Holocaust Consciousness in Contemporary Britain Andy Pearce, 2014-06-05 The Holocaust is a pervasive presence in British culture and society Schools have been legally required to deliver Holocaust education the government helps to fund student visits to Auschwitz the Imperial War Museum's permanent Holocaust Exhibition has attracted millions of visitors and Britain has an annually commemorated Holocaust Memorial Day What has prompted this development how has it unfolded and why has it happened now How does it relate to Britain's post war history its contemporary concerns and the wider globalisation of Holocaust memory What are the multiple shapes that British Holocaust consciousness assumes and the consequences of their rapid emergence Why have the so called lessons of the Holocaust enjoyed such popularity in Britain Through analysis of changing engagements with the Holocaust in political cultural and memorial landscapes over the past generation this book addresses these questions demonstrating the complexities of Holocaust consciousness and reflecting on the contrasting ways that history is used in Britain today

The Right to Memory Noam Tirosh, Anna Reading, 2023-02-10 The field of memory studies has typically focused on everyday memory and commemoration practices through which we construct meaning and identities The Right to Memory looks beyond these everyday practices focusing instead on how memory relates to human rights and socio legal constructs in order to legitimize and protect groups and individuals With case studies including Polish Holocaust Law the Indian origins of Amartya Sen's capability theory approach and the right to memory through digital technologies in Brazilian and British museums this collected volume seeks to establish the right to memory as a foundational topic in memory studies Women in European Holocaust Films Ingrid Lewis, 2018-01-19 This book considers how women's experiences have been treated in films dealing with Nazi persecution Focusing on fiction films made in Europe between 1945 and the present this study explores dominant discourses on and cinematic representation of women as perpetrators victims and resisters Ingrid Lewis contends that European Holocaust Cinema underwent a rich and complex trajectory of change with regard to the representation of women This change both reflects and responds to key socio cultural developments in the intervening decades as well as to new directions in cinema historical research and politics of remembrance The book will appeal to international scholars students and educators within the fields of Holocaust Studies Film Studies European Cinema and Women's Studies 2003 Susan Sarah Cohen, 2012-02-14 This work includes international secondary literature on anti-Semitism published throughout the world from the earliest times to the present It lists books dissertations and articles from periodicals and collections from a diverse range of disciplines Written accounts are included among the recorded titles as are manifestations of anti-Semitism in the visual arts e.g. painting caricatures or film action taken against Jews and Judaism by discriminating judiciaries pogroms massacres and the systematic extermination during the Nazi period The bibliography also covers works dealing with philo-Semitism or Jewish reactions to anti-Semitism and Jewish self-hate An informative abstract in English is provided for each entry and Hebrew titles are provided with English translations Holocaust Mothers and Daughters Federica K. Clementi, 2013-12-03 In this brave and original work Federica Clementi focuses on the mother-daughter bond as depicted in six works by women who experienced the Holocaust sometimes with their mothers sometimes not The daughters' memoirs which record the all too human qualities of those who were persecuted and murdered by the Nazis show that the Holocaust cannot be used to neatly segregate lives into the categories of before and after Clementi's discussions of differences in social status along with the persistence of antisemitism and patriarchal structures support this point strongly demonstrating the tenacity of trauma individual familial and collective among Jews in twentieth-century Europe

Solidarity, Memory and Identity Maria Virginia Filomena Cremasco, Wojciech Owczarski, 2015-01-12 In today's context of rapid socio-political changes with deepening ethnic and religious conflicts on the one hand and a diminishing feeling of identification with the community on the other reflection on the idea of solidarity is very much necessary This book provides answers to the following questions What is the idea of solidarity today How can it be defined How has it evolved over recent decades How does it manifest itself in social life How is it reflected in the arts and above all How does it relate to collective memory and identity With this outline of topic areas in mind this volume brings together essays analysing various aspects of the concept of solidarity namely philosophical social political cultural historical psychological and artistic The book

s interdisciplinary character is testament to the complexity of perspectives and contexts in which the phenomenon of solidarity can be described today in the social sciences and the humanities As such it contains chapters devoted to the history of ideas international relations and political conflicts in the modern world national minorities racism and anti-Semitism and twentieth century crimes against humanity as well as psychological case studies experimental research on mechanisms of social behaviour and analyses of works of art The contributors to this volume represent academic centres from Africa the Americas Asia and Europe They are deeply concerned with fighting against any forms of discrimination and as such their respective chapters mark a contribution to the constant search for the improvement of the fate of societies and individuals in different corners of the globe Consequently this book has an ethical dimension in addition to its cognitive side inspiring its readers to undertake efforts to help victims of social exclusion persecution and crime

Anxious Histories Jordana

Silverstein,2015-04-01 Over the last seventy years memories and narratives of the Holocaust have played a significant role in constructing Jewish communities The author explores one field where these narratives are disseminated Holocaust pedagogy in Jewish schools in Melbourne and New York Bringing together a diverse range of critical approaches including memory studies gender studies diaspora theory and settler colonial studies Anxious Histories complicates the stories being told about the Holocaust in these Jewish schools and their broader communities It demonstrates that an anxious thread runs throughout these historical narratives as the pedagogy negotiates feelings of simultaneous belonging and not belonging in the West and in Zionism In locating that anxiety the possibilities and the limitations of narrating histories of the Holocaust are opened up once again for analysis critique discussion and development
