films have moved closer to the mainstream thanks to the popularity of rockumentaries association with the independent film movement support from public and cable television and the rise of streaming video services Documentary films have become reliable earners at the U S box office and ubiquitous on streaming platforms while historically they existed on the margins of mainstream media How do we explain the growing commercialization of documentary films and the conditions that fueled their transformation The growing commercialization of documentary film has not gone unnoticed but it has not been sufficiently explained Streaming and the growing interest in reality TV are usually offered as initial explanations whenever a documentary enters the cultural conversation or breaks a box office record but neither of those causes grapple with the overlapping causal mechanisms that commercialized documentary film How Documentaries Went Mainstream provides a more comprehensive and meaningful periodization of the commercialization of documentary film. Although the commercial ascension of documentary films might seem meteoric, it is the culmination of decades-long efforts that have developed and fortified the audience for documentary features. Author Nora Stone refines rough explanations of these efforts through a robust synoptic history of the market for documentary films, using knowledge of film economics and the norms of industry discourse to tell a richer story. This periodization will allow scholars to compare the commercialization of documentary film with other genres. Drawing on archival documents, industry trade journals, and popular press, and interviews with filmmakers and film distributors, Stone illuminates how documentary features have become more plentiful, popular, and profitable than ever before. Cinema '62 Stephen Farber, Michael McClellan, 2020-03-13

Challenging the common assumption that the early 1960s were a drab time for American film, this book makes the bold case that 1962 was a peak year for the movies, giving audiences a prime mix of adult, artistic, and uncompromising work from Hollywood veterans, hot young directors, and international auteurs. The Bear Comes Home Rafi Zabor, 2025-04-25

Winner of the PEN Faulkner Award for Fiction. A hilarious, richly imagined bear's-eye view of love, music, alienation, manhood, and humanity that recalls Pynchon at his most controlled. Publishers Weekly starred review: "The hero of this sensational debut novel is an alto sax virtuoso trying to evolve a personal style out of Coltrane and Rollins. He also happens to be a walking talking Blake and Shakespeare, quoting bear whose musical, spiritual, and romantic adventures add up to perhaps the best novel ursine or human ever written about jazz." Kent Finlay, Dreamer Brian T. Atkinson, Jenni Finlay, 2016-02-03

Though not a household name for the general public, Kent Finlay (1938-2015) was one of the world's best-known and best-loved promoters, mentors, and gurus of Texas music. In 1974, he founded the Cheatham Street Warehouse in San Marcos as a venue for live music and an incubator for young talent. In 1977, he drove to Nashville and took with him a young, unknown singer named George Strait. On that trip, Strait recorded a demo that laid the initial foundation of his sensational career. Finlay's friends and fans also include such Texas music fixtures as Todd Snider, Ray Wylie Hubbard, Jack Ingram, James McMurtry, Joe King Carrasco, Marcia Ball, Rodney Foster, Eric Johnson, Hayes Carll, Omar Dykes, Omar and the Howlers, Terri Hendrix, and Ray Benson. Asleep at the Wheel. These and many others have contributed first-person interviews to this volume, which pays tribute both to Finlay and to his unselfish love for Texas music and musicians.
