A Century

of Genocide Eric D. Weitz, 2015-04-27 Why did the twentieth century witness unprecedented organized genocide Can we learn why genocide is perpetrated by comparing different cases of genocide Is the Holocaust unique or does it share causes and features with other cases of state sponsored mass murder Can genocide be prevented Blending gripping narrative with trenchant analysis Eric Weitz investigates four of the twentieth century's major eruptions of genocide the Soviet Union under Stalin Nazi Germany Cambodia under the Khmer Rouge and the former Yugoslavia Drawing on historical sources as well as trial records memoirs novels and poems Weitz explains the prevalence of genocide in the twentieth century and shows how and why it became so systematic and deadly Weitz depicts the searing brutality of each genocide and traces its origins back to those most powerful categories of the modern world race and nation He demonstrates how in each of the cases a strong state pursuing utopia promoted a particular mix of extreme national and racial ideologies In moments of intense crisis these states targeted certain national and racial groups believing that only the annihilation of these enemies would enable the dominant group to flourish And in each instance large segments of the population were enticed to join in the often ritualistic actions that destroyed their neighbors This book offers some of the most absorbing accounts ever written of the population purges forever associated with the names Stalin Hitler Pol Pot and Milosevic A controversial and richly textured comparison of these four modern cases it identifies the social and political forces that produce genocide Creative Practitioner Inquiry in the Helping Professions Jane Speedy, Jonathan Wyatt, 2014-09-11 This beautiful volume offers a range of research possibilities for practitioners Bringing together the work of a community of scholars whose work blurs the edges between the arts and social sciences in the name of practice based inquiry Creative Practitioner Inquiry in the Helping Professions offers engaging and accessible exemplars alongside clear explanations of the theoretical understandings and backgrounds to the approaches offered The book's contributors are teachers doctors social workers counsellors psychotherapists health and community workers and organisational consultants together they passionately engage in arts based research as an effective and accessible instrument of inquiry knowledge dissemination and social change Negotiating Belongings Melanie

Baak, 2016-07-28 Belonging is an issue that affects us all but for those who have been displaced unsettled or made homeless by the increased movements associated with the contemporary globalising era belonging is under constant challenge Migration throws into question not only the belongings of those who physically migrate but also particularly in a postcolonial context the belongings of those who are indigenous to and settlers in countries of migration subsequent generations born to migrants and those who are left behind in countries of origin Negotiating Belongings utilises narrative ethnographic and autoethnographic approaches to explore the negotiations for belonging for six women from Dinka communities originating in southern Sudan It explores belonging particularly in relation to migration through a consideration of belonging to nation states ethnic groups community family and kin In exploring how the journeys towards desired belongings are haunted by various social processes such as colonisation power race and gender the author argues that negotiating belonging is a continual movement between being and becoming The research utilises and demands different ways of listening to and really hearing the narratives of the women as embedded within non Western epistemologies and ontologies Through this it develops an understanding of the relational ontology cieng that governs the ways in which the women exist in the world The women s narratives alongside the author s experience within the Dinka community provide particular ways to interrogate the intersections of being and becoming on the haunted journey to belonging The relational ontology of cieng provides an additional way of understanding belonging becoming and being as always relational Surviving Race, Ethnicity, and Nationality Jorge J. E. Gracia, 2005-11-01 Surviving Race Ethnicity and Nationality is the first book to explore philosophically the concepts of race ethnicity and nationality and offer a systematic and unified theory emphasizing metaphysical and epistemological issues Gracia argues for a familial historical view of ethnicity and race in the tradition of Du Bois and for a political view of nationality the roots of which can be traced to the French Enlightenment Meticulous criticism of Appiah on race Corlett on ethnicity and Miller on nationality set the stage for the presentation of Gracia s own analytically precise discussion Surviving Race Ethnicity and Nationality is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the distinctive ways that philosophy informs and clarifies our common understanding of these complex concepts Filming the Modern

Middle East Lina Khatib, 2006-09-29 Filming the Modern Middle East is the first comparative investigation of how modern American cinema and the cinemas of the Arab world represent Middle Eastern politics to their audiences Lina Khatib examines the cinematic depictions of major political issues from the Arab Israeli conflict to the Gulf War to Islamic fundamentalism and covers films made in the USA in Egypt Tunisia Morocco Lebanon Syria and Palestine She explores cinema s role as a tool of nationalism in the USA and the Arab world and the challenges the Arab cinemas present to Hollywood s dominant representations of Middle Eastern politics But she also reveals similarities between supposed contradictory cinemas and importantly not only how the Orient is constructed by the Occident but also how the Orient itself in these cinemas represents Self and Others and how it is consumed by internal as well as external struggles This is a fascinating original contribution to the burgeoning interest in world cinemas which also offers a fresh way of seeing Middle East politics through cinematic lenses Staging Ghana Paul Schauert, 2015-09-07 The Ghana Dance Ensemble takes Ghana s national culture and interprets it in performance using authentic dance forms adapted for local or foreign audiences Often says Paul Schauert the aims of the ensemble and the aims of the individual performers work in opposition Schauert discusses the history of the dance troupe and its role in Ghana s post independence nation building strategy and illustrates how the nation s culture makes its way onto the stage He argues that as dancers negotiate the terrain of what is or is not authentic they also find ways to express their personal aspirations discovering within the framework of nationalism or collective identity that there is considerable room to reform national ideals through individual virtuosity Southern Indians and

a museum of history and culture to a fatherhood project these eleven papers document some of the many ways in which anthropologists and Native Americans are striving to work together at higher levels of accountability reciprocity and mutual enrichment The Native American groups discussed in the volume include the Yuchi of Oklahoma the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians in western North Carolina the Powhatans of Virginia the Chickasaw Nation of Oklahoma the Seminole Tribe of Florida and the Waccamaw Siouan community of coastal North Carolina The volume s contributors consider such issues as education community development funding and the preservation of languages sacred texts oral traditions and artifacts At the same time they offer personal insights into the pressures that can bear on working relationships between anthropologists and Native Americans Not only must all concerned find a balance between their official and informal individual and group selves but Native Americans especially often feel caught between history and the present One contributor for instance discusses the problems that arose from the discovery of Native American graves on land owned by the Cherokees on the site of a planned casino parking lot The anthropological work discussed here suggests strong potential for continuing research partnerships It also illustrates the potential benefits of such partnerships for anthropologists and for Native Americans Gathering a Heritage Thomas M. Prymak, 2015-01-15 Since the 1970s and 1980s the study of immigration and ethnicity has grown to become an essential aspect of North American history In Gathering a Heritage Thomas M Prymak uses the essays and articles he has written over the past thirty years as a historian of Ukrainian and Ukrainian Canadian history to reflect on the evolution of ethnic studies in Canada and the United States The essays included in this book explore the history of Ukrainian and Slavonic immigration to North America and the literature through which these communities and their historians have sought to recapture their past Each previously published essay is revised and expanded and several more appear here for the first time including the fascinating story of French Canadian writer Gabrielle Roy s connections with Ukrainian Canadians and her tumultuous affair with a Ukrainian Canadian nationalist in pre war London

Subjects, Citizens, and Others Benno Gammerl, 2017-11-01 Bosnian Muslims East African Masai Czech speaking Austrians North American indigenous peoples and Jewish immigrants from across Europe the nineteenth century British and Habsburg Empires were characterized by incredible cultural and racial ethnic diversity Notwithstanding their many differences both empires faced similar administrative questions as a result Who was excluded or admitted What advantages were granted to which groups And how could diversity be reconciled with demands for national autonomy and democratic participation In this pioneering study Benno Gammerl compares Habsburg and British approaches to governing their diverse populations analyzing imperial formations to reveal the legal and political conditions that fostered heterogeneity

Antiziganism Markus End, Hristo Kyuchukov, Pia Laskar, 2015-06-18 In October 2013 more than 100 scholars gathered at an international conference in Uppsala to discuss ways to identify and analyse a theme which in recent years has attracted growing attention the discrimination marginalisation and persecution of Romanies The approaches adopted in this volume range from critical theory semiotics discourse and cultural analysis to intersectional perspectives Many contributors here argue for a conceptual understanding of this phenomenon that goes beyond the notions of anti Romani racism or Romaphobia suggesting a shift in focus towards the prevailing prejudice in majority societies The controversial core theme discussed in this book is the appropriateness and the theoretical understanding of the term antiziganism and its analogue antigypsyism The essays explore empirical findings from the news media film literature and theatre as well as contemporary and historical realities in Germany Kosovo Norway the former Ottoman Empire the Soviet Union Romania Sweden and the US The striking historical and geographic continuity of stereotypes and the different modes of antiziganist practice comprise a central theme here along with a focus on the counter discourse of Romanies Since comprehensive literature on this topic in Romani studies has to date been rare this volume provides necessary readings for the debate among scholars policy makers and activists

The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper,2004-10-14 The Social Science Encyclopedia first published in 1985 to acclaim from social scientists librarians and students was thoroughly revised in 1996 when reviewers began to describe it as a classic This third edition has been radically recast Over half the entries are new or have been entirely rewritten and most of the balance have been substantially revised Written by an international team of contributors the Encyclopedia offers a global perspective on key issues within the social sciences Some 500 entries cover a variety of enduring and newly vital areas of study and research methods Experts review theoretical debates from neo evolutionism and rational choice theory to poststructuralism and address the great questions that cut across the social sciences What is the influence of genes on behaviour What is the nature of consciousness and cognition What are the causes of poverty and wealth What are the roots of conflict wars revolutions and genocidal violence This authoritative reference work is aimed at anyone with a serious interest in contemporary academic thinking about the individual in society

Ethnic Europe Roland Hsu,2010-02-05 Ethnic Europe examines the increasingly complex ethnic challenges facing the expanding European Union Essays from eleven experts tackle such issues as labor migration strains on welfare economies the durability of local traditions the effects of globalized cultures and the role of Islamic diasporas separatist movements and threats of terrorism With Europe now a destination for global immigration European countries are increasingly alert to the difficult struggle to balance minority rights with social cohesion In pondering these dilemmas the contributors to this volume take us from theory history and broad views of diasporas to the particularities of neighborhoods borderlands and popular literature and film that have been shaped by the mixing of ethnic cultures

The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy John Gaffar La Guerre,2017-01-03 The Dilemmas of Ethnic Policy A Global Perspective argues that ethnic conflict increases or decreases in relation to changes in the social structure and the location and distribution of political power Ethnic grievances derive from lack of access to valued resources and elites play a crucial role in allocating those resources This book examines the experiences of five countries with a history of ethnic conflict former Yugoslavia Bosnia Herzegovina Guyana Trinidad and Tobago and the United States It finds that in many cases solutions adopted to mitigate ethnic conflict have unintended consequences Often supposed solutions confuse cause and effect and in fact worsen ethnic conflict Attempts to address identity issues by pandering to them often led to further ethnic demands This book argues that based on the experiences of the countries under examination the best course is to adopt policies that encourage alliances between and among ethnic groups      Understanding Pakistan Mathew Joseph C.,2016-09-13 This book is the outcome of a national seminar for research scholars on Pakistan organized by the Centre for Pakistan Studies at the MMAJ Academy of International Studies Jamia Millia Islamia New Delhi The aim of the seminar was to explore how young minds in India view Pakistan the quintessential enemy country The range of topics included issues related to Pakistan s politics economy popular culture education environment sectarian divide minorities policy towards Jammu Kashmir and foreign relations Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka
