Federal Register, 1943-05 The Border Rover Emerson Bennett, 1857 The Rhetoric of the Pulpit, Second Edition Jon Meyer Ericson, 2020-03-26 The Rhetoric of the Pulpit treats the sermon as the single most important factor in evangelism for a parish and also the most important factor in the spiritual growth of both the congregation and the pastor With emphasis on the Word as the foundation the author adds music and liturgy to the sermon's structure to build a unified worship experience Recognizing that the Word is truth but that the truth needs to be made to seem true the book offers sound practical advice on sermon preparation based on both classical and contemporary communication theory Sermon preparation is viewed as a process that begins with downloading the Word followed by productive meditation The process then moves through the rhetorical steps from a search for content to the sermon's delivery Throughout the book the rhetorical principles are treated as a subordinate element to the Word a means of giving effectiveness to the truth The Rhetoric of the Pulpit aims to reflect the spirit of Aristotle St Augustine St Paul and Kenneth Burke Studies in Malaysian Oral and Musical Traditions William Malm, Amin Sweeney, 1974-01-01 The first of two studies included is Music in Kelantan Malaysia and Some of Its Cultural Implications by William P Malm Kelantan is the northernmost province on the east coast of Malaysia It is considered to be the most orthodox area in a nation whose state religion is Islam At the same time it must be noted that it borders to the north with the Buddhist country of Thailand and to the west is the Malaysian province of Perak whose jungles and mountains contain many pagan tribal traditions Beyond Perak is Kedah with its larger Indian and Chinese populations and to the south is Trengganu where some Indonesian traits are still to be found It is in this context that Malm's study of music is made The second study is Professional Malay Story Telling Some Questions of Style and Presentation by Amin Sweeney In view of the hitherto almost exclusive concern with the content of such tales as those of Sang Kanchil or Pak Pandir Sweeney throws some light on the form style and presentation of oral Malay literature with special reference to that class of story telling popularly known as penglipur lara or what Winstedt termed folk romances
