War of Independence led to a clampdown on the city and under rigorous British supervision industry began. The wars that Britain was fighting in South Africa, Russia and Afghanistan furthered the development of Kanpur into a hub of supply for the best military boots and other leather goods. Mills were set up and by 1900s Kanpur became synonymous with high quality products and top of the class mills. Both Indians and Europeans were responsible for this transformation of a tiny dot on the map of the Indian subcontinent into the world's best supply centre for leather, cotton, jute and other materials. In this rivetting account of the transformation of a hamlet into what became known as the Manchester of the East, Suraj Prasad Mehra describes the evolution of the city over two hundred years from the 1800s. He introduces us to events and incidents as well as individuals and governments that were responsible for making Kanpur what it eventually became and what it is today.

Planning & Development of an Industrial Town Surendra Nath Singh, 1990 Fundamentals of Cartography R. P. Misra, Rameshwar Prasad Misra, A. Ramesh, 1989 Gandhian Perspectives on Population and Development A. K. Sharma, 1996 Aspects of Changing India Govind Sadashiv Ghurye, 1976 Articles on anthropology and sociology in India festschrift honoring Govind Sadashiv Ghurye b 1893 sociologist Population Dynamics and Economic Development Binota Devi Meinam, 2007 Articles with reference to Manipur India Urbanisation, Citizenship and Conflict in India Tommaso Bobbio, 2015-06-19 Urbanisation is rapidly changing the geographic and social landscape of India and indeed Asia as a whole. Issues of collective violence, urban poverty and discrimination become crucial factors in the redefinition of citizenship not only in legal terms but also in a cultural and socio-economic dimension. While Indian cities are becoming the centres of a culture of exclusion against vulnerable social groups, a long-term perspective is essential to understand the patterns that shaped the space, politics, economy and culture of contemporary metropolises. This book takes a critical longer-term view of India's economic transition. The idea that urban growth goes hand in hand with the modernisation of the country does not account for the fact that increasingly higher portions of the urban population are comprised of lower income groups, casual labourers and slum dwellers. Using the case study of Ahmedabad, this book investigates the history of city and of its people over the twentieth century. It analyses the contrasting relationship between urban authorities and the inhabitants of Ahmedabad and examines instances of antagonism and negotiation amongst people groups and between the people and the public authority that have continuously shaped, transformed and redefined life in the city. This book offers an important tool for understanding the bigger context of the conflicts, the social and cultural issues that accompanied the broader process of urbanisation in contemporary India. It will be of interest to scholars of Urban History, studies of collective violence and South Asian Studies. Population Trends in the Brahmaputra Valley, 1881-1931 Homeswar Goswami, 1985 History of Anthropological Thought Vijay S. Upadhyay, Gaya Pandey, 1993 Anthropological Research Methodology Gaya Pandey, 2018-01-01 The book entitled Anthropological Research Methodology: Theory and Practice is an attempt to present different aspects of anthropological researches within one cover to extend help to students, scholars and researchers in understanding the whole issue of research methodology taught and employed in anthropology Anthropological Research Methodology has its own feature That is why its methodology is quite different from the methodology of other social sciences The ethnographic method or fieldwork method is soul of Anthropology This method helps a researcher to establish a balance between subjectivity and objectivity There are a number of books written in English by different scholars on different aspects of Anthropological researches But they are not found in one cover and they lack Indian expression The book presents systematically chapters on Historical Background of Anthropological Researches Anthropological Approaches Types of Researches Research Designs Hypothesis Theory Law and Concept Techniques of Data Collection Scrutiny and Data Processing Presentation of Data Statistics Statistical Analyses of Mean Median Mode Standard Deviation Partition Value Correlation Chi square Fitness of good Report writing Thesis dissertation writing Scientific paper writing and Bibliography writing The simple language of the book will definitely serve the purpose of students scholars researchers interested not only in Anthropological Researches but Researches in other Social Sciences
