Bibliography ,1994 How Local Art Made Australia's National Capital Anni Doyle Wawrzyńczak,2020-08-31

Canberra s dual status as national capital and local city dramatically affected the rise of a unique contemporary arts scene This complex story informed by rich archival material and interviews details the triumph of local arts practice and community over the insistent cultural nation building of Australia s capital It exposes local arts as a vital force in Canberra s development and uncovers the influence of women in the growth of its visual arts culture A broad illumination of the city wide development of arts and culture from the 1920s to 2001 is combined with the story of Bitumen River Gallery and its successor Canberra Contemporary Art Space from 1978 to 2001 This history traces the growth of the arts from a community led endeavour through a period of responses to social and cultural needs and ultimately to a humanising local practice that transcended national and international boundaries Strategic Management A. Naga, In today s world change is the only constant factor In the last few decades there has been a radical change in how organizations function To survive in this highly volatile environment companies need a long term strategic vision and thinking In light of this strategic management has become a significant topic and is taught as the core subject in MBA PGDM programmes in Indian universities and business schools This is a book written in the context of the Indian business environment but with a global orientation It is comprehensive and contemporary in its approach Congressional Record United States.
