The Miraculous Father Angelo:

The Miraculous Father Angelo A. C. Calónico, 2003-07-01 This is a story of a young priest Father Michael Angelo who has the power to heal After helping a countless number of young marines make it home alive he finds himself ill Malaria has brought him to the very place he had help soldier after soldier recover from However there was nobody there to save him or was there He is soon visited by an angelic figure from heaven Jonathan As he becomes well again he realizes that his life is not over it is just beginning Jonathan allows Father Angelo to see things beyond his imagination He shows the miraculous priest that there is much more for him to do and that he has the power to change the world God's Miracles In My Life; Model Father of 70 Million People , Healers and Healing in Early Modern Italy David Gentilcore, 1998 How did people of the past explain and deal with illness This pioneering new book explores the wide range of healers and forms of healing in the southern half of the Italian peninsula that was the kingdom of Naples between 1600 and 1800 Drawing on numerous sources the book uncovers religious and popular ideas about disease and its causation and cures and uncovers new territory in the history of medicine The Development of the Italian Schools of Painting Raimond van Marle, 1925 Abbara - A Story of Hope Ahmet Tezcan, The author will lead you through an abbara in Mardin thousands of which connect streets neighborhoods and houses darkness to light sorrow to joy and from the visible to the unknown You ll pass through it for one has to pass through himself to find himself While Joseph discovers his real mother in the triangle of Houston Matera and Mardin you ll journey through ages meeting queen snakes sailing through the skies ancient prophets telling you their parables and a living wizard who is going to discover the lost water streams under your feet Dr Hakki cal Ahmet Tezcan s novel isn t just a narrative it s a travel book about the discovery of Mesopotamia through a touching story Especially Bahe s story It falls like a stone on one s heart Orhan Miro lu If Hegel had had a chance to read Ahmet Tezcan s marvellous book Abbara while explaining his famous the real is actual he would have absolutely had the adventure of the Spirit drop by the streets of Mardin A novel that through beautiful design passes beyond the dialectic of the difference and the identity Dr G lgun T rko lu Pagy Miracles Charles Raymond Dillon, 2000-11 Most of the stories in this book are outside the scope of our everyday experience many unbelievable yet many have been validated by observers as being authentic There are stories of weeping and mobile statues incorruptible flesh of the dead and spontaneous combustion of human bodies Other stories concern ecstasy levitation visions healing and other mysterious events The concept of miracles have been attacked by rationalist philosophers who argue that they would be a violation of the common course of nature thus the events could not happen Saint Augustine answered such critics by defining miracles as being events that are unknown in nature not as something opposed to it This book contains a collection of wondrous events that have been reported at have occurred at different times in diverse places and among all peoples of the world These wonderful events may be called miracles frauds coincidences or what ever you may choose Many have been investigated and determined to have been fraud The intent is to present the information and to let you decide if they are real miracles or not      *Official memoirs of the juridical examination into the authenticity of the miraculous events which happened at Rome in ... 1796-7 ... with an account of similar prodigies ... at Ancona and other places ...
