Suffrage To Sufferance A Hundred Years Of Women In Politics:

One Hundred Years of Women's Suffrage in Australia, 2004      Suffrage to Sufferance Janine Haines, 1992 It is almost 100 years since women were given the right to vote in New Zealand and unintentionally the right to sit in parliament in South Australia This book covers all this period to the present highlighting the bravery and determination of women who fought for their rights      Social Difference and Constitutionalism in Pan-Asia Susan H. Williams, 2014-02-10 In many countries social differences such as religion or race and ethnicity threaten the stability of the social and legal order This book addresses the role of constitutions and constitutionalism in dealing with the challenge of difference The book brings together lawyers political scientists historians religious studies scholars and area studies experts to consider how constitutions address issues of difference across Pan Asia a wide swath of the world that runs from the Middle East through Asia and into Oceania The book's multidisciplinary and comparative approach makes it unique The book is organized into five sections each devoted to constitutional approaches to a particular type of difference religion ethnicity race urban rural divisions language and gender and sexual orientation in two or more countries in Pan Asia The introduction offers a framework for thinking comprehensively about the many ways constitutionalism interacts with difference      The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2014-02-27 This volume introduces key concepts for a trans national expansion in the study of culture Using translation as an analytical category it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation specific approaches such as British American cultural studies German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture By testing various key concepts translation cultural transfer travelling concepts this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society      Passions of the First Wave Feminists Susan Magarey, 2001 This work offers a new view of suffrage era feminism in Australia located in rich cultural social and political context which also presents a new view of the decades around federation      Suffrage and Beyond Caroline Daley, Melanie Nolan, 1994-12 Bringing together such eminent scholars as Nancy Cott Ellen Dubois and Carole Pateman this book offers a comprehensive look at the political history of suffrage on a global scale      The Rise and Fall of the Australian Democrats Bev Floyd, 2014-11-20 This book is the account of a Democrat insider one who was both a woman and a Queensland President Its focus on Queensland makes very interesting reading for those of us who shared the experiences      Trailblazers Carolyn Collins, Roy Eccleston, 2019-12-11 Australia's first female prime minister The country's first female judge The first woman to win the Archibald Prize for portraiture Australia's first female chief diplomat The nation's first female winemaker These women were all trailblazers but they have something else in common every one of them was South Australian And they are just a handful of the 100 remarkable women whose stories are told in this beautiful book illustrated with hundreds of photographs Written by historian Carolyn Collins and journalist Roy Eccleston Trailblazers shines a light on the lives of these extraordinary women whose feats inspired their state nation and often enough the world Now they can inspire a whole new generation

Australian Women's Justice Deborah Jordan, 2023-12-18 This book explores how women spearheaded the democratic suffrage campaign in colonial Queensland engaging with international debates on women's activism leadership advocacy print culture and social movements Australian Women's Justice provides a nuanced reading of the diversity and differences of the women's movement in Queensland from the time of first white colonisation federation to World War 1 by new research on key women's organisations notably the Women's Equal Franchise Association and the Women's Peace Army Framed through the lives of women suffrage participants including their encounters with First Nations women it also looks beyond microhistory to explore broader themes of the intersection of race gender property war and empire in the colonial context Campaigns for enfranchisement and property rights and against conscription connect this story with larger international movements for women and labour and organisations such as the League of Nations This book will be of interest to students and researchers of Australian feminism and suffragism as well as historians of feminist labour and peace movements both in Australia and internationally

Women in Parliamentary Life, 1970-1990 Marilyn Waring, 1994 This is a transcript of Marilyn Waring's Hocken Lecture of 1993 Ms Waring draws extensively on her own 9 year experience of parliament in highlighting the peculiar difficulties women MP's face in what is still very much a male bastion She speaks of the brutalising impact of political life and the acute loneliness she felt whilst in parliament The experiences of other women MP's both past and present are used to illustrate some of the general problems faced by women in House Short biographies of the thirteen women who preceded Ms Waring to Parliament are presented in the appendix

Australian Citizenship Brian Galligan, Winsome Roberts, 2004 Australians have much to celebrate in the hundred years of their citizenship but also a good deal to be ashamed of The authors argue that good citizenship depends on moral citizens able to discern between what is worthy of respect and pride and what is shameful in national life Galligan and Roberts from Uni of Melbourne

Australia for Women Susan Hawthorne, Renate Klein, 1994 Australia is a land full of opportunities but where can you go to find the things that matter to women This book is a guide to the land as well as the diverse culture of women Women's culture in Australia goes back more than 40 000 years and is a rich mosaic of story art and music On the top of this has come the culture of the past 200 years from the British convicts from China from the Pacific from the newer waves of migration and from the women's movement This is reflected in literature theatre the visual arts music circuses and dance Rural and urban women describe the places they know and love they also describe their histories and show something of what lies behind a first impression Contributors featured include Oodgeroo Noonuccal Faith Bandler Portia Robinson Elizabeth Jolley Sara Dowse Janine Haines Dale Spender Ruby Langford Ginibi Kate Llewellyn and Finola Moorhead
