The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary International Political Economy Timothy M. Shaw, Laura C. Mahrenbach, Renu Modi, Xu Yi-chong, 2018-12-19. Published 35 years after Palgrave Macmillan's landmark International Political Economy (IPE) series was first founded, this Handbook captures the state of the art of contemporary IPE. It draws on the series history of focusing on the oft neglected study of the global South. Providing interdisciplinary perspectives from scholars hailing from the global North and South, the Handbook illustrates the theoretical innovations and empirical richness necessary to explain today's ever changing world. This is a world in which the global South and North are not only being transformed by the end of bipolarity and the rise of the BRICS but also by diverse global crises and growing cross border challenges. It is a world where human development governance and security are becoming ever more elusive where profoundly altered by the rise of new technologies the structure of relations between nations itself is changing becoming increasingly interconnected both digitally and physically. Understanding these issues is of critical importance to better anticipate current and future global transformations. This Handbook is the ideal primer for all scholars practitioners and policy makers looking to do so.

Inclusive Growth Through Social Capital Formation Christabell P.J., 2016-01-01. Economic growth becomes inclusive when it creates economic opportunities along with ensuring equal access to all people of a nation. The inclusive growth can be achieved by forming social capital which can be defined as the quality and quantity of relationships networks and norms among people and organizations that facilitate collective action. In India micro finance institutions and programmes have adopted numerous innovative ways of providing credit and savings services to the entrepreneurial poor in order to make them financially inclusive. The book looked into the impact of the progress of micro finance in Kerala and further examined how social capital formation among marginalized and vulnerable sections of the society through micro finance helped the poor especially in the context of inclusive growth. The micro finance organisation selected for the purpose of the book is Kudumbashree which is an internationally renowned model operating in the State of Kerala.

Urban Poverty in the Wake of Environmental Disaster Maria Ela Atienza, Pauline Eadie, May Tan-Mullins, 2019-02-04. This book investigates the best strategies for poverty alleviation in post disaster urban environments and the conditions necessary for the success and scaling up of these strategies Using the case study of Typhoon Yolanda Haiyan in the Philippines the strongest typhoon ever to make landfall the book aims to draw out policy recommendations relevant for other middle and lower income countries facing similar urban environmental challenges Humans are increasingly living in densely populated and highly vulnerable areas often coastal This increased density of human settlements leads to increased material damage and high death tolls and this vulnerability is often exacerbated by climate change This book focuses on urban population risk vulnerability to disasters resilience to environmental shocks and adaptation in relation to paths in and out of poverty Using both qualitative and quantitative methods including primary survey data from victims and those charged with overseeing the relief effort in the Philippines Urban Poverty in the Wake of Environmental Disaster has significant implications for disaster risk reduction as it relates to the urban poor and is highly recommended for scholars and practitioners of development studies environment studies and disaster relief and risk reduction ADB-government-NGO Cooperation ,2003 Environment, Livelihoods, and Local Institutions Mairi Kristina Dupar,Nathan Badenoch,2002 An analysis of how decentralization reforms are changing local institutions for natural resource management in mainland Southeast Asia The focus is on mountainous areas where impoverished populations struggle to preserve meagre resources remaining biodiversity and food security Israeli Community Action Paula Kabalo,2020-10-13 A fascinating history of how average citizens banded together to cope and rebuild in the wake of the 1948 War When the 1948 Israeli War of Independence broke out population centers were rocked by sniper fire bombings and roadside ambushes As the fighting moved out of the cities into desert areas private citizens and community organizations left behind organized to revitalize and restore life in their devastated communities In Israeli Community Action Paula Kabalo presents a vivid portrait of these civilians who strove to help each other cope with the realities of war Kabalo explores how civilian militias were recruited how neighborhoods were protected how older populations were enlisted into the war effort and how women were organized to provide medical aid or establish refugee centers She demonstrates that each phase of the war brought along new challenges to the population of the young state of Israel but she also illuminates how the engagement of Israelis in community efforts brought them together and shored them up to face the future in their new country Fixing Society Ronnie V. Amorado,2007 Urban Livelihoods, Institutions and Inclusive Governance in Nairobi Bob Hendriks,2025-10-01 This study formulates conditions for sustainable impacts of inclusive and responsive governance through invited spaces offered by the government and claimed spaces created by the poor The study questions how increased contributions to poverty reduction and improvement of quality of life for Nairobi citizens can be realised in an equitable and responsible way while contributing to development of the city and country To adequately address this two sided objective of economic growth and poverty reduction in the contemporary context the study analyses both processes and impacts moreover it examines impacts in terms of quality of life as well as influence and political rights The study explores the individually claimed spaces of households in Nairobi s slums the collectively claimed spaces of hybrid mechanisms for access to peri urban land and tenure and the invited spaces of city wide governance networks

Social Capital, Local Capacity Building, and Poverty Reduction Thomas F. Carroll, 2001 Disaster Risk Reduction in Indonesia Riyanti Djalante, Matthias Garschagen, Frank Thomalla, Rajib Shaw, 2017-05-02 This book is a unique transdisciplinary summary of the state of the art of disaster risk reduction DRR in Indonesia It provides a comprehensive overview of disaster risk governance across all levels and multiple actors including diverse perspectives from practitioners and researchers on the challenges and progress of DRR in Indonesia The book includes novel and emerging topics such as the role of culture religion psychology and the media in DRR It is essential reading for students researchers and policy makers seeking to understand the nature and variety of environmental hazards and risk patterns affecting Indonesia Following the introduction the book has four main parts of key discussions Part I presents disaster risk governance from national to local level and its integration into development sectors Part II focuses on the roles of different actors for DRR Part III discusses emerging issues in DRR research and practice and Part IV puts forward variety of methods and studies to measure hazards risks and community resilience

The World Bank Research Observer, 2004 Transitions Peter W Newton, 2008-06-27 Formidable challenges confront Australia and its human settlements the mega metro regions major and provincial cities coastal rural and remote towns The key drivers of change and major urban vulnerabilities have been identified and principal among them are resource constraints such as oil water food skilled labour and materials and carbon constraints linked to climate change and a need to transition to renewable energy both of which will strongly shape urban development this century Transitions identifies 21st century challenges to the resilience of Australia's cities and regions that flow from a range of global and local influences and offers a portfolio of solutions to these critical problems and vulnerabilities The solutions will require fundamental transitions in many instances to our urban infrastructures to our institutions and how they plan for the future and perhaps most of all to ourselves in terms of our lifestyles and consumption patterns With contributions from 92 researchers all leaders in their respective fields this book offers the expertise to chart pathways for a sustainability transition

The Transformation of Capacity in International Development Avidah K. Mayville, 2019-11-30 The Transformation of Capacity in International Development exposes the transformation of capacity within the development discourse through a discursive analysis of USAID projects in Afghanistan and Pakistan between 1977 and 2017 As development agendas increasingly call for human rights approaches to development and the foreign policies of donor states sound alarms over global security threats capacity development has emerged as the solution to the complex problem of development Through this examination of USAID's attempts to build capacity in Afghanistan and Pakistan the book exposes how Western notions of progress constructed by institutions government officials scholars and private sector actors are obscured by the transformation of capacity As agendas are translated into projects they perpetuate historical relationships of global inequality that have corrupted and compete with indigenous models of governance The Transformation of Capacity in International Development has implications for those considering the future of human rights based approaches to development the international management of global security threats and the sustainability of donor investments Federal Register ,1999-05-13
