Numbers and Sense Alexandra Salas, 2021-04-01 This book highlights the exigency of student success and how higher education institutions are addressing this call On the heels of the COVID 19 global pandemic institutions have been challenged further to manage student satisfaction issues enrollment and financial insecurities equity inclusion and access As starting point to these ongoing priorities this book aims to raise awareness questions and suggestions based on examples of courageous leadership that support retention and completion agendas but more so visionary and actionable approaches to ensure student success The book addresses the various tensions among education stakeholders the impressions of change the expanded realities of competition the casualties of silos the value of examining and understanding data in advancing options and the merits of collaboration and opportunity thinking Cases and interviews with thought leaders who candidly share experiences and realizations about ensuring student success provide insight about what else can be done to move the needle forward

Brighter Beginnings for Teachers Patty Pullen, 2004 In Brighter Beginnings for Teachers Patty Pullen identifies the issues that send teachers screaming from the profession including the primary problem of behavior management The U S Department of Education reports that between 30 to 50 percent of teachers quit the profession within the first five years and that lack of preparation in classroom management is the primary cause for this flight In this proactive book Pullen addresses the essential elements that compose good behavior management which includes Finding a good match for teacher and school Determining who the tough kids are and how to plan for them Collaborating with parents even difficult parents Formulating a behavior management program before the students arrive Written in question and answer format this book will be valuable to special education teachers and regular education teachers kindergarten through high school It can also be used as a supplementary text in teacher education programs and for induction programs in school systems

Giles, 1990-01-01 The history of women's spirituality and Christian mysticism demonstrates that women have been influential religious leaders even without benefit of priestly ordination and theological training St Catherine of Siena and St Teresa of Avila are examples of women with visionary gifts of tremendous power A less well known Spanish visionary is Sor Mar a of Santo Domingo a Dominican tertiary of peasant lineage who became so famous for her raptures austerities and prophecies that the king a cardinal and nobles considered her a living saint In 1948 research in the archives of the University of Zaragoza uncovered The Book of Prayer of Sor Mar a of Santo Domingo originally published around 1518 which had gone unnoticed for centuries The text includes some of Sor Mar a s ecstatic utterances and representations and is a first hand look at a women who in many ways is as representative of the early years of sixteenth century Spain as St Teresa was of the later years Giles book provides the first English translation of this text as well as a study of Sor Mar a and the issues that pushed her into the limelight The Scrap Book ,1907 Guide to Science Teaching in Secondary Schools Archie L.
