Music in the London Theatre from Purcell to Handel Colin Timms, Bruce Wood, 2017-06-29 This book is concerned with a hundred years of musical drama in England It charts the development of the genre from the theatre works of Henry Purcell and his contemporaries to the dramatic oratorios of George Frideric Handel and his En route it investigates the objections to all sung drama in English that were articulated in the decades around 1700 various proposed solutions the importation of Italian opera and the creation of the dramatic oratorio English drama all sung but not staged Most of the constituent essays take an in depth look at a particular aspect of the process while others draw attention to dramatic qualities in non dramatic works that also were performed in the theatre The journey from Purcell to Handel illustrates the vigour and vitality of English theatrical and musical traditions and Handel's dramatic oratorios and other settings of English words answer questions posed before he was born Daniel Defoe Robert James Merrett, 2013-01-01 A highly conscious wordsmith Daniel Defoe used expository styles in his fiction and non-fiction that reflected his ability to perceive material and intellectual phenomena from opposing but not contradictory perspectives Moreover the boundaries of genre within his wide-ranging oeuvre can prove highly fluid In this study Robert James Merrett approaches Defoe's body of work using interdisciplinary methods that recognize dialectic in his verbal creativity and cognitive awareness Examining more than ninety of Defoe's works Merrett contends that this author's literariness exploits a conscious dialogue that fosters the reciprocity of traditional and progressive authorial procedures Along the way he discusses Defoe's lexical and semantic sensibility his rhetorical and aesthetic theories his contrarian theology and more Merrett proposes that Defoe's contrarian outlook celebrates a view of consciousness that acknowledges the brain's bipartite structure and in so doing illustrates how cognitive science may be applied to further explorations of narrative art The Living Age, 1857 Analytical Grammar of the English Language Timothy Stone Pinneo, 1850 The Satanic Epic Neil Forsyth, 2009-01-10 The Satan of Paradise Lost has fascinated generations of readers This book attempts to explain how and why Milton's Satan is so seductive It reasserts the importance of Satan against those who would minimize the poem's sympathy for the devil and thereby make Milton orthodox Neil Forsyth argues that William Blake got it right when he called Milton a true poet because he was of the Devil's party even though he set out to justify the ways of God to men In seeking to learn why Satan is so alluring Forsyth ranges over diverse topics from the origins of evil and the relevance of witchcraft to the status of the poetic narrator the epic tradition the nature of love between the sexes and seventeenth-century astronomy He considers each of these as Milton introduces them as Satanic subjects Satan emerges as the main challenge to Christian belief It is Satan who questions and wonders and denounces He is the great doubter who gives voice to many of the arguments that Christianity has provoked from within and without And by rooting his Satanic reading of Paradise Lost in Biblical and other sources Forsyth retrieves not only an attractive and heroic Satan but a Milton whose heretical energies are embodied in a Satanic character with a life of his own Black Directors in Hollywood Melvin Donelson, 2003-12-01 Hollywood film directors are some of the world's most powerful storytellers shaping the fantasies and aspirations of people around the globe Since the 1960s African Americans have increasingly joined their ranks bringing fresh insights to movie characterizations plots and themes and depicting areas of African American culture that were previously absent from mainstream films Today black directors are making films in all popular genres while inventing new ones to speak directly from and to the black experience This book offers a first comprehensive look at the work of black directors in Hollywood from pioneers such as Gordon Parks Melvin Van Peebles and Ossie Davis to current talents including Spike Lee John Singleton Kasi Lemmons and Carl Franklin Discussing 67 individuals and over 135 films Melvin Donelson thoroughly explores how black directors' storytelling skills and film techniques have widened both the thematic focus and visual style of American cinema Assessing the meanings and messages in their films he convincingly demonstrates that black directors are balancing Hollywood's demand for box office success with artistic achievement and responsibility to ethnic cultural and gender issues In the Beginning Stefan C. Night Passages Elisabeth Bronfen, 2013 In the beginning was the night All light shapes language and subjective consciousness as well as the world and art depicting them emerged from this formless chaos In fantasy we seek to return to this original darkness Particularly in literature visual representations and film the night resiliently resurfaces from the margins of the knowable acting as a stage and state of mind in which exceptional perceptions discoveries and decisions play out Elisabeth Bronfen follows nocturnal spaces in which extraordinary events unfold enabling the irrational exploration of desire transformation ecstasy transgression spiritual illumination and moral choice She begins with classical myths depicting the creation of the world and moves through nocturnal scenes in Shakespeare and Milton Gothic figurations Hegel's romantic philosophy and Freud's psychoanalysis In modern times she shows how literature and film particularly film noir transmit that piece of night the modern subject carries within From Mozart's Queen of the Night to Virginia Woolf's oscillation between day and night life and death and chaos and aesthetic form Bronfen renders something visible conceivable and tellable from the dark realms of the unknown

His Story Christopher Garcia, 2015-05-26 We believe that there is a God but is this the way God would run the world with death and destruction and all sorts of evil If God is loving why isn't everything perfect There are the whys in life How did this all get started Why are we born and why do we die
