Suffolk Villages:

Suffolk Villages Allan Jobson, 1971 Lancashire Bill Meadows, Mark Mitchels, Ron Freethy, 1999 Villages of Britain Clive Aslet, 2011-08-15 Britain's villages are world famous for their loveliness and idiosyncratic charm. Each village is different. Travel across the country and you will unearth a joyous variety from straggly Leintwardine in Herefordshire to BBC film perfect Askrigg in Yorkshire to higgledy piggledy tourist hub Polperro in Cornwall to Miserden in Gloucestershire with its staggeringly beautiful gardens to Pittenweemin Fife still eking a living from fishing to the warring villages of Donhead St Mary and Donhead St Andrew in Wiltshire. History and architecture account for some differences; the memorials in churches, the details of door frames and chimney stacks, but there are also differences of spirit and in how life is lived there today. What are the thriving local businesses? What are they selling in the shops or are there shops at all? What are the traditions, old or invented? Who are the people who make these communities work? In this captivating volume Clive Aslet draws on thirty years of travel in the countryside working for Britain's Country Life magazine to give us a living, personal and opinionated history of five hundred of Britain's most beautiful and vibrant villages. Meticulously researched and drawing from conversations with local residents, publicans and vicars, this book is both an indispensable gazetteer for anyone planning to tour the countryside and a portrait of rural Britain in a time of change.

Suffolk Villages Harold Mills West, 2002 The roots of Suffolk lie in her villages. They have adapted well to the needs of modern generations yet still keep their timeless character and charm, a source of pride and delight to villagers alike. This volume contains descriptions of just over one hundred villages, recording the history, architecture, atmosphere, anecdotes, people and events which have shaped each village and made them unique. Complementing the text are fifty full colour photographs taken by local photographer Mark Mitchels. They show Suffolk at its best in all seasons and demonstrate the appeal of its villages and countryside in the 21st century.

Bureau of Statistics, 1919 Sheringtons Geoffrey Edgar Sherington, Bruce Banfield Sherington, 2014-04-09 Sherington is the history of a family over five centuries set against contexts of place and enterprise. For the first three hundred years the Sherington family were yeomen farmers at Westleton on the coast of Suffolk. During the nineteenth century members of the family moved to South London. The family was re-shaped through urban living and separated through divorce and ultimately emigration overseas. Some went west to the Americas only to meet disappointment and violent deaths. Others went to Australia where they helped to found Ford Sherington, the manufacturer of the well-known Globite suitcase.
