Teacher Commentary On Student Papers Conventions Beliefs And Practices:

Teacher Commentary on Student Papers Ode Ogede, 2002-09-30 Never before have parents teachers and other advocates for young people been more concerned about the declining quality of higher education One skill that many students lack when they arrive at college is the ability to write well The contributors to Teacher Commentary on Student Papers analyze some of the cultural social and moral changes that have altered the way in which education is given and received and they offer approaches that have assisted them as teachers both in evaluating the quality of student writing and guiding students to improve their writing Areas of expertise of the contributors include composition cultural studies English education literature writing and rhetoric The collection will appeal to both graduate and undergraduate students as well as to experienced and beginning teachers

Teacher Commentary on Student Papers Ode Ogede, Teaching Writing, Rhetoric, and Reason at the Globalizing University Robert Samuels, 2020-11-25 This timely intervention into composition studies presents a case for the need to teach all students a shared system of communication and logic based on the modern globalizing ideals of universality neutrality and empiricism Based on a series of close readings of contemporary writing by Stanley Fish Asao Inoue Doug Downs and Elizabeth Wardle Richard Rorty Slavoj Zizek and Steven Pinker this book critiques recent arguments that traditional approaches to teaching writing grammar and argumentation foster marginalization oppression and the restriction of student agency Instead it argues that the best way to educate and empower a diverse global student body is to promote a mode of academic discourse dedicated to the impartial judgment of empirical facts communicated in an open and clear manner It provides a critical analysis of core topics in composition studies including the teaching of grammar notions of objectivity and neutrality empiricism and pragmatism identity politics and postmodernism Aimed at graduate students and junior instructors in rhetoric and composition as well as more seasoned scholars and program administrators this polemical book provides an accessible staging of key debates that all writing instructors must grapple with
