The Harmony Silk Factory Paperback:

The Harmony Silk Factory Tash Aw, 2006-02-07 Joseph Conrad W Somerset Maugham and Anthony Burgess have shaped our perceptions of Malaysia In Tash Aw we now have an authentic Malaysian voice that remaps this literary landscape The Harmony Silk Factory traces the story of textile merchant Johnny Lim a Chinese peasant living in British Malaya in the first half of the twentieth century Johnny's factory is the most impressive structure in the region and to the inhabitants of the Kinta Valley Johnny is a hero a Communist who fought the Japanese when they invaded ready to sacrifice his life for the welfare of his people But to his son Jasper Johnny is a crook and a collaborator who betrayed the very people he pretended to serve and the Harmony Silk Factory is merely a front for his father's illegal businesses This debut novel from Tash Aw gives us an exquisitely written look into another culture at a moment of crisis The Harmony Silk Factory won the 2005 Whitbread First Novel Award and also made it to the 2005 Man Booker longlist

The Harmony Silk Factory Tash Aw, 2005 A brilliant novel from a genuinely exciting new voice in British fiction A novel for anyone who enjoyed The English Patient

21st-Century British Gothic Emily Horton, 2024-01-25 In this innovative re-casting of the genre and its received canon Emily Horton explores fictional investments in the Gothic within contemporary British literature revealing how such concepts as the monstrous spectral and uncanny work to illuminate the insecure uneven and precarious experience of 21st century life Reading contemporary works of Gothic fiction by Helen Oyeyemi Kazuo Ishiguro Sarah Moss Patrick McGrath and M R Carey alongside writers not previously grouped under this umbrella including Brian Chikwava Chloe Aridjis and Mohsin Hamid Horton illuminates the way the Gothic has been engaged and reread by contemporary writers to address the cultural anxieties invoked living under neocolonial and neoliberal governance including terrorism migration homelessness racism and climate change Marshalling new modes of diasporic and cross disciplinary critical theory concerned with the violent dimensions of contemporary life this book sets the Gothic aesthetics in such works as White is for Witching Double Vision Never Let Me Go The Wasted Vigil and Ghost Wall against a backdrop of key events in the 21st century Drawing connections between moments of anxiety such as 9 11 the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq ecological disaster the refugee crisis Brexit the pandemic and the Gothic Horton demonstrates how British literature mediates transnational experiences of trauma and horror while also addressing local and national insecurities and preoccupations As a result 21st Century British Gothic can test geographical psychological cultural and aesthetic borders to expose an often spectralised experience of human and planetary vulnerability and speaks back against the brutality of global capitalism

The Encyclopedia of the Gothic, 2 Volume Set William Hughes, David Punter, Andrew Smith, 2015-12-21 THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF THE GOTHIC Well written and interesting it is a testament to the breadth and depth of knowledge about its central subject among the more than 130 contributing writers and also among the three editors each of whom is a significant figure in the field of gothic studies A reference work that is firmly rooted in and actively devoted to expressing the current state of academic scholarship about its area New York Journal of Books A substantial achievement Reference Reviews Comprehensive and wide ranging The Encyclopedia of the Gothic brings together over 200 newly commissioned essays by leading scholars writing on all aspects of the Gothic as it is currently taught and researched along with challenging insights into the development of the genre and its impact on contemporary culture The A Z entries provide comprehensive coverage of relevant authors national traditions critical developments and notable texts that continue to define shape and inform the genre The volume's approach is truly interdisciplinary with essays by specialist international contributors whose expertise extends beyond Gothic literature to film music drama art and architecture From Angels and American Gothic to Wilde and Witchcraft The Encyclopedia of the Gothic is the definitive reference guide to all aspects of this strange and wondrous genre The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Literature is a comprehensive scholarly authoritative and critical overview of literature and theory comprising individual titles covering key literary genres periods and sub disciplines Available both in print and online this groundbreaking resource provides students teachers and researchers with cutting edge scholarship in literature and literary studies The Postcolonial Millennium Mohammad A. Quayum, Grace V.S. Chin, 2024-04-04 This book comprises a collection of essays that address a significant gap in the study of Malaysian Literature in English by exploring selected local and diasporic writings produced in the new postcolonial millennium including works by established emerging and new writers The literary developments in this new millennium have been substantial and are reflected in the production of new voices viewpoints themes trends styles and forms By articulating these changing postcolonial perspectives and conditions the chapters in this volume can inform and enrich the study of nation society and culture in a globalized and hyperreal age Tapping into the difference diversity and hybridity of 21st century historicized and glocalised multicultural Malaysia the millennium writings explore the changing identities and relations and their social cultural and political dimensions through the intersections of race gender sexuality and class By examining new different or changing ideas forms themes and representations this book considers the vital ways the millennium voices and viewpoints can potentially help us critically rethink and resituate postcolonial studies on Malaysia as they spotlight challenges and new directions in the field The book will be of interest to researchers academics and scholars in the field of Malaysian writing in English Southeast Asian literature Asian literature diaspora and literary studies The chapters in the book were originally published as a special issue in the Journal of Postcolonial Writing Belonging to the Nation Edmund Gomez, Gregor Benton, 2016-04-14 This study reviews developments in the ethnic and national identity of the descendants of migrants taking ethnic Chinese as a case study Our core question is why in spite of debates worldwide about identity exclusion and rights do minority communities continue to suffer discrimination and attacks This question is asked in view of the growing incidence in recent years of racial conflicts between majority and minority communities and among minorities in both developed and developing countries The study examines national identity from the perspective of migrants descendants whose national identity may be more rooted than is often thought Concepts such as new ethnicities cultural fluidity and new and multiple identities feature in this examination These concepts highlight identity changes across generations and the need to challenge and reinterpret the meaning of nation and to review problems with policy initiatives designed to promote nation building in multi ethnic societies This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies A Companion to American Gothic Charles L. Crow, 2013-09-10 A Companion to American Gothic features a collection of original essays that explore America's gothic literary tradition The largest collection of essays in the field of American Gothic Contributions from a wide variety of scholars from around the world The most complete coverage of theory major authors popular culture and non print media available Colony, Nation, and Globalisation Eddie Tay, 2010-06-01 The literature of Malaysia and Singapore the multicultural epicentre of Asia offers a rich body of source material for appreciating the intellectual heritage of colonial and postcolonial Southeast Asia Focusing on themes of home and belonging Eddie Tay illuminates many aspects of identity anxiety experienced in the region and helps construct a dialogue between postcolonial theory and the Anglophone literatures of Singapore and Malaysia A chronologically ordered selection of texts is examined including Swettenham Bird Maugham Burgess and Thumboo This genealogy of works includes colonial travel writings and sketches as well as contemporary diasporic novels by Malaysian and Singapore born authors based outside their countries of origin The premise is that home is a physical space as well as a symbolic terrain invested with social political and cultural meanings As discussions of politics and history augment close readings of literary works the book should appeal not only to scholars of literature but also to scholars of Southeast Asian politics and history The Secret Miracle Daniel Alarcón, 2010-04-13 The world's best contemporary writers from Michael Chabon and Claire Messud to Jonathan Lethem and Amy Tan engage in a wide ranging insightful and oft surprising roundtable discussion on the art of writing fiction Drawing back the curtain on the mysterious process of writing novels The Secret Miracle brings together the foremost practitioners of
