The Mistressclass:

The Mistressclass Michèle Roberts, 2003-09-10 Set in contemporary London and provincial France this is a story of past impulses and present day repercussions The dead father haunts his son in real life Vinny haunts her sister and the whole novel is haunted by one the form s great early exponents Charlotte Bronte and her passionate search for creative fulfilment The Mistressclass Michele Roberts, 2003 Adam is a writer struggling to come to terms with the death of his painter father Robert and his difficult marriage to Catherine Before he married Catherine he had been the lover of her sister Vinny The classic menage trois seems about to repeat itself when Adam discovers his wife s father was less innocent than he had thought Set mainly in contemporary London partly in France the action also harks back to the 1970 s The narrative evokes the style of the nineteenth century novelists and their themes desire guilt pleasure Pastoral landscapes alternate with those of the inner city and the past s interaction with the present is acted out by ghosts The dead father haunts his son in real life Vinny haunts her sister and the whole novel is haunted by one of its great earliest exponents Charlotte Bronte and her passionate search for creative fulfilment The Pleasure of the Feminist Text Susanne Gruss, 2009 I would regard myself as a feminist writer because I m a feminist in everything else and one can t compartmentalise these things in one s life Angela Carter When I became a feminist in 1968 I felt that I d come home the first home I ever had that was feminine And it was very wild and theatrical and erotic the early feminism Mich le Roberts Angela Carter and Mich le Roberts share a keen interest in gender and sexual identity but many of their topics seem to mark them as opposites Roberts's fascination with the impact of religion motherhood and autobiography on female identity covers areas that Carter shuns in her writings In reading these two authors parallel and in contrast to each other this monograph follows a triple objective it provides a comprehensive critical introduction to the works of Roberts explores aspects of Carter s work that have not yet been analyzed sufficiently religion motherhood and masculinity and uses both authors to explore motifs and strategies of feminist writing The analyses of both authors works are supplemented by close readings of a wide range of theoretical perspectives especially French feminism and psychoanalysis and concise theoretical outlines of the topics covered radical feminism religion motherhood and fatherhood masculinity fairy tales romances and chick lit and history and auto biography Nations, Traditions and Cross-cultural Identities Annamaria Lamarra, Eleonora Federici, 2010 European Connections Studies in Comparative Literature Intermediality and Aesthetics is a peer reviewed series that focuses on the literary and artistic relations that shape European cultures It also wishes to explore relations with non European cultures with a view to fostering more equitable models of cultural exchange and transfer Sex. Sin. and Our Selves Anna Fisk, 2014-03-17 Sex Sin and Our Selves brings together readings in feminist theological thought and the literature of the acclaimed contemporary writers Michele Roberts and Sara Maitland Through placing theology in conversation with Roberts s and Maitland s literary engagement with issues of religion and gender this book explores themes of selfhood connection sex sin and self sacrifice In doing so it challenges a tendency of feminist theology to seek simple and idealized answers rather than honor complexity and the need to continue to ask questions In the encounters in feminist theology and contemporary women s writing Anna Fisk employs autobiographical narrative critically understood as reading these stories beside my own Mapping British Women Writers' Urban Imaginaries Arina Cirstea, 2016-01-13 This study provides an alternative to the postmodern tradition of writing about the city by exploring spatialized constructions of gender and spiritual identity through an integrative framework based on insights from Bachelard's topoanalysis psychogeography The Walworth Beauty Michèle Roberts, 2017-04-20 From feminist cultural theory and comparative literature and religion the Booker shortlisted author comes a sensuous evocative novel exploring the lives of women in Victorian London for fans of Sarah Waters Emma Donoghue and Kate Atkinson 2011 When Madeleine loses her job as a lecturer she decides to leave her riverside flat in cobbled Stew Lane where history never feels far away and move to Apricot Place Yet here too in this quiet Walworth cul de sac she senses the past encroaching a shifting in the atmosphere a current of unseen life 1851 and Joseph Benson has been employed by Henry Mayhew to help research his articles on the working classes A family man with mouths to feed Joseph is tasked with coaxing testimony from prostitutes Roaming the Southwark streets he is tempted by brothels promises of pleasure and as he struggles with his assignment he seeks answers in Apricot Place where the enigmatic Mrs Dulcimer runs a boarding house As these entwined stories unfold alive with the sensations of London past and present the two eras brush against each other a breath at Madeleine's neck a voice in her head the murmurs of ghosts echoing through time Rendered in immediate intoxicating prose The Walworth Beauty is a haunting tale of desire and exploitation isolation and loss and the faltering search for human connection this is Mich le Roberts at her masterful best Post-War British Women Novelists and the Canon Nick Turner, 2011-11-03 With the increasing number of books on contemporary fiction there is a need for a work that examines whom we value and why These questions lie at the heart of this book which by focusing on four novelists literary and popular interrogates the canon over the last fifty years The argument unfolds to demonstrate that academic trends increasingly control canonicity as do the demands of genre the increasing commercialisation of literature and the power of the literary prize Turner argues that literary excellence demonstrated by style and imaginative power is often missing in many works that have become modern classics and makes a case for the value of the universal in literature Written in a jargon free style with reference to many supporting writers the book raises a number of significant cultural questions about the arts fashions and literary reputations of interest to readers in contemporary literary studies

Neo-Victorian Cannibalism Tammy Lai-Ming Ho,2019-02-04 This Pivot examines a body of contemporary neo Victorian novels whose uneasy relationship with the past can be theorised in terms of aggressive eating including cannibalism Not only is the imagery of eating repeatedly used by critics to comprehend neo Victorian literature the theme of cannibalism itself also appears overtly or implicitly in a number of the novels and their Victorian prototypes thereby mirroring the cannibalistic relationship between the contemporary and the Victorian Tammy Lai Ming Ho argues that aggressive eating or cannibalism can be seen as a pathological and defining characteristic of neo Victorian fiction demonstrating how cannibalism provides a framework for understanding the genre's origin its conflicted ambivalent and violent relationship with its Victorian predecessors and the grotesque and gothic effects that it generates in its fiction Figuring the Woman Author in Contemporary Fiction M. Eagleton, 2005-12-15 If the author is dead if feminism is post why does the figure of the woman author keep appearing as a central character in contemporary fiction She is concerned with ownership but equally with loss determined to enter the cultural field but also rejecting that field looking for control but subject to duplicity seeking power alongside desire Drawing on a diverse range of contemporary authors including Atwood Byatt Brookner Coetzee Lurie LeGuin Mich le Roberts Shields Spark Weldon Walker this study explores the complexity and continuing fascination of this Neo-Victorian Biofiction, 2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism's deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked Michèle Roberts Sarah Falcus, 2007 This book provides an accessible and yet thorough analysis of the microhistories work of Mich le Roberts a prolific half English and half French writer who can claim both literary and popular appeal Roberts s work is examined alongside contemporary feminist theory particularly the work of Luce Irigaray and feminist philosophers of religion The book traces the development of Roberts s work from its origins in the feminist movement of the seventies through its engagement with the philosophy of religion and its interest in historiography to the postmodern playfulness of her latest work At the same time the book does acknowledge enduring concerns in her oeuvre particularly the fascination with the mother daughter relationship and the desire to engage with and rewrite both history and myth The book offers detailed readings of Roberts s novels together with a selection of her short stories and poetry Postmortem Postmodernists Laura E. Savu, 2009 This book scrutinizes the genre of the author as character with respect to three broad issues authorship the posthumous and cultural revisionism that arise in reading such works from a contemporary perspective Late twentieth century fiction postmodernizes romantic and modern authors not only to understand them better but also to understand itself in relation to a past literary tradition aesthetic paradigms cultural formations etc that has not really passed Penelope Fitzgerald's The Blue Flower Peter Ackroyd's The Last Testament of Oscar Wilde and Chatterton Peter Carey's Jack Maggs Michael Cunningham s The Hours Colm Toibin s The Master and Geoff Dyer s Out of Sheer Rage Wrestling with D H

Lawrence the mighty dead Harold Bloom are brought back to life reanimated and bodied forth in new textual bodies that project a post modern understanding of the author as a historically and culturally contingent subjectivity constructed along the lines of gender sexual orientation class and nationality Laura E Savu is a lecturer at the University of Bucharest

Women Writing the Neo Victorian Novel Erotic Victorians focuses on the work of British Irish and Commonwealth women writers such as A S Byatt Emma Donoghue Sarah Waters Helen Humphreys Margaret Atwood and Ahdaf Soueif among others and their attempts to re envision the erotic Kathleen Renk argues that women writers of the neo Victorian novel are far more philosophical in their approach to representing the erotic than male writers and draw more heavily on Victorian conventions that would proscribe the graphic depiction of sexual acts thus leaving more to the reader s imagination This book addresses the following questions Why are women writers drawn to the neo Victorian genre and what does this reveal about the state of contemporary feminism How do classical and contemporary forms of the erotic play into the ways in which women writers address the Victorian woman question How exactly is the erotic used to underscore women s creative potential
