 Hockenhull, 2009-03-26 Neo Romantic Landscapes offers a reappraisal of the 1940s films of Powell and Pressburger focusing on their use of landscape Questioning the established notion that the two film makers owing to their non British personal roots are located as un British and other Stella Hockenhull draws a correlation between the two media of film and painting to suggest otherwise Emphasising the spiritual aspects of landscape and nature at a time when the experience and imagery of the war years generated a particular kind of affect arising from the aftermath of destruction she locates Powell and Pressburger s wartime films in their historical and cultural context notably Neo Romanticism By offering a close analysis of films such as A Canterbury Tale I Know Where I m Going Black Narcissus and Gone to Earth she finds similar aesthetic qualities in a number of British landscape paintings executed contemporaneously Drawing on press reviews for contemporary spectator response Neo Romantic Landscapes offers a redirection of Film Studies foregrounding the aesthetic pleasures of cinema in excess of narrative plausibility thus resituating Powell and Pressburger in the British cultural traditions of the visual arts     The Tragic and the Ecstatic Chafe,2008-08-12 During the years preceding the composition of Tristan and Isolde Wagner s aesthetics underwent a momentous turnaround principally as a result of his discovery of Schopenhauer Many of Schopenhauer s ideas especially those regarding music s metaphysical significance resonated with patterns of thought that had long been central to Wagner s aesthetics and Wagner described the entry of Schopenhauer into his life as a gift from heaven Chafe argues that Wagner s Tristan and Isolde is a musical and dramatic exposition of metaphysical ideas inspired by Schopenhauer The first part of the book covers the philosophical and literary underpinnings of the story exploring Schopenhauer s metaphysics and Gottfried van Strassburg s Tristan poem Chafe then turns to the events in the opera providing tonal and harmonic analyses that reinforce his interpretation of the drama Chafe acts as an expert guide interpreting and illustrating most important moments for his reader Ultimately Chafe creates a critical account of Tristan in which the drama is shown to develop through the music     The Writings and Speeches of Edmund Burke Edmund Burke,1997
