Historic Figures of the Arthurian Era Frank D. Reno, 2015-07-11 The author has determined in an earlier McFarland book The Historic King Arthur 1996 paperback 2007 that there was not a historic King Arthur during the sixth century However as listed in The Historia Brittonum there was a great king of all the kings of Britain named Ambrosius Aurelianus who was conflated with a heroic Arthur of the second century and hence with the legendary King Arthur To further authenticate the Celtic Romano King Arthur that is Ambrosius the author here examines seven major historical figures of the period A D 383 500 based upon the Genealogical Preface of The Anglo Saxon Chronicle and the emendation of dates in that chronicle Those seven allies and adversaries are Vortigern Vortimer Vitalinus Cunedda Cerdic Oetha and Mordred Through an extensive analysis of Arthur's 12 battles listed in the Historia Brittonum this work explores both the influences of the High King's allies and the shifting allegiances of his enemies A battle list provides possible geographic locations for each of the battles including a new site for Arthur's fateful battle at Camlann

Britain's Second Embassy to China Caroline Stevenson, 2021-02-01 Lord Amherst's diplomatic mission to the Qing Court in 1816 was the second British embassy to China The first led by Lord Macartney in 1793 had failed to achieve its goals It was thought that Amherst had better prospects of success but the intense diplomatic encounter that greeted his arrival ended badly Amherst never appeared before the Jiaqing emperor and his embassy was expelled from Peking on the day it arrived Historians have blamed Amherst for this outcome citing his over reliance on the advice of his Second Commissioner Sir George Thomas Staunton not to kowtow before the emperor Detailed analysis of British sources reveal that Amherst was well informed on the kowtow issue and made his own decision for which he took full responsibility Success was always unlikely because of irreconcilable differences in approach China's conduct of foreign relations based on the tributary system required submission to the emperor thus relegating all foreign emissaries and the rulers they represented to vassal status whereas British diplomatic practice was centred on negotiation and Westphalian principles of equality between nations The Amherst embassy's failure revised British assessments of China and led some observers to believe that force rather than diplomacy might be required in future to achieve British goals The Opium War of 1840 that followed set a precedent for foreign interference in China resulting in a century of humiliation This resonates today in President Xi Jinping's call for National Rejuvenation to restore China's historic place at the centre of a new Sino centric global order
