On the Air John Dunning, 1998-05-07 Now long out of print John Dunning's Tune in Yesterday was the definitive one volume reference on old time radio broadcasting Now in On the Air Dunning has completely rethought this classic work reorganizing the material and doubling its coverage to provide a richer and more informative account of radio's golden age Here are some 1 500 radio shows presented in alphabetical order The great programs of the 30s 40s and 50s are all here Amos n Andy Fibber McGee and Molly The Lone Ranger Major Bowes Original Amateur Hour and The March of Time to name only a few For each Dunning provides a complete broadcast history with the timeslot the network and the name of the show's advertisers. He also lists major cast members, announcers, producers, directors, writers, and sound effects people, even the show's theme song. There are also umbrella entries such as News Broadcasts, which features an engaging essay on radio news with capsule biographies of major broadcasters such as Lowell Thomas and Edward R. Murrow. Equally important, Dunning provides a fascinating account of each program, taking us behind the scenes to capture the feel of the performance, such as the ghastly sounds of Lights Out, a horror drama where heads rolled and bones crunched, and providing engrossing biographies of the main people involved in the show. A wonderful read for everyone who loves old-time radio, On the Air is a must-purchase for all radio hobbyists and anyone interested in 20th-century American history. It is an essential reference work for libraries and radio stations. News as Entertainment Daya Kishan

Thussu, 2008-01-09 Thussu brings to this project the passion for news of a socially committed former journalist, the political economy of his international relations education, and a formidable assembly of global detail, examining the recent explosion of infotainment. John Downing, Southern Illinois University. Thussu's account of war as infotainment, the Bollywoodization of news, and the emergence of a global infotainment sphere is as compelling as it is alarming. This is a significant and essential book for anyone interested in exploring the connections between news, journalism, informed citizenship, and democracy. Bob Franklin, The Cardiff School of Journalism, Media, and Cultural Studies. Richly detailed and empirically grounded, this first book-length study of infotainment and its globalization by a leading scholar of global communication offers a comprehensive and critical analysis of this emerging phenomenon. Going beyond both geographically and theoretically, the dumbing-down discourse largely confined to the Anglo-American media, the book argues that infotainment may have an important ideological role: a diversion in which soft news masks the hard realities of neo-liberal imperialism. Chapters include a historical appraisal of infotainment, the infrastructure for its globalization, as well as coverage of recent wars on television, news as high-tech infotainment, and the growing synergies between Hollywood and Bollywood. Originated infotainment: A global infotainment sphere is emerging, the book argues, within which competing versions of news, from 24/7 news networks to bloggers, coexist. Accessible, engagingly written, and robustly argued, the book combines analyses of theoretical debates on infotainment with extensive and up-to-date comparative data.

Throws Me In The Air Ayn Dillard, 2017-11-07 It was time to heal. I had to stop creating a life that I could not live. It was time for the pain and suffering to stop. There was too much pain. I will die if the pain continues. Why does my life keep ending up in the same place? Abusive marriages, divorces, lawyers, legal suits, people in my life that had alcoholism, mental illness, and abusive behavior, all telling me that I am the problem. Why did I keep creating and recreating everything I did not want and vowed not to have in my life? In the process of the healing, soul searching, reading of books, discussing, studying, therapy.

seemingly insignificant scenes from my childhood kept entering my mind The scenes were overpowering me forcing me to look at and relive the feelings that I was having at the time I began writing down the stories and discovered very meaningful messages that I was given as a child messages that imprinted me and shaped my life s existence These scenes and the feelings they created caused me to experience a repetitive pattern It did not matter if the imprints were intended to create this pattern only that it was the pattern it created in me Until I was genuinely ready and able to look at my imprints and beliefs where they came from and release them the pattern would remain Negative imprints beliefs thinking and emotions cause a great deal of mental emotional and physical distress Negative thoughts and worry sink deep and can control your life There is power in how you perceive your past your relation to it and your world Awareness of how your past affects and guides will help stop the vicious cycle Daddy Throws Me In The Air is a journey through childhood memories to awareness It includes a process to assist in releasing negative imprints and beliefs Brazil Today John J.
