The Complete Works of Christopher Marlowe: Volume 2, Edward II, Doctor Faustus, The First Book of Lucan, Ovid's Elegies, Hero and Leander, Poems Christopher Marlowe, 2008-11-20 A critical old spelling edition of the complete works of Marlowe edited on the principles that Professor Bowers more than any other scholar has established Through a choice of copy texts that stand nearest in direct line to the lost manuscripts the works are presented in as near the original form as can be recovered in respect of spelling punctuation capitalisation and the actual words themselves The edition contains a substantial critical apparatus in the form of textual introduction and notes a historical collation and a list of emendations for each work of both substantives and accidentals

Volume 16, Tome II: Kierkegaard's Literary Figures and Motifs Katalin Nun, Jon Stewart, 2016-12-05 While Kierkegaard is perhaps known best as a religious thinker and philosopher there is an unmistakable literary element in his writings He often explains complex concepts and ideas by using literary figures and motifs that he could assume his readers would have some familiarity with This dimension of his thought has served to make his writings far more popular than those of other philosophers and theologians but at the same time it has made their interpretation more complex Kierkegaard readers are generally aware of his interest in figures such as Faust or the Wandering Jew but they rarely have a full appreciation of the vast extent of his use of characters from different literary periods and traditions The present volume is dedicated to the treatment of the variety of literary figures and motifs used by Kierkegaard The volume is arranged alphabetically by name with Tome II covering figures and motifs from Gulliver to Zerlina

Prometheus and Gaia Harrison Fluss, Landon Frim, 2022-02-01 Prometheus and Gaia examines the ideological positions of Futurism and Eco Pessimism While these are rarely spoken about in mainstream discourse they do have strong resonances in today's popular politics and culture In light of existential threats posed by climate change disruptive technologies and economic crises many have grown weary of the small fixes offered by mainstream policy makers Radical change thus appears necessary as Futurism and Eco Pessimism emerge as two fundamental challenges to the status quo The Futurist claims that the current dynamism of technology is incompatible with human limitations while the Eco Pessimist sees the climate crisis as symptomatic of a broader human domination over nature What these seemingly opposite currents have in common is a shared rejection of the human frame as grounding politics each seeks to subordinate the human in favor of a wholly alien other either in the form of an anarchic nature or a dynamic technology To transcend this strange coincidence of opposites Prometheus and Gaia makes the positive case for a humanism that is rationalist without being anthropocentric

The Specificity of the Aesthetic, Volume 1 György

Lukács,2023-02-13 How is it possible that works of art exist How do we become receptive aesthetic subjects The Specificity of the Aesthetic extends these fundamental ontological and phenomenological questions around which Georg Lukács's theory of art was organised This late work of aesthetics seeks to solve a puzzle that neither philosophy nor socialist politics was able to the fundamental ethical question of what individuals and humanity as a whole ought to do Art offers Lukács the already existing means through which the damaged edifice of Marxism might be reconstructed on a durable basis on which to rest the philosophy politics and ethics of a non Soviet style Marxism Faust I & II Johann Wolfgang von Goethe,1994 Goethe's most complex and profound work Faust was the effort of the great poet's entire lifetime Written over 60 years it can be read as a document of Goethe's moral and artistic development Faust is made available to the English reader in a completely new translation that communicates both its poetic variety and its many levels of tone The language is present day English and Goethe's formal and rhythmic variety is reproduced in all its richness Volume 2 of the Collected Works of

Marie-Louise von Franz Marie-Louise von Franz,2021-11-01 The Collected Works of Marie Louise von Franz is a 28 volume Magnum Opus from one of the leading minds in Jungian Psychology Volume 1 released on her 106th birthday is to be followed by 27 more volumes over the next 10 years Volume 2 turns to the Hero's Journey within fairytales The Hero's Journey is about the great adventure that leads to a cherished and difficult to obtain prize In these fairytales the Self is often symbolized as that treasured prize and the hero's travails symbolize the process of individuation In its many manifestations the hero embodies the emerging personality In the conscious world the hero is only one part of the personality the despised part and through his attachment to the Self in the unconscious is a symbol of the whole personality Von Franz's prodigious knowledge of fairytales from around the world demonstrates that the fairytale draws its root moisture from the collective realm This volume continues where Volume 1 left off as von Franz describes the fairytale suspended between the divine and the secular worlds creating a mysterious and pregnant tension that requires extreme power to withstand The resistance of the great mother against the hero and his humble origins as well as the hero freeing the anima figure from the clutches of the unconscious are universal archetypal patterns The spoils retrieved by the hero symbolize new levels of consciousness wrested from the unconscious On Psychological and Visionary Art C. G. Jung,2025-07-22 The first English translation of

Jung's landmark lecture on Nerval's hallucinatory memoir In 1945 at the end of the Second World War and after a long illness C G Jung delivered a lecture in Zurich on the French Romantic poet Gérard de Nerval The lecture focused on Nerval's visionary memoir Aurélia which the poet wrote in an ambivalent attempt to emerge from madness Published here for the first time Jung's lecture is both a cautionary psychological tale and a validation of Nerval's visionary experience as a genuine encounter Nerval explored the irrational with lucidity and exquisite craft He privileged the subjective imagination as a way of fathoming the divine to reconnect with what the Romantics called the life principle During the years of his greatest creativity he suffered from madness and was institutionalized eight times Contrasting an orthodox psychoanalytic interpretation with his own synthetic approach to the unconscious Jung explains why Nerval was unable to make use of his visionary experiences in his own life At the same time Jung emphasizes the validity of Nerval s visions differentiating the psychology of a work of art from the psychology of the artist The lecture suggests how Jung s own experiments with active imagination influenced his reading of Nerval s Aur lia as a parallel text to his own Red Book With Craig Stephenson s authoritative introduction Richard Sieburth s award winning translation of Aur lia and Alfred Kubin s haunting illustrations to the text and featuring Jung s reading marginalia preliminary notes and revisions to a 1942 lecture On Psychological and Visionary Art documents the stages of Jung s creative process as he responds to an essential Romantic text
