Sites Of Insight Colorado Sacred Place:

Colorado's Sanctuaries, Retreats, and Sacred Places Jean Torkelson, 2001 From camp like mountain retreats to urban sanctuaries to remote enclaves of miraculous natural beauty this guidebook catalogs nearly 100 of the state's best sites for soul searching through informative descriptions and full color photographs Photos Colorado Carl Abbott, Stephen J. Leonard, Thomas J. Noel, 2013-06-15 Since 1976 newcomers and natives alike have learned about the rich history of the magnificent place they call home from Colorado A History of the Centennial State In the fifth edition coauthors Carl Abbott Stephen J Leonard and Thomas J Noel incorporate recent events scholarship and insights about the state in an accessible volume that general readers and students will enjoy The new edition tells of conflicts shifting alliances and changing ways of life as Hispanic European and African American settlers flooded into a region that was already home to Native Americans Providing a balanced treatment of the entire state's history from Grand Junction to Lamar and from Trinidad to Craig the authors also reveal how Denver and its surrounding communities developed and gained influence While continuing to elucidate the significant impact of mining agriculture manufacturing and tourism on Colorado the fifth edition broadens and focuses its coverage by consolidating material on Native Americans into one chapter and adding a new chapter on sports history The authors also expand their discussion of the twentieth century with updated sections on the environment economy politics and recent cultural conflicts New illustrations updated statistics and an extensive bibliography including Internet resources enhance this edition Sites of Insight James Lough, Christie Smith, 2003-08-26 Co Winner of the 2004 Colorado Endowment for the Humanities Publication Prize In these eighteen illuminating essays some of Colorado's most accomplished novelists essayists and poets write in intimate detail about their most poignant experiences in the Colorado wilderness Readers are given access both physically and spiritually to settings that inspire reverence for and contemplation about one's relationship to the land From above tree line in the Rawah Mountains down into the broad San Luis Valley from the Western Slope to the high plains in the east the reader is taken on a vivid journey through a rich assortment of Colorado's awe inspiring landscapes Essays by Tom Noel Fred Baca Kristen Iversen and Reyes Garcia are historical in makeup while those by Sangeeta Reddy Merrill Gilfillan and Amy England feature engaging spiritual and philosophical explorations even epiphanies Reg Saner and Nick Sutcliffe share experiences of pitting themselves against nature And in the tradition of Thoreau John Muir and Annie Dillard all of these essayists explore the intense and vibrant relationships people have with the wilderness Sites of Insight belongs on the bookshelves of tourists outdoor enthusiasts and Coloradoans both longtime residents and newcomers who seek to apprehend something in nature that is larger than themselves Sacred Places James Swan, 1990-04 This book explores the age old relationship between human beings and the living ecology Unknown No More Joanne Dearcopp, Christine Hill Smith, 2021-07-29 Thanks in part to the Ken Burns documentary The Dust Bowl Sanora Babb is perhaps best known today for her novel Whose Names Are Unknown 2004 which might have been published in 1939 had her publisher not thought the market too small for two Dust Bowl novels hers and Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath Into the twenty first century Babb wrote and published lyrical prose and poetry that revealed her prescient ideas about gender race and the environment The essays collected in Unknown No More recover and analyze her previously unrecognized contributions to American letters Editors Joanne Dearcopp and Christine Hill Smith have assembled a group of distinguished scholars who for the first time in book length form explore the life and work of Sanora Babb This collection of pathbreaking essays addresses Babb's position within the literature of the Great Plains and American West her leftist political odyssey as a card carrying Communist who ultimately broke with the Party and her ecofeminist leanings as reflected in the environmental themes she explored in her fiction and nonfiction With literary sensibilities reminiscent of Willa Cather Ralph Ellison and Meridel LeSueur Babb's work revealed gender based environmental and working class injustices from the Depression era to the late twentieth century No longer unknown Sanora Babb's life and work form a prism through which the peril and promise of twentieth century America may be seen Sacred Space, Sacred Sound Susan Elizabeth Hale, 2013-11-01 Visionary singer Susan Hale believes that early peoples deliberately built their structures to enhance natural vibrations She takes us around the globe from Stonehenge and New Grange to Gothic cathedrals and Tibetan stupas in New Mexico to explore the acoustics of sacred places But she says you don't have to go to the Taj Mahal The sacred is all around us and we are all sound chambers resonating with the One Song Colorado Libraries, 2003 Colorado Review, 2004 Folklore, People, and Places Jack Hunter, Rachael Ironside, 2023-03-16 Folklore People and Place is a contribution towards better understanding the complex interconnectivity of folklore people and place across a range of different cultural and geographical contexts The book showcases a range of international case studies from different cultural and ecological contexts showing how folklore can and does mediate human relationships with people and place Folklore has traditionally been connected to place telling tales of the land and the real and imaginary beings that inhabit storied places These storytelling traditions and practices have endured in a contemporary world yet the role and value of folklore to people and places has changed The book explores a broad range of international perspectives and considers how the relationship between folklore people and place has evolved for tourists and indigenous communities It will showcase a range of international case studies from different cultural and ecological contexts showing how folklore can and does mediate human relationships with people and place By exploring folklore in the context of tourism this book engages in a critical discussion of the opportunities and challenges of using storied places in destination development The case studies in the book provide an international perspective on the contemporary value of folklore to people and places engendering reflection on the role of folklore in sustainable tourism strategies This book will be of interest to students academics researchers in fields such as anthropology folklore tourism religious studies human geography and related disciplines It will also be of interest to scholars and practitioners of traditional ecological knowledge Bright Hunger Mark Irwin, 2004 Mark Irwin's poetics are a direct descendent of Rilke and Hart Crane His poetry is propelled by charged rhythms and a haunting music An impeccable craftsman Mark Irwin writes with a lyrical urgency that somehow combines the brilliance of Valery and the natural ease of observation of William Carlos Williams David St John Mark Irwin is the author of four previous collections of poetry two of them with BOA Among his literary awards are National Endowment for the Arts and Ohio Art Council Fellowships two Pushcart Prizes the James Wright Poetry Award and a Fulbright Fellowship to Romania He lives with his family in Denver Colorado and spends a part of each year on a wilderness ranch in the San Luis Valley Native Peoples of the Southwest Trudy Griffin-Pierce, 2000-09 A comprehensive guide to the historic and contemporary indigenous cultures of the American Southwest intended for college courses and the general reader Prehistoric Culture Change on the Colorado Plateau Shirley Powell, Francis E. Smiley, 2016-02 A collection of writings by participants in the Black Mesa Archaeological Project offers a synthesis of Kayenta area archaeology examining the ancestral Puebloan and Navajo occupation of the Four Corners region and analysing faunal lithic ceramic chronometric and human osteological data to construct an account of the prehistory and ethnohistory of northern Arizona that demonstrates how organizational variation and other aspects of culture change are largely a response to a changing natural environment Spirit Lands of the Eagle and Bear Robert H. Brunswig, 2020-08-03 Spirit Lands of the Eagle and Bear explores advances in the prehistory and early history of Numic hunter gatherers in the Rocky Mountain West through the presentation and analysis of archaeological and historic research on the period from the earliest established presence in the Rockies and its borderlands more than a thousand years ago to the forced removal of Ute Shoshone and other tribes to reservations in the mid nineteenth century New research into Numic archaeology ethnohistory and ethnography is significantly changing the understanding of migratory patterns cultural interactions chronology and shared cultural religious practices of regionally defined Numic branches and non Numic populations of the American West Contributors examine case studies of Ute and Shoshone material culture ceramics lithics features and structures trade and seasonal migration chronology dendrochronology radiocarbon dating thermoluminescence and subsistence systems hunting camps game drives faunal and botanical evidence of food sources They also delineate different hunter gatherer ethnic groups who co occupied or interacted within one another's territories through trade raiding or seasonal subsistence migrations such as the Late Fremont Ute and the Shoshone or the early Navajo Ute and the Shoshone With a strong emphasis on diverse cases and new and original archaeological ethnohistoric and ethnographic lines of evidence Spirit Lands of the Eagle and Bear interweaves anthropological theory and innovative applications of leading edge scientific methodologies and technologies The book presents a cross section of field laboratory and ethnohistoric studies including indigenous consultation that explore past recent and ongoing developments in Numic cultural history and prehistory It will be of interest to scholars of Southwestern archaeology as well as private and government cultural resource specialists and museum staff Contributors Richard Adams John Cater Christine Chady David Diggs Rand Greubel John Ives

Byron Loosle Curtis Martin Sally McBeth Lindsay Montgomery Bryon Schroeder Matthew Stirn Landscapes of the Sacred Belden C. Lane, 2002 This substantially expanded edition of Belden C Lane's Landscapes of the Sacred includes a new introductory chapter that offers three new interpretive models for understanding American sacred space Lane maintains his approach of interspersing shorter and more personal pieces among full length essays that explore how Native American early French and Spanish Puritan New England and Catholic Worker traditions have each expressed the connection between spirituality and place A new section at the end of the book includes three chapters that address methodological issues in the study of spirituality the symbol making process of religious experience and the tension between place and placelessness in Christian spirituality Winkies, Toilets and Holy Places Timothy Merrill, 2009-01-27 What others are saying about Winkies Toilets and Holy Places A classic travel tale with adventure misadventure and curlicue unexpected turns in the road But more than that it's a voyage in which a family discovers what matters most to them across America and Europe without a dime to spare this is not the travel of pretty picture books from marital squabbles to homesick children from a haunting island monastery to the pure pleasure of simple farmhouse fare They travel moment to moment some staggeringly beautiful gently swinging in cable car above the Swiss Alps and others staggeringly real as when the cable car ride makes one of the boys sick to his stomach with nowhere to go All of this Merrill recounts with the gentle humor of an experienced pastor the wavering resolve of a stepfather and the openhearted joy of a man rekindling his wanderlust Read this tale if you're seeking a window to the Europe not of guidebooks and picture books but of human hearts finding that home is everywhere Paul Shepherd former Writer in Residence and Kingsbury Fellow at Florida State University whose debut novel More Like Not Running Away was the winner of the 2004 Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Indigenous Perspectives on Sacred Natural Sites Jonathan Liljeblad, Bas Verschuuren, 2018-12-17 Much previous literature on sacred natural sites has been written from a non indigenous perspective In contrast this book facilitates a greater self expression of indigenous perspectives regarding treatment of the sacred and its protection and governance in the face of threats from various forms of natural resource exploitation and development It provides indigenous custodians the opportunity to explain how they view and treat the sacred through a written account that is available to a global audience It thus illuminates similarities and differences of both definitions interpretations and governance approaches regarding sacred natural phenomena and their conservation The volume presents an international range of case studies from the recent controversy of pipeline construction at Standing Rock a sacred site for the Sioux people spanning North and South Dakota to others located in Australia Canada East Timor Hawaii India Mexico Myanmar Nigeria and the Philippines Each chapter includes an analytical introduction and conclusion written by the editors to identify common themes unique insights and key messages The book is therefore a valuable teaching resource for students of indigenous studies anthropology religion heritage human rights and law nature conservation and environmental protection It will also be of great interest to professionals and NGOs concerned with nature and heritage conservation International Perspectives on Cultural Parks ,1989 Navajo Sacred Places Editha L. Watson,1964 America, History and Life ,2006 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada
