Tracy,Carol Thorogood,Jan Pincombe,2010 Midwifery Preparation for Practice 2e is the only text which reflects the historical and socio political environment in which midwives in Australia and New Zealand practice In addition it is the only text which incorporates the philosophy and standards endorsed by New Zealand and Australian Colleges of Midwives while also focusing on the partnership between midwives with women and the woman centred model of midwifery care The second edition has built on the existing philosophy and structure of Midwifery Preparation for Practice though with a greater emphasis on the development of critical thinking and researching skills Key chapters have been re written to reflect recent changes in government legislation while current research and pertinent examples are included throughout the text This new edition is supported by a comprehensive suite of resources for both Instructors and Students using the Evolve website as a platform These ancillaries will re enforce the critical thinking elements for students with interactive case studies and scenario based learning exercises as well as the multiple choice questions Quality Teaching and Learning Wendy Crebbin,2004 This book provides a comprehensive analysis and critique of many key issues being addressed in schools and school systems in a variety of countries Using the postmodern approach of recognizing multiple meanings and interpretations Quality Teaching and Learning provides readers with a framework in which they can examine some of the commonsense reasoning behind many school practices and teaching and learning approaches Working from these understandings readers are enabled to look beyond current orthodoxies and recognize the advantages and disadvantages along with many of the contradictions that exist within and between the multiple expectations being placed on schools BIM Development and Trends in Developing Countries: Case Studies John Rogers, Heap-Yih Chong, Christopher Preece, Chai Chai Lim and Himall Suranga Jayasena,2015-03-06 Building Information Modeling BIM or the process of generating and managing digital information about physical representations of constructions has been effectively adopted and benefited numerous civil engineering projects across the globe particularly in developed countries BIM Development and Trends in Developing Countries addresses the philosophies and practices for improved application of BIM in developing countries Two case studies are presented in this reference one from Malaysia and another representing Sri Lanka Readers are given an introduction and background of the Malaysian and Sri Lankan construction industry and a critical review of BIM s philosophies development and applications in different stages of a construction project The authors present their recommendations on the way forward for BIM practices articulated from the two perspectives namely academia and industrial BIM practice The case studies in this book highlight the role of adequate BIM software techniques and the importance of governmental support in facing building challenges at the moment BIM Development and Trends in Developing Countries provides readers useful insights on the evolution of BIM practice in emerging countries and is a unique report on two specific scenarios in BIM development Engineers architects urban planners and policy makers around the globe seeking to understand practical BIM implementation and trends will find this reference invaluable

The Fabric of Your Life A. L. Sinikka Dixon, Ph.D., 2013-10-07 Today we live in an information society constantly bombarded by new scientific discoveries in every field What we thought to be common sense is changing and we tend to look to the multiple professional organizations for guidelines This book focuses on our every day relationships within the five life cycles of age family education work and leisure It puts you the reader in the center of your life Each chapter gives you a backdrop to become your own case study with thought questions to create awareness of the impact your life has on others and how in turn their lives inspire and constrain you Separate chapters are dedicated to the impact of health choice of life values self esteem and family relocation as constraints on your life cycle involvements The goal in writing this book has been to empower the reader to view his or her life in a fresh new personal perspective

People and Forest — Policy and Local Reality in Southeast Asia, the Russian Far East, and Japan M. Inoue, H. Isozaki, 2013-11-11 leading to an overall decrease in the world's forest cover The forests of Asia in particular have been strongly impacted A number of initiatives have suggested forest policy reforms and the need for the sustainable management of forests has been widely recognized and encouraged But because implementation of reforms at the local level has been insufficient it is imperative that local people begin to effectively participate in forest planning and management as well as in protected area management The Forest Conservation Project launched in April 1998 by the Institute for Global Environmental Strategies IGES has carried out research activities on forest strategies including policy analysis and on site surveys This book gives an overview of the project's research activities in its first three year phase April 1998 March 2001 Since viable forest strategies work best when based on the involvement of local people this report is addressed to stakeholders in the communities of the relevant countries including local people and authorities community based organizations experts national agencies and international institutions

A Historical Introduction to the Study of New Religious Movements W. Michael Ashcraft, 2018-02-02 The American public's perception of New Religious Movements NRMs as fundamentally harmful cults stems from the anticult movement of the 1970s which gave a sometimes hysterical and often distorted image of NRMs to the media At the same time academics pioneered a new field studying these same NRMs from sociological and historical perspectives They offered an interpretation that ran counter to that of the anticult movement For these scholars in the new field of NRM studies NRMs were legitimate religions deserving of those freedoms granted to established religions Those scholars in NRM studies continued to evolve methods and theories to study NRMs This book tells their story Each chapter begins with a biography of a key person involved in studying NRMs The narrative unfolds chronologically beginning with late nineteenth and early twentieth century perceptions of religions alternative to the mainstream Then the focus shifts to those early efforts in the 1960s and 1970s to comprehend the growing phenomena of cults or NRMs using the tools of academic disciplines The book s midpoint is a chapter that looks closely at the scholarship of the anticult movement and from there moves forward in time to the present highlighting themes in the study of NRMs like violence gender and reflexive ethnography No other book has used the scholars of NRMs as the focus for a study in this way The material in this volume is therefore a fascinating viewpoint from which to explore the origins of this vibrant academic community as well as analyse the practice of Religious Studies more generally
