Developing Critical Language Pedagogies in Higher Education Adriana Raquel Díaz, 2013-09-17 Despite widespread agreement about the need to develop interculturally competent graduates there is a lack of agreement about how this goal may be achieved in practice This is significant as universities around the world particularly in English speaking countries have espoused an interculturally aware vision for their future graduates and turned to language education as an inherently intercultural activity to expose students to a world which is linguistically and culturally different from their own This book focuses on narrowing the gap between the often conflicting theoretical and practical imperatives faced by language teachers in an internationalised higher education context It does so by providing comprehensive conceptual discussions of emerging critical intercultural language pedagogies as well as empirical accounts and case studies from the frontline

Refining Current Practices in Mobile and Blended Learning: New Applications Parsons, David, 2012-01-31 This volume draws together all the articles published by the International Journal of Mobile and Blended Learning in its second year of publication 2010 As the use of mobile technology for personal and business applications continues to grow it naturally follows that educators and researchers will investigate the use of mobile devices for knowledge sharing and learning Refining Current Practices in Mobile and Blended Learning New Applications provides perspectives on new approaches to learning theory and practice in increasingly mobile immersive environments Situated at the intersection of theory and practice this book provides foundational research on the development and implementation of mobile games the delivery of mobile and blended learning and philosophical underpinnings of this emerging discipline

Teaching Interculturality 'Otherwise' Fred Dervin, Mei Yuan, Sude, 2022-12-14 This edited volume focuses on the thorny and somewhat controversial issue of teaching and learning interculturality in a way that considers the notion from critical and reflexive perspectives when introduced to students Comprised of three parts the book discusses the nuts and bolts of teaching interculturality considers changes in the teaching of interculturality and provides pedagogical insights into interculturalising the notion It studies both teaching explicitly about interculturality and how to incorporate interculturality into teaching practices or into an institution By sharing varied cases and theoretical reflections on the topic the editors and contributors from different parts of the world aim to stimulate more initiatives to enrich the field instead of delimiting it especially in complement to and beyond the West or Global North and also to build up further reflexivity in the way readers engage with interculturality in education This will be a must read for teachers and researchers of intercultural communication education at different educational levels as well as anyone interested in scholarship on education for interculturality Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons 4.0 license
