English Prose of the Seventeenth Century 1590-1700 Roger Pooley,2014-06-06 This is the first book length history of the range of seventeenth century English prose writing Roger Pooley s study begins with narrative ranging from the fiction of Bunyan and Aphra Behn to the biographical and autobiographical work of Aubrey and Pepys Further sections consider religious prose from the hugely influential Authorised Version to Donne s sermons the political writing of figures as diverse as Milton Hobbes Locke and Marvell cornucopian texts and the writings of the new scientists from Bacon to Newton At a time when the boundaries of the canon are being increasingly revised this is not only a major survey of a series of great works of literature but also a fascinating social history and a guide to understanding the literature of the period as a whole

Walter Pater and the Beginnings of English Studies Charles Martindale, Elizabeth Prettejohn, Lene Østermark-Johansen, 2023-11-09 Walter Pater's significance for the institutionalization of English studies at British universities in the nineteenth century is often overlooked. Addressing the importance of his volume Appreciations (1889) in placing English literature in both a national and an international context, this book demonstrates the indebtedness of the English essay to the French tradition and brings together the classic, the Romantic, the English and the European. With essays on drama, prose and poetry from Shakespeare and Browne to Lamb, Coleridge, Wordsworth and Pater's contemporaries, Rossetti and Morris, Appreciations exemplifies ideals of aesthetic criticism formulated in Pater's first book Studies in the History of the Renaissance (1873). Subjectivity pervades Pater's essays on the English authors while bringing out their exceptional qualities in a manner reaching far into twentieth-century criticism. And how did those practices change between 1603 and 1660? The second Part discusses the period's most innovative and important literary genres, including satiric city comedy, country house poetry, chorography, masque, tragedy, tragicomedy, religious poetry, epic, the poetry of love and friendship, and a variety of prose.
