The Basics of

Social Research Earl R. Babbie, 2002 A concise affordable paperback research methods text from Earl Babbie who defined how to teach the research methods course with the publication of THE PRACTICE OF SOCIAL RESEARCH The streamlined Second Edition of THE BASICS OF SOCIAL RESEARCH emphasizes the fundamental concepts of both quantitative and qualitative research methods Inductive chapter openings pose social research problems that are addressed and resolved in each chapter through the application of key chapter concepts Each chapter contains detailed examples and new sections on how to interpret the results of data analysis The second edition features increased technology integration as well SPSS MicroCase HyperResearch and NVIVO statistical software examples are given throughout the text Web icons indicate where practice exercises and tutorials are available on the companion web site The text provides students with the necessary tools for understanding the basics of social research methods and for applying these concepts both inside and outside the classroom

Dying and Death in Canada Herbert C. Northcott, Donna M. Wilson (Ph. D.), 2001 Published Under the Garamond Imprint Dying and death reflect the material and social conditions of societies For example dying and death come frequently and early in life in a society where there is widespread poverty In contrast dying and death typically come late in life in a more developed society such as Canada at the beginning of the twenty first century How we live influences how and at what age we die similarly dying is both a personal experience and a social function given shape and meaning by social practices and cultural definitions The bereaved grieve and mourn in both personal and social terms and the meaning assigned to dying and death is both personally and socially constructed This book is written for students who wish to learn about dying and death for practitioners who work with the dying and the bereaved for the dying and the bereaved themselves and for the general public The first part explores the causes of dying and death in Canada both historically and at present The second part examines societal and cultural responses to dying and death and the third part discusses dying and death from the personal points of view of the dying and the bereaved The entire book has been thoroughly revised and updated integrating the most recent theory and literature on death and dying Herb Northcott is Professor of Sociology at the University of Alberta He is the author of Aging in Alberta Detselig 2005 Donna M Wilson is in the Faculty of Nursing at the University of Alberta She does extensive clinical work and research on the issue of end of life care
