Shades of Loneliness Richard Stivers, 2004 In this incisive and controversial book Richard Stivers rejects genetic explanations of psychological problems arguing instead that the very organization of technological societies is behind the pervasive experience of loneliness In its extreme form loneliness assumes pathological dimensions in neurosis and schizophrenia which reflect the contradiction between power and meaninglessness that characterizes modern life Loneliness in its many manifestations seems to be the price we must pay for living in a technological world Yet nurturing family friend and community ties can mitigate its culturally and psychologically disorganizing power This book is a clarion call for a renewal of moral awareness and custom to combat the fragmentation and depersonalization of our technological civilization Visit our website for sample chapters
