Subversive Intent Gender Politics And The Avant Garde:

Subversive Intent Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1990 With this important new book Susan Suleiman lays the foundation for a postmodern feminist poetics and theory of the avant garde She shows how the figure of Woman as fantasy myth or metaphor has functioned in the work of male avant garde writers and artists of this century Focusing also on women s avant garde artistic practices Suleiman demonstrates how to read difficult modern works in a way that reveals their political as well as their aesthetic impact Suleiman directly addresses the subversive intent of avant garde movements from Surrealism to postmodernism Through her detailed readings of provocatively transgressive works by Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp Max Ernst and others Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male erotic imagination and illuminates the extent to which masculinist assumptions have influenced modern art and theory By examining the work of contemporary women avantgarde artists and theorists including H l ne Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Luce Irigaray Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer and Cindy Sherman Suleiman shows the political power of feminist critiques of patriarchal ideology and especially emphasizes the power of feminist humor and parody Central to Suleiman s revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman s laughing mother embodies the need for a link between symbolic innovation and political and social change

Subversive Intent: Gender, Politics, and the Avant-Garde Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2012-11-22 In this important book noted Harvard scholar Susan Suleiman explores the politics as well as the aesthetics of modern and postmodern writing and art from Dada and Surrealism to the present Through her detailed readings of works by avant garde writers and artists like Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp and Max Ernst Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male artistic imagination and the extent to which masculinist assumptions have shaped modern art and theory She asks What place do women artists and writers have in the avant garde Suleiman discusses works by H l ne Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer Cindy Sherman and others showing how feminist avant garde art provides a powerful often humorous or parodic critique of patriarchal ideologies Central to Suleiman s revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman s laughing mother embodies one possible link between symbolic innovation and political and social change

Blood Cinema Marsha Kinder, 1993-12-06 In this innovative synthesis of film history and cultural analysis Marsha Kinder examines the films of such key directors as Bu uel Saura Erice and Almod var as well as works from the popular cinema and television exploring how they manifest political and cultural tensions related to the production of Spanish national identity within a changing global context Concentrated on the decades from the 1950s to the 1990s Kinder's work is broadly historical but essentially conceptual moving backward and forward in time drawing examples from earlier films and from works of art and literature and providing close readings of a wide range of texts Her questioning and internationalizing of the national cinema concept and her application of contemporary critical theory especially insights from feminism Marxism psychoanalysis cultural studies and discourse theory distinguish Blood Cinema from previous film histories The author also makes use of a variety of sources within Spain such as the commentaries on Spanish character and culture by Unamuno and others the contemporary debate over the restructuring of Spanish television Kinder's book moves Spanish cinema into the mainstream of film studies by demonstrating that a knowledge of its history alters and enriches our understanding of world cinema The interactive CD ROM is available from CINE DISCS 2021 Holly Hill Terrace Los Angeles CA 90068 213 876 7678

The Gender of Modernity Rita FELSKE, 2009-06-30 In an innovative and invigorating exploration of the complex relations between women and the modern Rita Felski challenges conventional male centered theories of modernity She also calls into question those feminist perspectives that have either demonized the modern as inherently patriarchal or else assumed a simple opposition between men's and women's experiences of the modern world Combining cultural history with cultural theory and focusing on the fin de siècle Felski examines the gendered meanings of such notions as nostalgia consumption feminine writing the popular sublime evolution revolution and perversion Her approach is comparative and interdisciplinary covering a wide variety of texts from the English French and German traditions sociological theory realist and naturalist novels decadent literature political essays and speeches sexological discourse and sentimental popular fiction Male and female writers from Simmel Zola Sacher Masoch and Rachilde to Marie Corelli Wilde and Olive Schreiner come under Felski's scrutiny as she exposes the varied and often contradictory connections between femininity and modernity Seen through the lens of Felski's discerning eye the last fin de siècle provides illuminating parallels with our own And Felski's keen analysis of the matrix of modernism offers needed insight into the sense of cultural crisis brought on by postmodernism Femmes / Frauen / Women, 2020-12-07

Being Contemporary: French Literature, Culture and Politics Today Lia Brozgal, Sara Kippur, 2016-01-26 A collection of 23 riveting essays on aspects of contemporary French culture by the superstars of the field Surrealism, Occultism and Politics Tessel M. Bauduin, Victoria Ferentinou, Daniel Zamani, 2017-10-16

This volume examines the relationship between occultism and Surrealism specifically exploring the reception and appropriation of occult thought motifs tropes and techniques by Surrealist artists and writers in Europe and the Americas from the 1920s through the 1960s Its central focus is the specific use of occultism as a site of political and social resistance ideological contestation subversion and revolution Additional focus is placed on the ways occultism was implicated in Surrealist discourses on identity gender sexuality utopianism and radicalism Interventions

Bishnupriya Ghosh, Brinda Bose, 2019-08-15 The editors are committed to destroying perceptions and stereotypes of third world women as passive victims who need to be liberated by Western feminists The essays address cases in which women have challenged and resisted the political formations nationalist struggles revolutions religious fundamentalist practices and authoritarian regimes that shape their daily lives Each critic presents a close reading of the circumstances under which the feminist writers and film makers

The Art of the Project Johnnie Gratton, Michael Sheringham, 2005-10-01 The idea of the project crosses generic disciplinary and cultural frontiers At a time when writers and artists are increasingly describing their practices as projects remarkably little critical attention has been paid to the actual idea of the project This collection of essays responds to an urgent need by suggesting a framework for evaluating the notion of the project in the light of various modernist and postmodernist cultural practices drawn mainly but not exclusively from the French speaking domain The overview offered by this volume promises to make an original and thought provoking contribution to contemporary literary artistic and cultural criticism

Feminism and Tradition in Aesthetics Peggy Zeglin Brand, Carolyn Korsmeyer, 2010-11-01

Living Up to the Ads Simone Weil Davis, 2000 Explores interactions between novels and advertising in the construction of subjectivity in the early part of the twentieth century

Crash Karen Redrobe, 2010-08-03 Argues that representations of the car crash in film genres from slapstick comedies to industrial safety movies parallels the collision of film and other media

Susan Sontag Leland Poague, Kathy A. Parsons, 2021-12-12 Susan Sontag An Annotated Bibliography catalogues the works of one of America's most prolific and important 20th century authors Known for her philosophical writings on American culture topics left untouched by Sontag's writings are few and far between This volume is an exhaustive collection that includes her novels essays reviews films and interviews Each entry is accompanied by an annotated bibliography

The Explicit Body in Performance Rebecca Schneider, 2013-06-17 The Explicit Body in Performance interrogates the avant garde precedents and theoretical terrain that combined to produce feminist performance art Among the many artists discussed are Carolee Schneemann Annie Sprinkle Karen Finley Robbie McCauley Ana Mendieta Ann Magnuson Sandra Bernhard Spiderwoman Rebecca Schneider tackles topics ranging across the post porn modernist movement New Right censorship commodity fetishism perspectival vision and primitivism Employing diverse critical theories from Benjamin to Lacan to postcolonial and queer theory Schneider analyses artistic and pop cultural depictions of the explicit body in late commodity capitalism The Explicit Body in Performance is complemented by extensive photographic illustrations and artistic productions of postmodern feminist practitioners The book is a fascinating exploration of how these artists have wrestled with the representational structures of desire

Teaching Modernist Poetry N. Marsh, P. Middleton, 2010-01-27 This book recognizes that modernist poetry can be both difficult and rewarding to teach Leading scholars and poets from the UK and the US offer practical innovative up to date strategies for teaching the reading and writing of modernist poetry across its long diverse histories taking in experimentation performance hypertext and much more

Women in Europe between the Wars Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-30 The central aim of this interdisciplinary book is to make visible the intentionality behind the forgetting of European women's contributions during the period between the two world wars in the context of politics culture and society It also seeks to record and analyse women s agency in the construction and reconstruction of Europe and its nation states after the First World War and thus to articulate ways in which the writing of women s history necessarily entails the rewriting of everyone s history By showing that the erasure of women s texts from literary and cultural history was not accidental but was ideologically motivated the essays explicitly and implicitly contribute to debates surrounding canon formation Other important topics are women s political activism during the period antifascism the contributions made by female journalists the politics of literary production genre women s relationship with and contributions to the avant garde women s professional lives and women s involvement in voluntary associations In bringing together the work of scholars whose fields of expertise are diverse but whose interests converge on the inter war period the volume invites readers to make connections and comparisons across the whole spectrum of women s political social and cultural activities throughout Europe

The Mother and Narrative Politics in Modern China Sally Taylor Lieberman,1998 A modernist icon an object of forbidden desire a symbol of loss and suffering and an incorrigible survivor the mother takes all of these forms in Chinese literature from the 1920s and 1930s In an innovative analysis Sally Taylor Lieberman explores the meanings the maternal figure acquired at a particular place and time and then engages those meanings in a feminist rereading of the master narratives of modern Chinese intellectual and literary history Drawing on feminist literary criticism and the theories of Julia Kristeva Melanie Klein and Sigmund Freud Lieberman breaks traditional analytical boundaries as she explores the place of the mother in the ideological struggles through which the modern Chinese canon attained its present shape

Design Studies Audrey Bennett,2006-08-31 In an age of globalization and connectivity the idea of mainstream culture has become quaint Websites magazines books and television have all honed in on ever diversifying subcultures hoping to carve out niche audiences that grow savvier and more narrowly sliced by the day Consequently the discipline of graphic design has undergone a sea change Where visual communication was once informed by a designer s creative intuition the proliferation of specialized audiences now calls for more research based design processes Designers who ignore research run the risk of becoming mere tools for communication rather than bold voices Design Studies a collection of 27 essays from an international cast of top design researchers sets out to mend this schism between research and practice The texts presented here make a strong argument for performing rigorous experimentation and analysis Each author outlines methods in which research has aided their designwhether by investigating how senior citizens react to design aesthetics how hip hop culture can influence design or how design for Third World nations is affected by cultural differences Contributors also outline inspired ways in which design educators can teach research methods to their students Finally Design Studies is rounded out by five annotated bibliographies to further aid designers in their research This comprehensive reader is the definitive reference for this new direction in graphic design and an essential resource for both students and practitioners

presents a history of artists who incorporated literary references into their work from the 1960s onwards Through a series of object focused chapters that each take up a singular case of citation the collection considers how literary citation emerged as a viable and urgent strategy for artists during this period It surveys nine artworks by a diverse group of artists including David Wojnarowicz Lis Rhodes Romare Bearden and Silvia Kolbowski whose citations draw on literary works with authors ranging from Gertrude Stein to Jean Genet The book also features an interview with pioneering feminist artist Elaine Reichek that discusses her career long commitment to working with text Together the artworks and cited texts are approached from various critical angles with each author questioning and complicating the ways in which we can read textual citations in art

New York Nouveau Sara Kippur, 2025-08-12 Postwar French writers were at the vanguard of global literary innovation from the experimental minimalism of the Nouveau Roman to the literary games of the OuLiPo but less often appreciated is the extent to which they worked closely with US editors and translators published actively with American presses and often theorized transatlantic connections within their work In this exciting new work Sara Kippur proposes a new French literary history that traces the deep connections between postwar literary experimentalism and the New York publishing industry compellingly arguing that US based editors publishers producers professors and translators crucially intervened to shape French literature While Kippur attends closely to well known writers such as Marguerite Duras Samuel Beckett Eugène Ionesco Georges Perec and Alain Robbe-Grillet she also amplifies the voices of those who have been less visible though no less relevant including women whose contributions have not received proper credit but who helped to foster a sense of new possibilities for twentieth century French writing With these untold histories stitched together in this book through new archival discoveries from special collections and personal archives on both sides of the Atlantic Kippur begins to dismantle rigid notions of canonicity authorship and national literature web the motion of any particle in a circular path refers to circular motion a body is said to be in circular motion if it moves in a manner that the distance from a particular fixed point always remains same in this topic we will learn about the dynamics of circular motion with its application table of content 1 suggested videos 2 circular motion

notes on uniform circular motion unacademy - Jun 01 2022

web uniform circular motion is the motion of a body traveling at a constant speed along a circular path the speed remains constant but the velocity varies if a particle is traveling in a circle it must be experiencing some acceleration towards the center causing it to rotate around the center

6 2 uniform circular motion physics openstax - Mar 10 2023

web the simplest case of circular motion is uniform circular motion where an object travels a circular path at a constant speed note that unlike speed the linear velocity of an object in circular motion is constantly changing because it is always changing direction
