The Routledge Handbook of Field Work Education in Social Work Rajendra Baikady, Sajid S. M., Varoshini Nadesan, M. Rezaul Islam, 2022-04-28 This Handbook provides an authoritative account of international fieldwork education in social work. It presents an overview of advances in research in social work field education through in-depth analyses and global case studies. Key features: Discusses critical issues in teaching social work and curriculum development; health care social work; stimulated learning; field education policies; needs, challenges and solutions in fieldwork education; reflexivity training; creativity and partnership; resilience enhancement; integrated and holistic education for social workers; student experience; practice education and ethical responsibility of social work field instructors. Covers social work field education across geographical regions: Asia and the Pacific, North and South America, Australia and Oceania, Europe and major themes and trends from several countries: U S A, Canada, Australia, China, Hong Kong, Sweden, Aotearoa, New Zealand, England, Ukraine, Spain, Estonia, Italy, Ireland, Slovenia, Poland, Romania, Greece, Norway, Turkey and the Czech Republic. Brings together international comparative perspectives on fieldwork education in social work from leading experts and social work educators. This Handbook will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers of social work development studies, social anthropology, sociology and education. It will also be useful to educators and practitioners of social work in global institutions of higher studies as well as civil society organisations.

Contemporary Field Social Work Mark Doel, Steven M Shardlow, Steven Shardlow, Paul G. Johnson, 2010-06-29 This text bridges the gap by offering learning activities that can be worked in both settings. The book is divided into four main parts that account for the major areas of social work practice. Part I covers the foundations of practice including self-awareness and knowing and learning about the community within one will practice. The second part deals with direct practice and covers individual assessment and group work. The third part focuses on agency practice and finally the last part covers special issues for consideration including multicultural practice, law-informed practice, ethics, specialist and comparative practice.
