

A full-page background image featuring a mountain range under a dramatic, sunset-colored sky. The sky is filled with large, textured clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and blue. The mountains in the foreground are dark and silhouetted against the bright sky. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

The weight of the world is love.
Under the burden of solitude, under the burden of dissatisfaction.

On Solitude, Conscience, Love and Our Inner and Outer Lives Ron Haflidson, 2019-07-25 Ron Haflidson places the theology of Augustine in conversation with contemporary authors who warn of the dangers of abandoning solitude for constant often technological connection Haflidson addresses an essential question that has previously been neglected What difference does it make to the practice of solitude if one believes that even in the absence of any human company God is always intimately present For Augustine solitude is a moral necessity he recommends that we regularly retreat from the crowd into the depths of our conscience where we can dwell alone in the company of God and enter into dialogue before and with God about who we are and how we love Throughout this book Haflidson pairs close readings of Augustine with those of noted cartographers of our inner lives literary greats including Jane Austen George Eliot Marilynne Robinson and George Saunders This book explores what undiscovered possibilities may lie in solitude

Thomas Merton and the Noonday Demon Donald Grayston, 2015-10-29 In Thomas Merton and the Noonday Demon Donald Grayson transforms a long neglected cache of letters found in an ancient monastery into a book that offers new insight into the author of these letters Thomas Merton the renowned spiritual writer At the time of their writing the mid 1950s he was living as a Trappist monk at the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky Having reached an impasse in his monastic vocation he decided to leave Gethsemani for the Monastery of Camaldoli in Italy Camaldoli at that time bucolic and peaceful outwardly was inwardly riven by a pre Vatican II culture war whereas Gethsemani which he tried so hard to leave became when he was given his hermitage there in 1965 his place to recover Eden In walking with Merton on this journey and reading the letters he wrote and received at the time we find ourselves asking as he did with so much energy and honesty the deep questions that we may well need to answer in our own lives

Who One Is J.G. Hart, 2009-04-21 Both volumes of this work have as their central concern to sort out who one is from what one is In this Book 1 the focus is on transcendental phenomenological ontology When we refer to ourselves we refer both non ascriptively in regard to non propertied as well as ascriptively in regard to propertied aspects of ourselves The latter is the richness of our personal being the former is the essentially elusive central concern of this Book 1 I can be aware of myself and refer to myself without it being necessary to think of any third personal characteristic indeed one may be aware of oneself without having to be aware of anything except oneself This consideration opens the door to basic issues in phenomenological ontology such as identity individuation and substance In our knowledge and love of Others we find symmetry with the first person self knowledge both in its non ascriptive forms as well as in its property ascribing forms Love properly has for its referent the Other as present through but beyond her properties Transcendental phenomenological reflections move us to consider paradoxes of the transcendental person For example we contend with the unpresentability in the transcendental first person of our beginning or ending and the undeniable evidence for the beginning and ending of persons in our third person experience The basic distinction between oneself as non sortal and as a person pervaded by properties serves as a hinge for reflecting on the afterlife This transcendental phenomenological ontology of necessity deals with some themes of the philosophy of religion

Love and Loss A Journey through Fear to Peace - Volume Five Betty Hibod,2025-01-08 What if the teachings of scripture weren t just stories or symbols but lived realities LossLove and A Journey through Fear to Peace offers a rare window into that experience Unlike traditional biographies or historical accounts this spiritual memoir invites readers deep into the invisible world of awakening Betty Hibod s journal based narrative is intensely personal documenting the lived embodiment of mystical principles across time grief and divine revelation From devastating loss to divine union from emotional disintegration to spiritual clarity Betty records her journey not as metaphor but as transformation made flesh More than a spiritual memoir this book is a detailed sensual and unfiltered chronicle of mystical awakening It explores tantric love divine feminine spirituality and non dualism through a lens that is both deeply human and profoundly sacred Rather than offering abstract theories it shows how the myths of sacred texts take shape in daily life It answers the questions rarely spoken aloud What does enlightenment feel like in real time How does one survive and evolve through spiritual paradox grief and loss and the collapse of personal identity Infused with mystical awakening philosophical reflection and raw emotional truth this is not a book about religion It is a book of lived revelation For readers seeking a deeper understanding of consciousness sacred sexuality or the journey of awakening this memoir is a path inward Step beyond the stories Walk into the soul Buy now and begin the journey Good Words and Sunday Magazine ,1887 Fathomless Heart Lewis Thompson,2011-08-02 Lewis Thompson 1909 1949 was primarily a poet a man of letters influenced by Eastern spiritualism and the poets Rimbaud and Rilke As Richard Lannoy the editor of Fathomless Heart writes Thompson who rejected traditional literature after experiencing a spiritual crisis as a teenager wrote solely as a form of spiritual exercise the most sparse and urgent communication conceivable Later in life he wandered alone in India for many years This book is the culmination of his life and writing Fathomless Heart is Thompson s view on how to live a spiritual and truthful life how to awaken to full consciousness Meant to be sampled for insights into topics that matter most to the reader the book is divided into sections on universal subjects such as Truthfulness Ignorance Sexuality Beauty and Idleness Novelist Somerset Maugham met Thompson at an Indian ashram and incorporated him into the character of Larry the hero of the novel The Razor s Edge which popularized the archetypal westerner pursuing spirituality in the East In reality Thompson directed his unique powers of concentration toward exploration of mental awareness rather than on the accumulation of knowledge about exotic spiritual techniques an awareness that manifests throughout this useful and inspiring book Act of Love Kino

MacGregor,2022-10-28 After dealing with a series of obstacles and life challenges Kino MacGregor experienced a revelation Whether eating speaking writing traveling or living she pledged to let everything she did in life be an act of love Just like that the seed of a new world was planted as she began to integrate this simple yet truly life changing principle into her daily routine In a guide shared to help others attain spiritual growth love and true happiness MacGregor presents a new paradigm that promotes an entirely new way of living and being While offering anecdotal stories from her own journey as well as the journeys of students and fellow spiritual practitioners she leads others down a courageous path inward to reset the mind to overcome heartache become more aware and embrace the process of awakening Through moving stories trusted advice and meditation and reflection points MacGregor sets up the parameters of love action and the ultimate shift that teaches students of life how to truly act from love in all we do say and become Act of Love shares anecdotes advice and guidance that will help anyone reprogram the mind choose a new outlook and follow a simple roadmap to attain true love and happiness in life
