Stretesky, 2017-03-02 The essays selected for this volume show how radical and Marxist criminology has established itself as an influential critique since it emerged in the late 1960s Unlike orthodox criminology which emphasizes individual level explanations of criminal behavior radical and Marxist criminology emphasizes power inequality and structures especially those related to class as key factors in crime law and justice This collection of essays draws attention to the way in which structural forces shape and influence both individual and institutional for example governmental behavior highlights neglected crime corporate governmental state corporate and environmental which causes more extensive damage than the street crimes examined by orthodox criminology and discusses the ways in which law and criminal justice processes reinforce power structures and contribute to class control      Discover Sociology Daina S. Fugitive Thought Michael Roy Hames-Garcia,2004 In Fugitive Thought Michael Hames Garca argues that writings by prisoners are instances of practical social theory that seek to transform the world Unlike other authors who have studied prisons or legal theory Hames Garca views prisoners as political and social thinkers whose ideas are as important as those of lawyers and philosophers As key moral terms like justice solidarity and freedom have come under suspicion in the post Civil Rights era political discussions on the Left have reached an impasse Fugitive Thought reexamines and reinvigorates these concepts through a fresh approach to philosophies of justice and freedom combining the study of legal theory and of prison literature to show how the critiques and moral visions of dissidents and participants in prison movements can contribute to the shaping and realization of workable ethical conceptions Fugitive Thought focuses on writings by black and Latina o lawyers and prisoners to flesh out the philosophical underpinnings of ethical claims within legal theory and prison activism Michael Hames Garca is assistant professor of English and of philosophy interpretation and culture at Binghamton University State University of New York
