Arguing Sainthood Katherine Pratt Ewing,1997 Ewing examines the competing forces behind the formation of a modern western subjectivity in the context of Sufi religious meanings and practices in Pakistan Firewalking and Religious Healing Loring M. Danforth,2016-09-29 If the Saint calls you if you have an open road then you don t feel the fire as if it were your enemy says one of the participants in the Anastenaria This compelling work evokes and contrasts two forms of firewalking and religious healing first the Anastenaria a northern Greek ritual in which people who are possessed by Saint Constantine dance dramatically over red hot coals and second American firewalking one of the more spectacular activities of New Age psychology Loring Danforth not only analyzes these rituals in light of the most recent work in medical and symbolic anthropology but also describes in detail the lives of individual firewalkers involving the reader personally in their experiences he views ritual therapy as a process of transformation and empowerment through which people are metaphorically moved from a state of illness to a state of health Danforth shows that the Anastenaria and the songs accompanying it allow people to express and resolve conflict laden family relationships that may lead to certain kinds of illnesses He also demonstrates how women use the ritual to gain a sense of power and control over their lives without actually challenging the ideology of male dominance that pervades Greek culture Comparing the Anastenaria with American firewalking Danforth includes a gripping account of his own participation in a firewalk in rural Maine Finally he examines the place of anthropology in a postmodern world in which the boundaries between cultures are becoming increasingly blurred
