Social Studies, Literacy, and Social Justice in the Elementary Classroom Ruchi Agarwal-Rangnath,2022 Elementary aged children are often positioned as not developmentally ready to learn about race racism and injustice Yet the classroom materials used in most schools misrepresent history withhold knowledge about racial injustice or fail to uplift stories of resilience and resistance For almost a decade this groundbreaking resource has been one of the most highly used textbooks in justice oriented social studies methods courses for grades 3-8. The author has thoroughly revised her bestseller to provide additional lessons that are more deeply situated within the current context of converging pandemics, COVID-19, racism, and impending environmental catastrophe. Grounded in the daily realities of public schools, Agarwal Rangnath shows teachers how to use primary and other sources that will offer students new ways of thinking about history while meeting language arts standards for information text proficiency and critical thinking. Educators will also learn how to teach language arts and social studies as complementary subjects. New for the Second Edition: More concrete connections between theory and practice; Additional lesson examples that are centered in today's context of converging pandemics; Reflection questions that challenge readers to think about ways to navigate curricular constraints and standardization in the classroom.

Critical Curriculum Studies
Wayne Au, 2012-03-22. A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2012. Critical Curriculum Studies offers a novel framework for thinking about how curriculum relates to students' understanding of the world around them. Wayne Au brings together curriculum theory, critical educational studies, and feminist standpoint theory with practical examples of teaching for social justice to argue for a transformative curriculum that challenges existing inequity in social, educational, and economic relations. Making use of the work of important scholars such as Freire, Vygotsky, Hartsock, Harding, and others, Critical Curriculum Studies argues that we must understand the relationship between the curriculum and the types of consciousness we carry out into the world.
