The Sociology of Post-Colonial Societies J. E. Goldthorpe, 1996-08-13 An analysis of the disparity between rich and poor countries and a discussion of the problems of the poor countries

The Sociology of Post-Colonial Societies J. E. Goldthorpe, 1996-08-13 This is the completely revised and updated version of the immensely successful Sociology of the Third World. This book is about the division of the world into rich and poor countries and the disparities between rich and poor people especially in poor countries. It analyzes economic conditions and living standards in poor countries. It discusses droughts, famines, and environmental concerns, questions about limits to growth and sustainable development, and reviews theoretical perspectives on development and underdevelopment. Later chapters describe the effect and psychology of modernization.

Quality of Life and the Millennium Challenge Valerie Møller, Denis Huschka, 2008-11-30 The new millennium is widely considered to be the age of globalisation, democratisation, and human rights. We live in a knowledge society and in a time of risk and uncertainty. World society is rapidly urbanising and ageing and exhausting its natural resources. It is the interplay of such key trends of the era that calls for a fresh approach to measuring quality of life. This collection of papers presents an innovative approach to evaluating living standards and wellbeing under the new circumstances facing individuals and societies in the twenty-first century. Contributions cover a wide range of issues that impact positively and negatively on wellbeing in our age. While stability, trust, equal access to resources, and the social integration of disadvantaged members of society enhance wellbeing, poverty, social exclusion, congestion in cities, HIV/AIDS, and global warming pose threats to both modern and traditional lifestyles. Methodological refinements of conventional measurement tools are presented that take into consideration the rich diversity of lifestyles and values among different populations and regions of the world. This book will be essential reading for social scientists and ordinary citizens who are concerned about the future of human wellbeing on our planet.

Urban Appropriation and Transformation: Bicycle Taxi and Handcart Operators Operators Bicycle, 2008-11-15 This book is about emerging informal responses to unemployment in Malawi. To the bicycle taxi and handcart operators who are at the centre of the book, informality is a means for negotiating newer experiences and challenges associated with urbanisation. Jimu richly documents how informal economy activities continue to represent grassroots responses to widespread poverty, unavailability of meaningful employment opportunities, and the failure of the state as well as the private and the non-state sectors to respond to escalating demand for formal sector jobs. Multiplicity of activities and straddling urban and rural opportunities are strategies employed to deal with opportunity impermanence and maximize returns from various low-paying tasks and jobs. While these activities have grown without state support, state involvement is necessary to regulate and promote the welfare of the workers in the sector as well as that of the users of their service and the general public. This will require constructive engagement among the operators, users of their services, local government, and various state agencies.

Power and Organizations Stewart R Clegg, David

Courpasson, Nelson Phillips, 2006-06-29 A marvelous addition to the literature on both organizations and power It is well grounded in the research on these topics and especially the wide range of relevant theorizing The book is terrific at bringing together theory research and the world of organizations George Ritzer Distinguished University Professor University of Maryland This book tirelessly illuminates the nooks and crannies of the power literature taking readers on an audacious tour of power's multiple conceptualizations and expressions Hugh Willmott Diageo Professor of Management Studies University of Cambridge Clegg and his associates expose the power dynamics that lie at the heart of all political and organizational arenas and in so doing they shed light on the underbelly along with the creative potentialities in organizational life Joyce Rothschild Professor of Sociology Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University Strange but true most studies of organizational hierarchies downplay the issue of power or uncritically assume more is better while ignoring its pernicious effects Stewart Clegg David Courpasson and Nelson Phillips set the record straight Joanne Martin Merrill Professor of Organizational Behavior and by courtesy Sociology Stanford University Graduate School of Business Stanford In this tour de force Stewart Clegg David Courpasson and Nelson Phillips provide a comprehensive account of power and organizations unlocking power as the central relation of modern organizations and society The authors present an excellent synthesis of organization social and political theory to offer an overview of power and organizations that is historically informed addresses current issues and is comprehensive in scope Power and Organizations reviews the evolution of theories on power and organization presenting not only the theorists who identify power as positive but also dealing with the negativity of power and the real horror of which organizations are capable which has thus far been underplayed in organization theory At the core of organizational power projects are organizational elites whose politics and projects are examined extensively in the book The book concludes by examining the implications for organizations and their elites of the trends tendencies and theories considered in the course of the book This book is required reading for graduate students and researchers in areas such as organizational social and political theory

Re-presenting the Johannine Community Yak-hwee Tan, 2008 Re Presenting the Johannine Community A Postcolonial Perspective explores the characterization of the Johannine community in the Farewell Discourse of the Fourth Gospel from a postcolonial perspective The community is scrutinized with the lens of an integrated literary rhetorical and ideological postcolonial approach The disciples emerge as both the Self insofar as they resist an imperial reality represented by the world and the Other with respect to Jesus and the Father As such far from immutable and bland the Johannine community is portrayed as chameleonic and engaged in an emerging strategy of resistance Book Jacket

Law in Transition Ruth Buchanan, Peer Zumbansen, 2014-12-01 Law has become the vehicle by which countries in the developing world including post conflict states or states undergoing constitutional transformation must steer the course of social and economic legal and political change Legal mechanisms in particular the instruments as well as concepts of human rights play an increasingly central role in the discourses and practices of both development and transitional justice These developments can be seen as part of a tendency towards convergence within the wider set of discourses and practices in global governance. While this process of convergence of formerly distinct normative and conceptual fields of theory and practice has been both celebrated and critiqued at the level of theory, the present collection provides through a series of studies drawn from a variety of contexts in which human rights advocacy and transitional justice initiatives are colliding with development projects, programmes and objectives a more nuanced and critical account of contemporary developments. The book includes essays by many of the leading experts writing at the intersection of development rights and transitional justice studies. Notwithstanding the theoretical and practical challenges presented by the complex interaction of these fields, the premise of the book is that it is only through engagement and dialogue among hitherto distinct fields of scholarship and practice that a better understanding of the institutional and normative issues arising in contemporary law and development and transitional justice contexts will be possible. The book is designed for research and teaching at both undergraduate and graduate levels.

ENDORSEMENTS An extraordinary collection of essays that illuminate the nature of law in today's fragmented and uneven globalized world by situating the stakes of law in the intersection between the fields of human rights, development and transitional justice. Unusual for its breadth and the quality of scholarly contributions from many who are top scholars in their fields, this volume is one of the first that attempts to weave the three specialized fields and succeeds brilliantly. For anyone working in the fields of development studies, human rights or transitional justice, this volume is a wake up call to abandon their preconceived ideas and frames and aim for a conceptual and programmatic restart. Professor Balakrishnan Rajagopal, Ford International Associate Professor of Law and Development, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. This superb collection of essays explores the challenges, possibilities and limits faced by scholars and practitioners seeking to imagine forms of law that can respond to social transformation. Drawing together cutting edge work across the three dynamic fields of law and development, transitional justice and international human rights law, this volume powerfully demonstrates that in light of the changes demanded of legal research, education and practice in a globalizing world, all law is law in transition. Anne Orford, Michael D Kirby Chair of International Law and Australian Research Council Future Fellow, University of Melbourne. A terrific volume. Leading scholars of human rights, development, policy and transitional justice look back and into the future. What has worked. Where have these projects gone astray or conflicted with one another. Law will only contribute forcefully to justice, development and peaceful, sustainable change if the lessons learned here give rise to a new practical wisdom. We all hope law can do better. The essays collected here begin to show us how. David Kennedy, Manley O Hudson Professor of Law, Director, Institute for Global Law and Policy, Harvard Law School. Nanotechnology and Global Equality Donald Maclurcan, 2012-03-27. The book places nanotechnology's emergence within a broad historical and contemporary global context while developing and testing an interpretive framework through which to assess nanotechnology's claims. It clarifies the nature of global engagement with nanotechnology research and development, revealing surprising scenarios.
