Resources in Education, 1994 Jewish Education and Learning Glenda Abramson, Tudor Parfitt, 2018-12-07 First published in 1994 This volume dedicated to Dr David Patterson founding President of the Oxford Centre for Postgraduate Hebrew Studies takes as its theme Jewish education and learning throughout the ages But it is the Academy interpreted here to mean an institution of Judaic scholarship which dominates this collection of essays For almost three thousand years centres of Jewish learning have flourished in many parts of the world This volume discusses these institutions from biblical times to the present From the time of the Mishnaic Academy at Yavneh established in the first century CE the academies were more than schools of higher religious education They incorporated rational analysis of the scriptures the natural sciences and other secular studies Some of the most celebrated academies such as those in Cairo and Tunisia and later in the Iberian Peninsula were of a very high intellectual order sometimes superior to the great Christian universities It was at these institutions that the great Jewish legal and literary works were written and completed This collection of essays has been written by outstanding scholars who have been associated with David Patterson and the Oxford Centre The essays explore the nature and function of the Jewish Academies in the broadest sense the leading personalities associated with them and their social cultural and moral effect on the Jewish communities of their day

Words and Stones Daniel Lefkowitz, 2004-07-22 Social and ethnic identity are nowhere more enmeshed with language than in Israel Words and Stones explores the politics of identity in Israel through an analysis of the social life of language By examining the social choices Israelis make when they speak and the social meanings such choices produce Daniel Lefkowitz reveals how Israeli identities are negotiated through language Lefkowitz studies three major languages and their role in the social lives of Israelis Hebrew the dominant language Arabic and English He reveals their complex interrelationship by showing how the language a speaker chooses to use is as important as the language they choose not to use in the same way that a claim to an Israeli identity is simultaneously a claim against other opposing identities The result is a compelling analysis of how the identity of Israeliness is linguistically negotiated in the three way struggle among Ashkenazi Jewish Mizrahi Jewish and Palestinian Arab Israelis Lefkowitz s ethnography of language use is both thoroughly anthropological and thoroughly linguistic and provides a comprehensive view of the role language plays in Israeli society His work will appeal to students and scholars of sociolinguistics anthropology and linguistic anthropology as well as students and scholars of Israel and the Middle East Academic Approaches to Teaching Jewish Studies Zev Garber,2000 Fourteen scholars and master teachers explore the challenges of teaching Jewish studies at American schools of higher education Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1894
