Faith and Humility Jonathan L. Kvanvig,2018

This book is devoted to articulating the connections between the nature and value of faith and humility The goal is to understand faith and humility in a way that does not discriminate between religious and mundane contexts between sacred and secular It arises from a conviction that these two character traits are important to a flourishing life and intimately related to each other in such a way that the presence of one demands the presence of the other In particular the book defends the claim that each of these virtues provides a necessary compensating balance to the potential downside of the other virtue The result of such an inquiry if that inquiry is successful will require a re orienting of discussions surrounding faith including debates about the relationship between faith and reason

Mandaraka-Sheppard,2014-02-04 Modern Maritime Law and Risk Management provides comprehensive coverage of contemporary international admiralty and maritime law in an easily accessible style It brings together substantive law jurisdictional issues and international aspects of maritime liabilities and compensation with a practical discussion of modern risk management The book is an essential guide for marine lawyers worldwide students shipowners ship managers salvors shipbrokers mortgagees P Substantive Law International Conventions and Safety at Sea Faith as Life in the Spirit Aaron Gabriel Ross,2025-06-26 This incisive work shows that faith does not need to be understood as what one believes does or feels when faith is understood as being in Christ by being in the Spirit The way in which Christians and Christian theology at least in Western traditions including the family of Pentecostals and renewal movements engages with the idea of faith has a problem faith is often defined as what people must do whether that is to believe in a list of doctrines to do good works or to love properly in order for God to respond with forgiveness and salvation However this work takes a new approach with a pneumatological trajectory in constructing a theology of faith understood as life in the Spirit overcoming a stalemated discussion on faith as belief versus works As such faith is being in Christ by being in the Spirit is the theological recognition that faith is first relationality to the Spirit by which a person is invited into life with Christ and the triune God Faith is not what one does beliefs works affections but rather what one is in relationality with the Spirit Beliefs works and affections are best understood as those things that are the outward expressions of the relationality rather than that which brings one into relationality with God
