Horror Dogs Brian Patrick Duggan, 2023-08-07 How did beloved movie dogs become man killers like Cujo and his cinematic pack mates For the first time here is the fascinating history of canines in horror movies and why our best friends were and are still painted as malevolent Stretching back into Classical mythology treacherous hounds are found only sporadically in art and literature until the appearance of cinema s first horror dog Sherlock Holmes Hound of the Baskervilles The story intensifies through World War II s K 9 Corps to the 1970s animal horror films which broke social taboos about the good dog on screen and deliberately vilified certain breeds sometimes even fluffy lapdogs With behind the scenes insights from writers directors actors and dog trainers here are the flickering hounds of silent films through talkies and Technicolor to the latest computer generated brutes the supernatural rabid laboratory made alien feral and trained killers Cave Canem Beware the Dog or as one seminal film warned They re not pets anymore Most Evil Steve Hodel, Ralph

Pezzullo, 2009-09-22 From the New York Times bestselling author of Black Dahlia Avenger Former LAPD detective Steve Hodel compiles never before seen evidence that reveals his father as a serial killer who may have been responsible for some of the most infamous murders of the last century including the Zodiac killings Smirk, Sneer and Scream Mark Clark, 2003-12-31 While you may think the old adage about oil and water being unable to mix applies perfectly to the cinema of terror and the craft of great acting many a grease painted scare and fluid performance have been combined in the strange alchemy that is the horror film From the silent mastery of Lon Chaney s The Phantom of the Opera to the cultured cannibalism of Anthony Hopkins in The Silence of the Lambs the genre has seen an impressive number of noteworthy portrayals far removed from the stereotypical leering monster and terrified maiden Part One of this work highlights the stars of this screen style those whose numerous roles and outstanding performances made their names synonymous with horror cinema Part Two covers actors who although not normally associated with the genre still contributed to its history Part Three covers the great actresses in horror films and highlights their acting achievement An appendix lists all the Academy Award nominations and winners in the horror genre No Jurisdiction Fareed Ben-Youssef, 2022-07-01 No Jurisdiction interweaves autobiography and analysis to explore how a disabled American of French Arab descent justifies his love for the super heroes who destroy brown people like himself Framing Hollywood genre films as a key to understanding a crisis filled world shaped by the global War on Terror Fareed Ben Youssef shows how in response to 9 11 filmmakers and lawmakers mobilized iconic characters the cowboy the femme fatale and the superhero to make sense of our traumas and inspire new legal landscapes The competing visions of power produced in this dialogue between Hollywood entertainment and mainstream politics underscore genre cinema s multivalent purpose to normalize state violence and also to critique it Chapters devoted to the Western film noir superhero movies and global films that deploy and comment on these genres offer compelling readings of films ranging from the more apparent The Dark Knight Sicario and Logan to the more unexpected Sin

City Adieu Gary The Broken Circle Breakdown and Tokyo Sonata Through narratives of states of emergency that include vaguely defined enemies obscured battlefield boundaries and blurred lines between victims and perpetrators a new post 9 11 film canon emerges No Jurisdiction is a deeply personal work of film scholarship arguing that we can face our complicity and discover opportunities for resistance through our beloved genre movies

After Dracula Alison Peirse,2013-08-28 After Dracula tells of films set in London music halls and Yorkshire coal mines South Sea Islands and Hungarian modernist houses of horror with narrators that survey the outskirts of contemporary Paris and travel back in time to ancient Egypt Alison Peirse argues that Dracula 1931 has been canonised to the detriment of other innovative and original 1930s horror films in Europe and America By casting out the deified vampire she reveals a cycle of films made over the 1930s that straddle both the pre and post regulatory era of the Hays Production Code an stringent censorship from the British Board of Film Censors These films are independent and studio productions literary adaptations folktales and original screenplays and include Werewolf of London The Man Who Changed His Mind Island of Lost Souls and Vampyr The book considers the horror genre's international evolution during this period engaging with a number of European horror films that have hitherto received cursory attention It focuses on the interplay between Continental British and transatlantic contexts and particularly on the intriguing the obscure and the underrated

Body Double Lucy Fischer,2013-01-15 Body Double explores the myriad ways that film artists have represented the creative process In this highly innovative work Lucy Fischer draws on a neglected element of auteur studies to show that filmmakers frequently raise questions about the paradoxes of authorship by portraying the onscreen writer Dealing with such varied topics as the icon of the typewriter the case of the writer director the authoress and the omnipresent infirm author she probes the ways in which films can tell a plausible story while contemplating the conditions and theories of their making By examining many forms of cinema from Hollywood and the international art cinema to the avant garde Fischer considers the gender age and mental or physical health of fictionalized writers the dramatized interaction between artists and their audiences and critics and the formal play of written words and nonverbal images By analyzing such movies as Adaptation Diary of a Country Priest Naked Lunch American Splendor and Irezumi Fischer tracks the parallels between film author and character looking not for the creative figure who stands outside the text but for the one who stands within it as corporeal presence and alter ego
