Sufi Message of Hazrat Inayat Khan an attempt has been made to group together most of the Sufi mystic s teaching concerning sound and music sound as the basis of creation and music as an essential means towards spiritual development Having been a musician of renown before he gave up his art in order to dedicate himself entirely to the Sufi Message with which he was entrusted Inayat Khan readily followed the practice of the ancient Sufis in expressing esoteric truths in terms of sound and music He once described this as follows I gave up my music because I had received from it all that I had to receive To serve God one must sacrifice what is dearest to one and so I sacrificed my music I had composed songs I sang and played the vina and practicing this music I arrived at a stage where I touched the Music of the Spheres Then every soul became for me a musical note and all life became music Inspired by it I spoke to the people and those who were attracted by my words listened to them instead of listening to my songs Now if I do anything it is to tune souls instead of instruments to harmonize people instead of notes If there is anything in my philosophy it is the law of harmony that one must put oneself in harmony with oneself and with others I have found in every word a certain musical value a melody in every thought harmony in every feeling and I have tried to interpret the same thing with clear and simple words to those who used to listen to my music I played the vina until my heart turned into this very instrument then I offered this instrument to the divine Musician the only musician existing Since then I have become His flute and when He chooses He plays His music The people give me credit for this music which in reality is not due to me but to the Musician who plays on His own instrument Memories of a Sufi Sage, Hazrat Inayat Khan Sirkar van Stolk, Daphne Dunlop, 1968 Diwan of Inayat Khan Inayat Khan, 1996 For the first time after more than 80 years the beautiful poetry of the young Hazrat Inayat Khan 1882 1927 is becoming available again It mostly stems from his life period in his native India before going to the West in 1910 The English rendering is typical of the outgoing Victorian age But even today its devotional nature and blossoming description seems to be apt to the rich flowering of the Urdu original This edition draw the attention to the exceptionally beautiful frontispiece It has been reproduced for this edition from a reare copy of the 1915 edition with the original signature of the author to which the latter has added khaaki i pai Sufiyaan he the outstanding Sufi of modern times presenting himself as no more than dust at the feet of Sufi s Whitaker's Books in Print , 1998 The Sufi Message Volume 2 Hazrat Inayat Khan, 2009-01-01 The Mysticism of Music Sound and Word presents an essential part of the highly practical philosophy of Hazrat Inayat Khan Born a musician music and sound were for him the essence of life Even when later he had to give up his practice of what in Indian philosophy is called struck music the unstruck music remained with him and increasingly so Not only did he enjoy it in his meditations and all through life whether in silent nature or in the roaring streets of Manhattan In its fullness it came out in his discourses and other presentations he made to the amazed and yet not fully understanding public of the West in the twenties His realization of sound and music transformed his words into living beings attuning the atmosphere bringing inspiration to the public This volume presents various aspects of his music It contains four parts In the Mysticism of Sound

the basic philosophy is given in a wide context Both the abstract and some very practical aspects are covered Music presents the mystic aspects of music besides relating its philosophy to the practical side again It presents a beautiful early view of Indian music and it relates music and colour Moreover the psychic and healing powers are discussed The Power of the Word and Cosmic Language elaborates these influences both philosophically and practically The book really may be called mysticism in daily life     A Sufi Message of Spiritual Liberty (Complete) Hazrat Inayat Khan, 2020-09-28 The ideal perfection called Baqa by Sufis is termed Najat in Islam Nirvana in Buddhism Salvation in Christianity and Mukhti in Hinduism This is the highest condition attainable and all ancient prophets and sages experienced it and taught it to the world Baqa is the original state of God At this state every being must arrive some day consciously or unconsciously before or after death The beginning and end of all beings is the same difference only existing during the journey There are three ways in man's journey towards God The first is the way of ignorance through which each must travel It is like a person walking for miles in the sun while carrying a heavy load on his shoulder who when fatigued throws away the load and falls asleep under the shade of a tree Such is the condition of the average person who spends his life blindly under the influence of his senses and gathers the load of his evil actions the agonies of his earthly longings creating a hell through which he must pass to reach the destination of his journey With regard to him the Qur'an says He who is blind in life shall also be blind in the hereafter The next way is that of devotion which is for true lovers Rumi says Man may be the lover of man or the lover of God after his perfection in either he is taken before the King of love Devotion is the heavenly wine which intoxicates the devotee until his heart becomes purified from all infirmities and there remains the happy vision of the Beloved which lasts to the end of the journey Death is a bridge which unites friend to friend Sayings of Mohammed The third is the way of wisdom accomplished only by the few The disciple disregards life's momentary comforts unties himself from all earthly bondages and turns his eyes toward God inspired with divine wisdom He gains command over his body his thoughts and feelings and is thereby enabled to create his own heaven within himself that he may rejoice until merged into the eternal goal We have stripped the veil from thine eyes and thy sight today is keen says the Qur'an All must journey along one of these three paths but in the end they arrive at one and the same goal As it is said in the Qur'an It is He who multiplied you on the earth and to Him you shall be gathered
