Poddar, 2007-10-01 The growing debate over British national identity and the place of Englishness within it raises crucial questions about multiculturalism postimperial culture and identity and the past and future histories of globalization However discussions of Englishness have too often been limited by insular conceptions of national literature culture and history which serve to erase or marginalize the colonial and postcolonial locations in which British national identity has been articulated This volume breaks new ground by drawing together a range of disciplinary approaches in order to resituate the relationship between British national identity and Englishness within a global framework Ranging from the literature and history of empire to analyses of contemporary culture postcolonial writing political rhetoric and postimperial memory after 9 11 this collection demonstrates that far from being parochial or self involved the question of Englishness offers an important avenue for thinking about the politics of national identity in our postcolonial and globalized world The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1865 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1895 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record , 1895 Dialogues on Instinct Henry Brougham Baron Brougham and Vaux, 1845 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance , 1865 The Book Buyer's Manual G.P. Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Bookseller's catalogues Edwin Parsons, 1865 The Monthly Literary Advertiser , 1836 Bent's Literary Advertiser and Register of Engravings, Works on the Fine Arts , 1842 The Edinburgh Review , 1842
