Scottish Cinema Now Fidelma Farley, Jonathan Murray, Rod Stoneman, 2009-01-14 Cinema from Scotland has attained an unprecedented international profile in the decade or so since Shallow Grave 1995 and Trainspotting 1996 impinged on the consciousness of audiences and critics around the world Scottish Cinema Now is the first collection of essays to examine in depth the new films and filmmakers that have emerged from Scotland over the last ten years With contributions from both established names and new voices in British Cinema Studies the volume combines detailed textual analysis with discussion of industrial issues scholarship on new movies with historical investigation of unjustly forgotten figures and film from Scotland s cinematic past and a focus on international as well as indigenous images of Scottishness Responding to the ways in recent Scottish filmmaking has transformed the country s cinematic landscape Scottish Cinema Now reexamines established critical agendas and sets new ones for the study of Scotland s relationship with the moving image in the twenty first century

Trilogy Ann Bennett, Carol Dunstone, 2006-10-18 FEW operations are more daunting than surgery for mouth head and neck cancer It is long and complicated and leaves patients with many difficulties on the road to recovery Carol Dunstones surgeon told her You can face the wall or turn round and face the future She and her friend Ann Bennett opted for the latter and both survived triumphantly To help others along the way these two inspirational women have revealed how they did it They tackle difficult issues like feeding tubes learning to talk again dealing with scars and dry mouth and regaining their confidence The authors tell how medical experts set them on their journeys of recovery what made them laugh and cry and how family and friends raised their spirits They suggest where to find professional comfort and advice and list mainstream and complementary practitioners who can help you look and feel better Their sense of fun and joie de vivre comes out in their Recipes chapter with dozens of delicious dishes for those with eating difficulties Anyone facing an operation for mouth head and neck cancer or having to cope with a recovering relative will feel a lot more optimistic after reading Carol and Anns wise and witty words

100 British Documentaries Patrick Russell, 2019-07-25 Ever since John Grierson popularized the term documentary British non fiction film has been renowned sometimes reviled but seldom properly appreciated 100 British Documentaries provides a uniquely accessible occasionally provocative introduction to a rich and surprisingly varied tradition by considering 100 examples taken from across a century s worth of output The 100 films range from the Victorian period to the present day Alongside such classics as Night Mail and Touching the Void are documentaries that illustrate the many uses to which it has been put from pro gram filler to political propaganda to classroom teaching aid and the many styles and viewpoints it has embraced While the focus is on the documentary film several television productions are included indicating how the genre has developed on the small screen

Directory of World Cinema: Scotland Bob Nowlan, Zach Finch, 2015-05-29 Scotland its people and its history have long been a source of considerable fascination and inspiration for filmmakers film scholars and film audiences worldwide A significant number of critically acclaimed films made in the last twenty five years have ignited passionate conversations and debates about Scottish national cinema Its historical industrial and cultural complexities and contradictions have made it all the more a focus of attention and interest for both popular audiences and scholarly critics Directory of World Cinema Scotland provides an introduction to many of Scottish cinema s most important and influential themes and issues films and filmmakers while adding to the ongoing discussion concerning how to make sense of Scotland s cinematic traditions and contributions Chapters on filmmakers range from Murray Grigor to Ken Loach and Gaelic filmmaking radical and engaged cinema production finance and documentary are just a few of the topics explored Film reviews range from popular box office hits such as Braveheart and Trainspotting to lesser known but equally engaging independent and lower budget productions such as Shell and Orphans This book is both a stimulating and accessible resource for a wide range of readers interested in Scottish film

Movies on Home Ground Ian Craven, 2020-07-13 Movies on Home Ground Explorations in Amateur Cinema offers a critical response to the still under explored mode of amateur cinema as a particular sphere of British film practice Concentrating upon a roughly fifty year period 1930 1980 during which such filmmaking grew rapidly as a significant leisure activity in Britain the volume shows how popular cine assumed distinctive institutional and ideological forms and some remarkable aesthetic emphases grounded in consistent technical and critical apparatuses Although an outline history of such filmmaking is certainly implicit the priority of Movies On Home Ground is to offer a series of overlapping perspectives on amateur movie making with a view to locating such filmmaking as a component of the broader shape of British film culture Emphasis is thus given to institutional contexts technical determinants and the social formations of practising filmmakers as well as to concerns with the construction of amateur outlooks understandings of amateur aesthetics and the remarkable diversity of amateur genericity The anthology thus supplies a text offering support to study courses dealing with the many varieties of non professional participation best understood as truly amateur rather than as independent or alternative filmmaking By granting the amateur a place within the acknowledged range of significant interventions the recognised canon of British filmmaking is widened in fascinating new directions

Land Cinema in an Age of Extraction Becca Voelcker, 2025-12-16 Land Cinema in an Age of Extraction considers nonfiction filmmakers and film collectives whose work advances an understanding of land as a locus of social and environmental responsibility Diving into little known archives to explore films that resonate across geographies Becca Voelcker unearths key examples of eco political counterculture from farmer filmmakers in Japan and Mali to a gardener filmmaker in Massachusetts and from filmed landscape portraits of women in Los Angeles Orkney and the Navajo Nation to Indigenous documentaries about land dispossession in Colombia Proposing land cinema as an urgent genre for our time this book reveals how images and ideas produced half a century ago sowed the seeds for climate justice movements today
