original scholarly studies that presents the first volume length exploration of the spectral in literature film and photography of Latin America Spain and the Latino diaspora In recent decades scholarship in deconstructionist hauntology trauma studies affect in image theory and a renewed interest in the Gothic genre has given rise to a Spectral Studies approach to the study of narrative Haunting the spectral and the effects of the unseen carry a special weight in contemporary Latin American and Spanish cultures referred to in the book as Transhispanic cultures due to the ominous legacy of authoritarian governments and civil wars as well as the imposition of the unseen yet tangible effects of global economics and neoliberal policies Ribas and Petersen s detailed introductory analysis grounds haunting as a theoretical tool for literary and cultural criticism in the Transhispanic world with an emphasis on the contemporary period from the end of the Cold War to the present The chapters in this volume explore haunting from a diversity of perspectives in particular engaging haunting as a manifestation of trauma absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph s ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present   Planks of Reason Barry Keith Grant,Christopher Sharrett,2004-09-24 The original edition of Planks of Reason was the first academic critical anthology on horror In retrospect it appeared as a kind of homage to the golden age of the American horror film as this genre played an increasing role in film culture and American life The original material represented the history of the genre through the early 1980s and is a crucial part of the book s value then and now The first edition helped legitimize academic writing on the horror genre by addressing breakthrough works of such directors as John Carpenter Tobe Hooper George Romero David Cronenberg and Wes Craven This revised edition retains the spirit of the original but also offers new takes on rediscovered classics and recent developments in the genre In addition to reprinting 17 essays including Robin Wood s An Introduction to the American Horror Film this revised edition features a new essay on the yuppie horror film by editor Barry Keith Grant as well as an updated analysis of The Texas Chainsaw Massacre by co editor Christopher Sharrett Other new essays focus on William Castle s The Tingler and Roger Corman s Pit and the Pendulum and the recent wave of Japanese horror films Contains more than 60 photos   Genre, Gender and the Effects of Neoliberalism Betty Kaklamanidou,2013-03-05 The romantic comedy has long been regarded as an inferior film genre by critics and scholars alike accused of maintaining a strict narrative formula which is considered superficial and highly predictable However the genre has resisted the negative scholarly and critical comments and for the last three decades the steady increase in the numbers of romantic comedies position the genre among the most popular ones in the globally dominant Hollywood film industry The enduring power of the new millennium romantic comedy proves that therein lies something deeper and worth investigating This new work draws together a discussion of the full range of romantic comedies in the new millennium exploring the cycles of films that tackle areas including teen romance the new career woman women as action heroes motherhood and pregnancy and the mature millennium woman The work evaluates the structure of these different types of films and examines in detail the ways in which they choose to frame key contemporary issues which influence how we analyse global politics including gender class race and society Providing a rich understanding of the complexities and potential of the genre for understanding contemporary society this work will be of interest to students and scholars of cultural film studies gender politics and world politics in general   Paranormal Media Annette Hill,2010-11-05 Paranormal Media offers a unique timely exploration of the extraordinary unexplained and supernatural in popular culture looking in unusual places in order to understand this phenomenon   The Woman's Film of the 1940s Alison L. McKee,2014-04-03 This book explores the relationship among gender desire and narrative in 1940s woman s films which negotiate the terrain between public history and private experience The woman s film and other form of cinematic melodrama have often been understood as positioning themselves outside history and this book challenges and modifies that understanding contextualizing the films it considers against the backdrop of World War II In addition in paying tribute to and departing from earlier feminist formulations about gendered spectatorship in cinema McKee argues that such models emphasized a masculine centered gaze at the inadvertent expense of understanding other possible modes of identification and gender expression in classical narrative cinema She proposes ways of understanding gender and narrative based in part on literary narrative theory and ultimately works toward a notion of an androgynous spectatorship and mode of interpretation in the 1940s woman s film   Weird Lullabies Betty Jay,2008 This book focuses on the mother daughter relationship as it features in a number of films from the 1990s onwards Bringing the insights of psychoanalysis and feminism to bear on a diverse and compelling range of representations of the mother daughter dynamic the author addresses a range of questions relating to the social historical and cultural conditions which go to inform the female experience These include in relation to Dolores Claiborne Heavenly Creatures and The Others an exploration of different forms of familial violence and resistance to it and in One True Thing Stepmom and Pieces of April questions about the construction of the ideal mother and her loss From The Piano s engagement with French feminism and Losing Chase s reworking of the life and work of Virginia Woolf to the depiction of cross racial relationships during apartheid in Friends the films that go to make up this study all share a central concern with both the literal and symbolic forms that the mother daughter relationship encompasses
